Mrs. Warren E. Thomas,
Visiting in New York City

the beautiful ring ceremony was impressively read by the officiating clergyman.

As the bride party made their exit the bride's wedding march, which was followed by a solo, "A Perfect Day," by Mr. Von Groenwald.

The guests then assembled in the classroom where congratulations were extended and a reception was held, following which a banquet was served. After a brief honeymoon trip to Eugene and other points of interest the happy young couple will be at home at 125 Quimby street in this city.

Moon-Gwinn.

PENDLETON, Or., Jan. 23.—(Special.)—A wedding of more than usual interest to local people took place on Tuesday when Miss Olive Gwinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gwinn of this city, became the bride of Verne Hunter Moon. The marriage service took place at the Gwinn home on Water street with the Rev. G. L. Clark officiating. Only the bride's parents and a few intimate friends were present. A feature of the bride's trousseau was a spray of orange blossoms worn by her mother on her wedding day which was caught in the bride's corsage.

Mrs. Moon is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gwinn. She is a graduate of Pendleton high school and the University of Washington.

Mr. Moon attended both the University of California and the University of Minnesota and is a member of Chi Psi fraternity.

Geller-Cohen.

Miss Sadie Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cohen, and Boris H. Geller were married on Sunday, January 2, in Gevurtz hall, Front and Gibbs streets. The young couple returned a few days ago and will make their home in Portland, where the bridegroom has business interests. For the wedding the bride wore a handsome brocaded satin gown and filmy veil that fell to the full length of her train. A band of orange blossoms encircled her head. She carried a shower of white roses and bouvardia tied with chiffon ribbons.

Packous-Lichtgarn.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Lichtgarn and Nathan Packous was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on East Lincoln street.

The services were read by Rev. A. Rosenkrantz. In the presence of more than 100 friends and relatives of the couple. The rooms were adorned with Ophelia roses combined with smilax and palms. A supper followed the ceremony.

For her wedding gown the bride chose a girlish model of ivory-toned satin. The wedding veil of tulle was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. Bride roses and lilies of the valley combined with beavardia formed the bridal bouquet. Miss Mildred Lichtgarn, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor and was crowned in pink satin and tulle and carried Columbia roses.

Miss Elsie Lichtgarn, in a gown of yellow satin and Miss Hannah Davis in a frock of cream tulle and satin, were bridesmaids. Rose Lichtgarn led the bridal procession as flower girl and Alfred Davis carried the ring. Ben Lichtgarn was the bridegroom's attendant.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lichtgarn, and since the announcement of their engagement she and her fiancé have been extensively entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Packous will make their home in Los Angeles where Mr. Packous is in business.

Stanton-Holm.

A pretty wedding took place in Rose City Park Saturday, January 22, at 3:30 P. M., when Miss Nora Holm became the bride of Parris C. Stanton at the beautiful home of Mr.

and Mrs. Fred Taylor in Sandy boulevard. The service was read in the presence of about 30 close friends and relatives by the Rev. W. H. Toivola of Grace Baptist church. The bride by her uncle, Frank North. Preceding the ceremony Miss Irene Elliott sang "Love, Here Is My Heart," and "O Promise Me." The bride looked lovely in a gown of ivory satin and wore pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of frezias, narcissus and carnations. Mrs. C. Ferris was matron of honor and wore white silk. She carried pink carnations. C. Ferris attended the bridegroom. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. Assisting Mrs. Fred Taylor were the Misses Ann and Ellen Simonsen and Miss Tilda Holm. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, red flowers and Oregon greens being used in the living rooms and pink flowers and greens in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Farris C. Stanton will make Portland their home.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Hurwitz announce the engagement of their daughter Annette to Hyman S. Barde. Both young people are well known and have a wide circle of friends in this city. Mr. Barde is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Barde.

The marriage of Miss Nellie McKenna and Frank A. Bosch took place on Wednesday morning at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament by Rev. Francis Black. Miss Ethel Horby and Anthony G. Schille of Corvallis were the attendants. After a wedding breakfast at the Hotel Portland the young couple left for a brief honeymoon trip to British Columbia.

Why Be Fat?

The answer of most fat people is that constant dieting is hard, continual exercise is tiresome, exhaustive—then, too, it might be harmful to force the weight down. That was the old-fashioned idea. Today in Marmola's Prescription Tablets, all these difficulties are overcome! Just a pleasant, harmless little tablet after each meal and at bedtime causes fat to vanish. This modern method is also healthy, harmless, causes no dieting or exercise and has the added advantage of constipation. A large case of Marmola's Prescription Tablets is sold by druggists at one dollar. Or, if preferable, can be obtained direct from Marmola's Co., 145 West 42nd Street, New York City.
