

News of World

As Seen By Camera

IN the November election the youngest congressman on record was chosen in the 13th district of Michigan. He is Clarence J. McLeod, a Detroit attorney, who became 24 years old July 2, 1920. He is to serve out the term of the late Congressman C. E. Nichols. The republican nomination for this seat was won August 31, less than two months after Mr. McLeod became eligible to make the race.

Marshal Foch, who commanded the allied forces in the world war, is a clever marksmen and enthusiastic hunter. A picture presented here shows him in civilian clothes as he was waiting for a shot at a pheasant in a recent hunt.

Shortly after the inauguration of her husband as president of Mexico, Mrs. Alvaro Obregon was hostess at a tea party to American men and women at the presidential palace in Chapultepec, Mexico. In the illustration Mrs. Obregon is second from the right.

After having lived as a monk for 20 years, James Connell Biddle, member of a prominent Philadelphia family, has taken a bride. She was Miss Lena Galnes of Warrenton, Va. They were wedded in Washington, D. C., after he gave up life in a monastery at Gethsamane, Ky.

Contained in one of the thousands of bags of mail which arrived in New York on the liner Aquitania was one live parcel which has not been accounted for—a little blue kitten. In coming from England the kitten spent eight days without food or water.

Edward Beale McLean of Washington, D. C., has been selected by President-Elect Harding as chairman of the committee to arrange details of the inaugural ceremonies next March.

He is owner and editor of the Washington Post. He is said to be in favor of reviving the inaugural ball.

In the future it is said, most of Uncle Sam's big field guns will be mounted on caterpillar tractors. The tractor recently tested out easily carries a big 115-mm. gun 14 miles an hour, and can negotiate 45-degree slopes.

The breaking of an electric wire, which short-circuited with a flash and fired the oil covered waters under the Jancke drydocks at New Orleans, La., caused a conflagration which destroyed property valued at $8,000,000 to $10,000,000, including three vessels.

Motorcycles with side-cars are becoming popular in London as taxicabs, it is reported. Speed and low cost of operation make them popular. In some instances girls operate them.

Youngest Congressman Ever Elected.
© UNDERWOOD AND UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

Marshal Foch Enjoys Hunting.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

Mrs. Obregon Entertains Americans.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

Monk for 20 Years Weds.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

Kitten Comes From England In Mail Sack.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

Man Who Will Direct Harding Inaugural.
© UNDERWOOD AND UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

New Truck Caterpillar For U. S. Army.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

New Orleans Has Big Dock Fire.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N.Y.

Motorcycle Taxi Popular In London.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N.Y.