

Society

Mrs. C. J. Schnabel and Grandson Edward O'Neil Jr.

(Continued from Page 3.)

which Mrs. Folger Johnson was hostess at Alexandra Court. Guests included Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. Kenneth Robertson, Mrs. Henri Labbe, Mrs. J. B. Bilderback and Miss Louise Small.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sharp entertained last Thursday at a dancing party and buffet supper. Assisting Mrs. Sharp were Mrs. Maurice Crumbraker, Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Mrs. Henry Hughes, Mrs. John Shull and Miss Joyce Parkin.

Guests invited for the delightful holiday festivity were Doctors and Mesdames Joseph McCool, J. B. Bilderback, Eugene W. Rockey, Otis B. Wright, William S. Knox and Paul Rockey, Messrs. and Mesdames Joseph E. Wiley, Walter Beebe, Frank Branch Riley, Chester G. Murphy, Charles F. Beebe, Thomas H. Williams, William B. Roberson, George Willard Brown, Frederick S. Holman, Gerald Beebe, Joseph R. Bowles, John A. Noyes, John Lalouette, John W. Shuler, Robert McMurray, Henry W. Hughes, Mrs. James W. Cook, Mrs. Mary Scarborough, Mrs. Virginia Bain, Mrs. James Gaud, Miss Joyce Parkins, Clarence Sewall, Harriett Williams, Jamieson Parker, Charles S. Holbrook, Captain Roderick D. Grant, Alfred Parker, Frederick V. Holman, George H. Cecil, Charles K. Field and Dr. Harry C. Blair.

The party was planned as an honor event for Mrs. Field and Charles E. Field. Mrs. Sharp's mother and brother, who are here for the holidays, and for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hemingway, who have come here to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Snedecor (Rachel King) were honor guests at a recent dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Preston W. Smith.

An attractive event of the week was Mrs. William Heller Ehrman's bridge tea Tuesday, honoring Mrs. S. W. Ehrman of San Francisco. At the tea hour additional guests were entertained.

A delightful Christmas party was given by little Mary Kollock, daughter of Mrs. John K. Kollock Tuesday afternoon at her home on Council Crest. A score of little friends were invited to luncheon. Sally, daughter of Mrs. Ivan Lovich, was the guest of honor.

A group of the younger girls enjoyed an informal tea Tuesday at which Miss Stella Riggs was hostess. School friends of the hostess were honored guests. Mrs. E. L. Sturgeon and Miss Virginia Norman presided at the tea table and Miss Nan Montgomery, Miss Ruth Ferguson and Miss Dorothy Metcalf assisted about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Saller are welcoming home their two daughters who have returned from school for the Christmas vacation. Miss Kathryn is a student at Wellesley and Miss Jane is attending Mills college.

One of the informal teas of the week was that of Mrs. Harold Gill who entertained Monday afternoon. Her guests included a dozen matrons and maids, who came for bridge, and a few others, who came at the tea hour.

Miss Ruth Ferguson has come from Mills college for the holidays. She and her mother, Dr. Belle C. Ferguson, are spending the vacation time with Mrs. W. H. Mitchell at her home on Ravensview drive.

Well-loved Christmas carols will be sung this afternoon at the auditorium in the popular programme of the Portland Symphony orchestra. An artistic and timely group of songs has been arranged, and well-known singers of the city will be heard in the various numbers.

Nancy Lee, the attractive daughter of Mrs. Kathryn Howorth, is to appear at the Little Theater Christmas week. The play is based on the old story of Cinderella. It is being directed by George Natanson, with whom she has been studying for more than a year. Miss Lee spent the summer in Los Angeles, where she was extensively entertained by her cousin, Mrs. Stabler and Marie Curtis, formerly of the Alcazar theater of this city. Miss Lee has been in musical comedy and has had some moving picture experience. The play will be given December 29, 30, 31 and January 1.

Miss Kathleen Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mitchell, is spending the winter in Honolulu, where she is the guest of Mrs. W. M. Bellinger. Miss Mitchell sailed on December 8.

Miss Alva Wilson of Grand's Pass, Bride Elect.

Brides-elect are sharing in the many gaieties of the Christmas season and Miss Katherine Therkelsen is one of the most popular. Her marriage to Alfred Justin O'Brien will be an event of January 5. Mrs. Robert MacDonald honored Miss Therkelsen and Mr. O'Brien with a theater party Monday evening and on Sunday afternoon Miss Margaret Schacht received for the couple. Half a hundred young people shared in the affair.

Miss Helen Clair has invited a few friends to her home for Tuesday afternoon, complimenting Miss Jennet Hancock, bride-elect. Several delightful affairs are being planned for Miss Hancock.

Portland society is welcoming Mrs. Robert L. Jones (Natalie Hall Willatts), a New York girl who came to Oregon recently. The wedding of the eastern girl and Robert L. Jones of Portland was solemnized in Flushing, Long Island, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clinton Willatts. Miss Frances L. Jones, sister of the bridegroom, went east to be bridesmaid, and Miss Elizabeth Willatts, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Frank Moseley, a college friend of Mr. Jones, was best man.

Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Nelson Jones. He attended Phillips academy in Massachusetts and later went to Yale. He and his bride are now on Tenas Ilhies island, Clifton, where Mr. Jones is in charge of a large cattle ranch. Mrs. Jones and her daughter, Miss Helen Jones, will give a tea Thursday night at the clubhouse. The oldest, most dilapidated costumes will be in order. The committee for the evening will include Norman Arenz, Alan Edwards and George Eisman.

Children of the St. Stephen's cathedral Sunday school will have their annual Christmas tree and party next Tuesday afternoon, Holy Inno-

Miss Elizabeth Wiggins Hostess For Christmas Phi Beta Bridge Tea.

(MARKHAM PHOTO)

Hirschberger. Miss Helen Hollister sang a solo before the ceremony. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue tulle, fur-trimmed, with a small hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Kelly was attired in a dark blue georgette gown, with an attractive hat to complete the costume.

Following the ceremony a supper was served. Miss Mary Hall of Olds, Alberta, presided at the coffee urn, and Mrs. Moseley Jones cut the loaves. Miss Hazel Trouten assisted about the dining room.

The bride is an attractive girl, an alumnae of Oregon Agricultural college and a member of Chi Omega. Mr. Hirschberger is a graduate of Portland academy and is associated with his father, H. Hirschberger, in business. After a lengthy stay in California, Mr. and Mrs. Hirschberger will return to Portland to reside.

The benefit tea for which the Portland alumnae chapter of Gamma Phi Beta will be hostess next Friday at the home of Miss Elizabeth Wiggins, 727 Clackamas street, promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week. During the early afternoon 15 tables of bridge will be played and additional guests will call at the tea hour, 4 o'clock. Receiving the guests will be Mrs. Hamilton Weir, Miss Beatrice Locke, Miss Elizabeth Wiggins and Miss Eloise White, assisted by Mrs. Pat H. Allen, Mrs. George N. West and Mrs. Caroline Benson Under.

The tea table will be presided over by Mrs. S. F. Wilson and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, assisted by Mrs. Charles E. Petheram, Miss Lenore Blasing, Miss Marguerite Gross and Miss Katherine Wilson. A large number of college women prominent in educational and society circles are interested in the affair, which is a benefit for the charity fund of the chapter. The committee arranging for the bridge tea includes: Mrs. George N. West, chairman; Mrs. Carlos C. Close, Mrs. Pat Allen, Mrs. Lyle G. Fear, Mrs. Charles E. Petheram, Mrs. Harold E. Wheeler and Miss Lenore Blasing.

Multnomah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were entertained Saturday by Mrs. William House at her residence, 452 vista avenue.

Miss Valentine Pritchard gave a very interesting account of the work in Americanization in Portland. Mrs. B. M. Lansworth sang several charming songs. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Warren E. Thomas. Presiding at the tea table were

We Know You Will Like

Portland's New Cosmetic Shop with its skilled and personal attention.

Suite 637 Morgan Bldg. JUNE FLAG LILLIAN HAYES INEZ BAILEY For appointment, phone Ant. 523-38

MRS. FARRELL Expert Operator. Superluous Hair, Moles, Birthmarks, Eyebrows Permanently Corrected. Large Pores Removed by Electrolysis. 427 Pittcock Block. Telephone Broadway 4609. (Diplomas From Boston, Chicago and State Medical Board.)

Safety Self-Filling Price $2.50 and up

FRANKLIN FOUNTAIN PEN CO. For Sale by All Dealers.

Blumauer-Frank Drug Co. Wholesale Distributors.

Mrs. Herbert Pat Allen and Children Benson and Esther be maid of honor. Mr. Filop will be attended by his brother, Irwin Fulop. Miss Shemanski is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shemanski and has been the inspiration for many delightful affairs.

Miss Belle Simon announced her engagement to A. L. Paul at an informal tea given at her home on Friday. Little Elaine Masonik and Evelyn Simon passed among the guests individual corsage bouquets to which were attached hearts quaintly announcing the betrothal. Miss Dorothy Simon, just returned from the University of Washington for Christmas vacation, was the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Simon will receive at their home at 766 Gilean street next Sunday.

One of the most attractive luncheons of the holiday week will be that given by the Delta Delta Delta girls at the Multnomah hotel, Tuesday, honoring the active chapter girls of the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college, who are spending Christmas in Portland. Covers will be laid for 40.

An event of the after Christmas holidays will be the dance given by Phi Beta Phi at Laurelhurst club, Wednesday. All college folk have been invited to be present. Among the patronesses will be Mrs. F. L. Knight, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. John Claire Monticelli, Mrs. Gus C. Moser, Mrs. F. C. Knapp, Mrs. L. E. Steinmetz, Mrs. Burton Beck and Mrs. Dean Vincent.

Portland Alumnae club of Alpha Chi Omega and active members of the fraternity from the University of Washington and Oregon Agricultural college will hold their annual luncheon at 12 o'clock Tuesday, December 28, at the Hotel Portland. Covers will be laid for 35 persons. The luncheon (Continued on Page 6.)

Miss Dorothy Stead Hostess For A Dance.

Mrs. William Oberstuffer and Mrs. John Pearson, the regent of the chapter. They were assisted by the Misses Harriett Griffith, May Wallace and Janet and Priscilla House, daughters of the hostess.

The next of a series of formal dances of the Multnomah club will be given on January 27. Joseph F. Reich and his committee are making extensive plans for the affair. Intermediate members of the club are anticipating a dancing party to be given Friday evening, January 7. Members of the younger set will attend. Edwin Seer is committee chairman.

Dr. and Mrs. John Benson have returned from eastern Oregon where they passed an enjoyable month.

Eta Alpha chapter of Chi Omega will give an informal dance at the Portland Golf club New Year's night. Miss Bess Waich is chairman of the committee for the affair.

The wedding of Miss Adrienne Shemanski and Joseph R. Fulop has been arranged for January 5. The ceremony will be held at the Temple ever given is the natural beauty possessed by women. Yet those less fortunate need not suffer the embarrassment of a poor complexion, as natural beauty is greatly improved and a poor complexion may be remedied by the efficient methods of

The Greatest Gift

THE ORIGINALITY OF DESIGN lends the greatest beauty to any embroidered garment.

Let K. STEPHAN Do Your HAND AND MACHINE EMBROIDERY

Accordions, side and box pleating. Buttons, Hemstitching, etc. 221 Pittcock Building Broadway 1099

W. G. SMITH & CO. 211 Morgan Building.

F. W. PATT & CO. LADIES' TAILOR Suits, Gowns, Waists 200-7 Broadway Building.

N. M. UNGAR, FURRIER

Closes the Doors of This Store on December 30

Only Four Days More Selling

of these

Wonderful Fur Bargains

We seriously believe that furs will never again be sold for these prices. Note the reductions---they read like fiction---but every word is true.

COME EARLY

$600	Hudson Seal sport coat (seal-dyed muskrat), 32 inches long, beautiful quality; a smart model; now.....	$199.50
$900	Hudson Seal coat (seal-dyed muskrat) with beautiful large collar and cuffs of natural Skunk; 36 inches long; lined with Pussy Willow silk; now.....	$345.00
$700	Hudson Seal coat (seal-dyed muskrat) with large Beaver collar; clever model; now.....	$282.50
$450	Sealine coat (seal-dyed coney) with large Nutria collar; 40 inches long; fine quality; now.....	$177.50
$750	Scotch Mole coat; 36-inch length with large cape collar; wonderful garment; now.....	$315.00
$120	and $130 Fox scarfs in all the new colors, also in natural red, now.....	$ 55.00
$175	Black Lynx Scarfs; extra large, silky, well-furred skins, now.....	$ 83.75
$ 85	-$90.00-$95.00 Wolf scarfs in all the popular shades, to close.....	$ 39.50

Hundreds of wonderful bargains in Furs to choose from. This stock is being sold under the supervision of the Hudson Bay Fur Co., who guarantee the reliability of every garment sold.

N. M. UNGAR

BROADWAY AT ALDER