Mrs. W. P. Hawley, who has returned from winter trip.

Mrs. E. L. Kline, who has returned from winter trip.

afternoon with a smart luncheon at the Meier & Frank tea room in honor of Mrs. Warren Keeler. Covers were placed for 12.

Mrs. A. M. Hungerford of Astoria is the guest of Mrs. George B. McLeod. Mrs. Hungerford has planned to spend a week in Portland.

An unusual number of line parties will take place the night of the Rotary entertainment, February 1, in the city auditorium, for the benefit of the children's department of the new Hahnemann hospital, for which the local Rotary club at its Christmas meeting pledged $25,000. Practically every member of the Rotary club has purchased or pledged himself for the sale of 10 tickets, with the result that nearly all of the 300 Rotarian wives are arranging for line parties of 10 guests on that evening. Tickets are $10 each and this fact alone will give the affair a gala atmosphere. Only about 500 cards of admission will be put on general sale owing to the large subscriptions by club members, who in the sale of tickets are stressing the cause for which the entertainment is taking place rather than for the excellent programme of fun and song which the general committee is arranging.

At the Nichols-Amesbury nuptials orange blossoms from southern California were given to each guest present. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nichols came from Pasadena to attend the ceremony and brought a great hamper of the fragrant blossoms, so there were sprays of blossoms for all. At the reception that followed the wedding Mrs. F. C. Selters cut legs and Miss Emily Curran poured. Assisting were Mrs. Ross C. Day, Mrs. Harold Temple, Mrs. Elva Burness Watson, Mrs. Vernon Shoemaker of Hood River, Reba Macklin sang "At Dawning" and Miss Ruth Riley played the accompaniment.

The Portland Heights club gave an enjoyable party last Friday night at its clubhouse on the heights.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Soden was the scene of a pretty wedding last night, when their daughter, Miss Frances Soden, became the bride of Merton Addison Dobbin. The service was read at 8:30 o'clock by Dr. J. T. Abbott, former pastor of the University Park church, in the presence of about 50 intimate friends and relatives. The couple were unattended. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. John Claiborne sang "The Birthday" and "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. Willis Buckman, both aunts of the bride.

The bride wore an attractive model of white tulle and silver lace. She carried a shower bouquet of freesias and brides' roses.

Following the ceremony a supper was served. Mrs. George B. Hovenden, a relative of the bride, presided at the coffee urn. Her sister, Mrs.

Poster M. Murphy, cut loess. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Marguerite Neely of Tacoma and Miss Vivian Hargrove of Salem. The bride is a charming girl with a wide circle of friends in this city. She attended the Oregon Agricultural college and is a member of the Phi Beta Phi society. Mr. Dobbin is the son of A. H. Dobbin of Mankato, Minn., where he formerly resided. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Dobbin will make their home in Medford, Or., where Mr. Dobbin has business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wright (Margaret Ray) entertained Wednesday night at a dinner and bridge party in honor of the birthday of Dr. Frank Sullivan. The table was centered with red carnations and dainty favors marked the places. Dr. and Mrs. Sullivan won honors at bridge. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. David Gowans, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Portland alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega will meet next Saturday at 2:30 P. M. in the home of Mrs. Fred Lester, 1817 Royal avenue, Mount Taber.

One of the attractive formal parties of the week was the ball given last Friday night by the Irvington club at the clubhouse. Many beautiful gowns were worn by the fair guests. On January 23 the party will be informal. The social committee this month is doing splendid work.

A lovely bride of Wednesday night was Miss Ruth Amesbury, whose marriage to Robert Nichols was solemnized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dobbin took place Saturday, a tea

E. W. Amesbury, parents of the bride. Rev. Donald MacCluer officiated. The rooms were decorated in greenery with spring flowers intermingled. It was the first wedding of the year to have the spring blossoms in abundance as a decorative scheme. The bride was gowned in kitten's ear crepe trimmed in pearls and her veil was becomingly arranged. Her bouquet was of May Martin roses and bouvardia. Miss Jean Amesbury, who attended her sister, was gowned in peach colored tulle trimmed with silver lace and a touch of turquoise blue at the girdle. Ransom Cook was best man. A buffet supper was served at the conclusion of the ceremony. The young couple will return to Portland after a brief trip, before going to Pasadena to reside. The bride is a former O. A. C. student and the bridegroom is a graduate of Stanford university.

The Assembly met last Friday at the Laurelhurst clubhouse and the members enjoyed a delightful evening. Dancing and a supper were features.

Among the many affairs of interest during the week was the dance given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chatten.

Springtime!

A presentation of new Spring Fashions for women and misses—a revelation of unique style tendencies, beautiful colorings and originality
Your Inspection Invited

Suits—

Jaunty boleros and ripples for the young woman and miss, some having wide girdle sashes of satin with fringed ends. Straight-line silhouettes of the genteel type for more conservative tastes. The materials are tricot, tricotone and twills, with navy and sand as the leading colors.

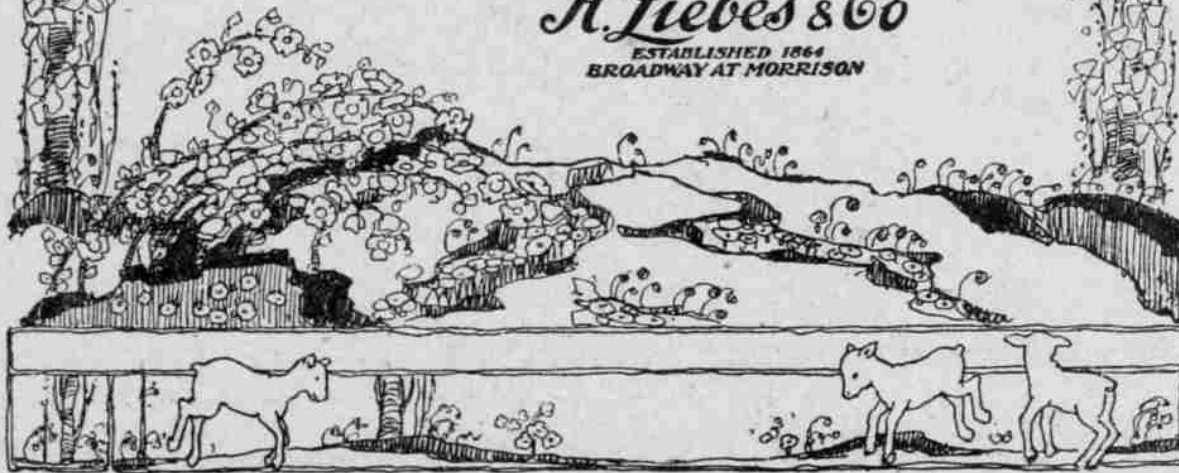

Wraps—

of unusual charm in their soft, long-nap fabrics, which rival silks and velvets for effectiveness. Graceful, wrappy styles with large crush collars, cape styles, some with overcape effect; neutral shades, navy and black.

Frocks—

of extreme beauty, showing effective contrast effects in both materials and colors. Elaborately braided and beaded models in light and dark colors. Saucy taffetas especially becoming to the miss and young woman.
