

SOCIETY

Mrs. Gus Rosenblatt, who will travel in the East and South.

Mrs. Jackson R. Moore (Bernadette McGinnis)

Mrs. J. J. Mendenhall, who entertained Sir Ernest and Lady Oppenheimer

Mrs. Irving K. Adams returned recently from California

bles of bridge with additional friends in for tea later in the afternoon.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett was hostess on Monday at an informal tea, at which she honored Mrs. Meredith Bailey of Philadelphia, who has come to make her home in Portland for the present.

Miss Elizabeth Pencock entertained yesterday for the members of the Portland Wellesley club. Wellesley women throughout the state were invited.

Miss Rhoda Rumelin was a lovely bride last night when her marriage to Daniel Dalton Madden claimed society's interest and sincere good wishes for Rhoda Rumelin is one of society's best beloved members. The marriage took place in the C. E. Rumelin home, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride wore white velvet with a becomingly arranged veil which depended from a coronet of point lace and orange blossoms. The bouquet was a graceful shower of orchids and roses mingled with bouvardia. The effect of the filmy veil over the rich, soft velvet was most charming and appropriate for a winter wedding.

Miss Sara McCully was attired in pink and Miss Katherine Hart in blue chiffon. These two, intimate friends of the bride, were her attendants. John Madden of Omaha attended his brother, Rev. Father William Cronin officiated. After the ceremony there was a supper at which Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, Mrs. James D. Hart and Mrs. M. A. Ashley presided. Assisting were Mrs. Cameron Squires and Mrs. Curtis Bailey at the punchbowl. Mrs. Alan Green, Mrs. Willis Ashley, Mrs. Nancy Zan Scott and Miss Gladys Betts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Madden came from Omaha for the ceremony and Mrs. J. P. Madden and Miss Nan Madden came from New York to witness the ceremony.

The young couple will go to the Orient for their honeymoon.

Several smart social affairs have been given during the past fortnight to honor the bride. Among those who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squires, Mrs. Curtis Bailey, Mrs. Maurice Crumpacker and Mrs. Elliott Corbett.

Miss Doris Dabney and Mrs. E. R. Weller entertained jointly on Monday for Miss Mary Ashton Cooper, the party being given at Miss Dabney's home. It was a surprise shower and a novel plan had been originated by Mrs. D. B. Chown and Mrs. M. Dewey. Miss Cooper received a market basket together with 40 or 40 rhymes, telling her where to go a-marketing about the house to find her gifts. Each rhyme described the article to be found.

Mrs. Charles Leebink added much merriment with original songs and pianologues. Mrs. Mary Wolcott Hiller sang a group of songs and dedicated "The Little Love Note" from the operetta "Mary" to Mary A. Cooper. Doris Dabney and Mrs. Fred Bell played instrumental selections appropriate for the occasion. White tea was being served Misses Virginia and Charlotte Dabney played duets.

The Dabney home was decorated with pussy willows, and the lighting effect was unique in that it was also a Valentine scheme through the use of many shaded lamps and a wealth of electric lights shaded with heart shapes and ribbon fringe. Table decorations were Richmond roses and Leon Kirk Reynolds was announced on Friday at a tea given by Miss Barnes and Mrs. Roy C. Taylor at the home of the former. The marriage will be solemnized on March 3. The bride is the daughter of E. L. Barnes of Schuyler street and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reynolds of this city.

Mrs. Jay R. Newell is a visitor from Spokane who is being honored at several attractive social gatherings. She was honor guest at the tea given on Friday by Miss Barnes and Mrs. Roy Taylor.

As all the smart set of Portland may be listed with the music lovers

Those present were Mrs. Maude C. Roberts, Mrs. Bertha A. Cooper, Mrs. Mabel Maxwell, Mrs. George Fireball, Mrs. Charles Leebink, Miss Lucy Hugh, Mrs. Robert Carroll, Mrs. D. B. Chown, Mrs. Mary Wolcott Hiller, Mrs. V. H. Dand, Mrs. Rose Herminghaus, Mrs. L. Johnson, Miss Marion Cummings, Miss Ethel Cooper, Miss Kate Schaeffer, Miss Constance Hastings, Miss Pearl Wernham, Mrs. Junius V. Ohmart.

Miss Mary Ashton Cooper is a Stanford university girl, a member of Gamma Phi Beta. She has lived here but a short time, prior to which she traveled extensively and studied art in Europe. With her mother, Mrs. Bertha A. Cooper, and her sister, Miss Ethel Cooper, the bride-elect also traveled in Alaska. She is a member of an old-established family, the Ashtons being well known in the east.

Mrs. E. L. Thompson and her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Irvine Thompson and Mrs. Edward A. Thompson, entertained on Thursday at a bridge tea given at the Thompson residence on Montgomery drive. Mrs. William MacMaster and Mrs. Frederick Page presided at the table and were assisted by Mrs. Varnel Beach and Miss Elizabeth Huber.

Portland friends of Miss Elizabeth Creadick will be interested in a trip she and her mother are making through the southern part of France. Later they will go to Algiers, Nice and other cities of interest. Miss

Clever Fur Creations to wear with
Spring Suits and Dresses
A comprehensive collection of new models in all the Popular Furs
in Chokers—marked exceptionally reasonable.

HUDSON BAY FUR CO.
147 Broadway

The Peasleys
Photography and Art
407 Morrison Street
Between Tenth and Eleventh
Phone Broadway 2837

Creadick formerly lived here and was socially popular. She served overseas with distinction during the war. Since then she has resided in the east.

Joseph Minott will go east soon for his marriage with Miss Gaior Bald, the attractive and interesting girl who visited Mrs. Arthur Minott early in the winter.

Miss Charlotte Hosmer of San Francisco is a lovely young girl who is visiting here with Mrs. C. F. Adams and is attending Miss Catlin's school. Miss Hosmer is sharing in some of the festivities given for the sub-debutantes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Meyers of Seattle were visitors who came here for the Apollo club concert last night. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hansen.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Philomene Barnes and Leon Kirk Reynolds was announced on Friday at a tea given by Miss Barnes and Mrs. Roy C. Taylor at the home of the former. The marriage will be solemnized on March 3. The bride is the daughter of E. L. Barnes of Schuyler street and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reynolds of this city.

Mrs. Jay R. Newell is a visitor from Spokane who is being honored at several attractive social gatherings. She was honor guest at the tea given on Friday by Miss Barnes and Mrs. Roy Taylor.

As all the smart set of Portland may be listed with the music lovers

Watch Our Windows

New Spring Fashions

THE CHARM OF THINGS THAT ARE NEW— IS ENHANCED BY THE MODERATE PRICES— ALWAYS PREVAILING AT THE EMPORIUM—

"LOOK AROUND—"
We're all explorers at heart, and at the first little warnings of spring one delights to "explore" the treasures-troves of Fashions. Thus it is that we cordially invite you to "look around," to become acquainted with Little Miss 1921 before you commence planning your spring wardrobe.

And whether you are interested in a demure little $5 blouse or a beautiful $35 creation, a trim $37.50 suit or an embroidered vision at $125, a jaunty little spring hat at $5 or a regal paradise crowned chapeau at $125, you will be just as welcome and accorded the same interest and courtesy.

—"LOOK AROUND"—

SPRING APPAREL proving that Beauty and Low Prices may go hand in hand.

THE SUITS
Dashing little box jackets swing out from the shoulder and flare gracefully around the hips; many skirts hint at circular flares, and their rich embroideries savor of oriental inspiration. Tailored models are more sedate and have adopted shiny braids and silk stitchery for embellishments.
Prices $29.50, $39.50, $49.50, $59.50 and upward.

THE DRESSES
Both silk and wool express their spring moods in the gaiety of their embroideries, their flaring silhouettes and bright sashes. Tricotines and poret twills for the wool frocks; Canton crepes, crepe de chine and crisp taffetas are used to evolve the silk dresses.
Prices $27.50, $37.50, $39.50, $49.50, $59.50 and upward.

JAUNTY NEW JERSEY SUITS
Trimly tailored, jaunty of line—some with tuxedo collars and cuffs of brushed angora wool—lovely heather mixtures, blues and tans.
$24.75

An Initial Showing of
RAVAK
HATS
"The Aristocrat of the Millinery World"
For Monday we announce a first presentation of sixty models from the distinguished House of Ravak. Every model distinctive in styling and expressive of the most approved vogue for spring.
On Display in Our French Rooms Millinery Section

The Vogue for Gray Is Beautifully Expressed in LOVELY CHIFFON GRAY HOSE
Beautifully sheer and cobwebby are these lovely "chiffon gray" Silk Hose—which fashion-wise women are wearing with smart pumps.
Three new shades—Felo, suede and silver—
$3.50 a Pair

EMPORIUM
124 1/2 SIXTH ST. JUST OFF WASHINGTON

of the community, it is a safe prediction that society will attend the grand opera offerings at the auditorium this week. The San Carlo company will open tomorrow night with Lucia de Lammermoor. Several favorite singers are listed in the east. Madame Butterfly on Tuesday will be an attraction that is sure to be popular for society always loves Butterfly. Martha, Carmen, Thais, Faust, Tosca and Il Travatore will follow in their turns. Line parties and no host parties will be in evidence. Several jolly dinners will precede and suppers will follow.

Rev. W. W. Youngson, who was at the beach a few days ago, was guest of honor at a dinner given at the Hotel Seaside by Dr. A. C. Brankenbergh of Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Reed Winch were hosts Monday night at an attractive dancing party given for Miss Louise Small and George R. Sallor. About 30 guests shared the pleasures of the evening.

Monday night Mrs. James Zan was honored at a surprise festivity planned by a coterie of friends.

Mrs. Thomas Barnes has issued cards for an afternoon affair, at which she will be hostess next Tuesday.

The first lecture of the junior league series will be held tomorrow in the home of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett. The hour is 8 o'clock. Dr. Philip A. Parsons will speak. Tea will be served after the lecture. Mrs. A. D. Norris has charge of the sale of tickets.

The regular meeting of Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae club has been postponed for a week. The club will meet February 28 with Mrs. Harry Ward Hopkins, 303 Schuyler street.

While Lent holds away many of the women of the smart set are planning to devote just a little more time than they usually do to some pet charity. There is the Visiting Nurse association, which should have considerable attention. Of course, the actual work is done by the nurses themselves, but the board has some problems to solve frequently, and these take time and attention. Mrs. Robert Dieck, the president, devotes her best efforts to this cause. When one considers that 1849 visits were made last month, and that 124 visits were made to tuberculous patients, one realizes that the nurses are doing some good work. And it is not merely the visit that counts, it is the fact that wherever she goes the visiting nurse gives instructions that help the mother in home nursing. The follow-up work often is taken up by some of the members who get interested in a case and send baby garments to some new little stranger, or comforts to some elderly woman or invalid.

To keep all this machinery going funds are needed and members, too, and dues should be paid promptly.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, president of the People's Institute, is greatly interested in the well-baby clinics that are held in Portland, and is encouraging a greater knowledge of how to care for little ones and how to keep them healthy. Miss Valentine Prichard is an enthusiastic leader in much of this work.

Lenten, and in fact, every-day work for board members of the Y. W. C. A. consists of devotion to the work that announces the arrival of imported exclusive summer fabrics, also cretonnes, reasonably priced.

MADAME RICHEL
For appointments phone Marshall 2617 until first of March, after which phone Marshall 3791 fresh every day.

Clark's Flowers
Morrison st., bet. 4th and 6th. Tel. Main or A. 1805.

THE RAYMOND GIFT SHOPS
705 Davis Street and Hotel Portland, Parlor C
Will show this week a fine line of
GENUINE ANTIQUE SILVER AND SHEFFIELD TRAYS, TEA SETS, SAMOVARS, CANDELABRAS, CANDLESTICKS, BASKETS, WINE COOLERS, TEA CADDIES, VEGETABLE DISHES, BISCUIT BOXES, TEA POTS, COFFEE URNS, ETC.
ANTIQUE LAMPS, SCONCES, GIRANDOLES AND FURNITURE.
Gifts for All Occasions
MRS. WALTER H. RAYMOND
Phone Main 2076

Chat No. 1
Woman's Individual Style
You have, as well as has every woman, a particular style which is yours alone. This style must be catered to if your clothing is to faithfully reflect your personality. The mature woman with a girlish figure—the young woman with a mature figure—each has her individual style in the matter of dress—requirements which can be successfully observed only by the skilled hand and eye of an expert tailor.

This is the first of a series of talks to the women of Portland, through the medium of the Sunday papers. In this series we intend to bring out some very interesting facts regarding the desirability of tailored-to-measure clothing. Watch for them every Sunday.

Any of the Following Leading Tailors Will Welcome a Visit

A. DeBlanche, Globe Bldg.
C. Gawer, Globe Bldg.
E. R. Lipshutz, Central Bldg.
Norman Bros., N. W. Bank Bldg.
F. W. Patt & Co., Broadway Bldg.
M. Patt, Bush & Lane Bldg.
I. Reubin, Bush & Lane Bldg.
Schweitzer & Eagin, Columbia Bldg.
J. K. Stern, 447 Alder Street

Peterson's UPSTAIRS STORE, INC.
Washington at West Park
We Save You $10 to $30 on Every Garment Here

For Spring Dresses, Pay Less Upstairs

In spite of our continued advertising, through newspapers and through friendly words spoken by pleased customers, we are sure there are thousands within shopping range of our store who have not made our acquaintance as yet.

—If you, good reader, are one of those who do not know what an elegant garment salon we have—what a sunny, inviting store is Peterson's, in green and gray and wicker—come now and you will be forever glad.

—Not only is there tidiness and a flood of light and oceans of fresh, pure air, but intelligent sales-folk with agreeable dispositions and an eagerness to please you.

—You look at Suits and Coats and Dresses as elegant as you would care to have them—hundreds of Spring's favorite vogues now occupy the foreground.

—YOU SAVE, by our low selling expense upstairs, from $10 to $30 on EACH GARMENT.

Spring Dresses . $19.50 to $59.50
Spring Suits . . $39.50 to $87.50
Spring Coats . . $19.50 to $59.50

NOTE—In our Blouse Department every garment is new—VERY new. We haven't a single blouse that was here before January 1st. Remember this, and hail to Peterson's for your next one.

