THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, FEBRUARY 27, 1921

PATRIOTIC EXERCISES MARK OBSERVANCE OF WASHINGTON DAY

Natal Anniversary of First President Remembered in High Schools With Inspiring Programmes-Polytechnic Girls Tackle Household Thrift Problem.

Ticket-Selling Prize Is Won by Seniors.

ames John Student Body Award Made at Assembly-Police cer Delights With Songs. 011

BY ELOISE GRAY. IEUTENANT CRANE of the St.

Johns police force entertained the students by giving a number of Bongs at assembly on Thursday, Feb-ruary 17. The splendid selection of congs and the lieutenant's voice won congs and the lieutenant's voice won.

sch enthusiastic demand for "more" that a time to stop was hard to agree Olive

The proble Welfare Commissioner El-regulation of other school groups. The oran a McCambridge and Doris Sprague: 3, Frederick Brennan and Grace Baker: 4, William Fehse and Sprague: 3, Frederick Brennan and Grace Baker: 4, William Fehse and Nellie Freeman: 5, Friede Vines and Bernard Adams: 5, Frank King and Doris Bowman: 9, Roy Peterson and Helen Mackey: 11, Howard Bagley and Alice Hancok: 12, Joe Browder and Alice Hancok: 12, Joe Browder and Alice Hancok: 13, Free Standring and Alice Hancok: 13, Free Standring and Alice Hancok: 14, Floyed Williams and Betty Werner: 15, Heary Bryant and Rita Ward; 17, Alice Nelson and Willa Jones: 20, Alice Conley and Sam Kranetz; 22, Isaac Davis and Vesta Barnes. One of the best assemblies of this Landers. The school is eagerly look ing forward to a commodious new building, which will in every way ratisfy the demands of the growing student body. A resolution express-ing appreciation of the school for what Mr. Weisendanger of the forest nervice is doing for forest preserva-tion and pledging the school to aid in this was read by Eloise Gray, litercommissioner. The students unanimously voted to send these resclutions to the forest service headguarters.

. . . As a result of the Philathenaeum As a result of the Philathenaeum election recently held the following were chosen leaders of the club: President, Derothy Coulter; vice-president, Jessie McNiven; secretary-treasurer, Frances Durand; chairman of programme committee, Eloise Gray; custodian of property, Gladys Poe; faculty adviser, Miss Hollen-beck. beck

. . .

The Hink Klatawa chose as their leaders at a recent meeting: Presi-dent, Helen Hood; vice-president, Sel-

Trl-L girls presented to them a de-lightfully furnished restroom. The room was comfortably furnished with easy chairs, couches, rugs, cupboards, screens and other articles, which will make the room cosy and comfortable for the teachers. Annette Feldstein, president of the Tri-Ls, presented the room to the teachers and Miss Banfield thanked the Tri-Ls, on he-half of the teachers. Some interesting new books have been added to the list of books in

. . . h enthusiastic demand for "more" t a time to stop was hard to agree in After singing, led by Miss vo Kincaid, the meeting was ned over to the student body of-rs, who announced when and turned over to the student body of-ficers, who announced when and commission meetings. A schedule has been made providing time and place for meetings of the commissions and of other school groups. Public Welfare Commissioner El-Public Welfare Commissioner El-Suraque, 2 Public School council, 2 Public Welfare Commissioner El-Suraque, 2 Public School groups.

One of the best assemblies of this term was held in honor of Washing-ton's birthday. The opening of the programme was the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner." Miss Helen Zuingle, chairman, made the opening address. Other numbers were: "An Estimation of Washington," by Bernice Lawis: "Commemoration," by Bernice Lawis: "Commemoration," by Lowell, Helen Kolsey: "Mount Vernon Bells," by seven members of the gles club, Misses Marian Sibley, Freda Korn, Pearl Messner, Helen Kelsey, Mabel Shearer, Kathryn Sandys and Dorothy Morris: "Advice on Conduct to His Nephew," Zara Vencor: "A Patriotic Act of Washington," Abe Wax: Monroe's "Commemoration Ode." Pearl Messner: "Oregon My Oregon," Pearl Messner; "Oregon, My Oregon, slee club; "America" by sch closing address by Mr. Elton.

Dance Pageant Makes Hit at Washington.

Esthetle Interpretations by Girls

Officers of the senior class of the Girls' Polytechnic school, shown in the picture above, are: Rear row, left to right-Lena Cavender, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Clark (faculty), class adviser; Eleanor Barnes, yell leader. Front row-Beth Sutherland, treasurer; Hulda Knecht, president; Agnes Munson, vice-president; Velma Finzer, secretary.

interest among the students of the machine shop. Benson Boys Enjoy Inspiring Assembly. The Tech Pep published Tuesday by the regular staff contained several Address on Washington and Pleas-ing Programme Given Tuesday, All Minute Men Are Chosen. BY HUBERT W. ESRY. T AN assembly Tuesday morning

Abbolt: chairman of honor point comm mittee, Mary Benson; chairman of programme committee, Emnia Steph ess; faculty adviser, Mrs. Hiestand. Weilare editor of the Tuma, the sone of the Staff of the English and pretentions productions in the same to fill the position. Mary Benson and Heien Hood was ammed to fill the position. Mary Benson and Heien Hood was ammed to fill the position. Mary Benson and Heien Hood was ammed to fill the position. Mary Benson was appointed by the tudent body council to act as accom-antist at assembly singing. Committees from the fifth and preparations are being made for

And selection and feel hood was as the full de parties.
Any de an de y obles weit de fait and de an est de anord te fait and de anore de anord te fait and de anord te fait and de anord te fait proceeded to drag in a man "all ist-tered and torn," who, by a sign upon his back, was designated "Old Man Waste-Paper." A trial was then held, with Eddie Smith acting as judge and Venetic Detication Speaker Praises Ideals of With Endie chiffs acting as pulse at Kenneth Patterson as prosecuting at-torney. The culprit, who was Charles Kelly in disguise, was sentenced "to be pounded until he was dead." Orrin Clark then further emphasized Ancoln High Pupils Hear Stirring Address by Dr. E. H. Pence, Many Track Candidates Beport.

Students Enjoy the Senior-Freshman Reception.

The performance showed the result of hard work on the part of perform-ers and coach and was well rendered.

the duty of the students to help keep waste paper off the school grounds. N HONOR of the memory of George Washington, a special assembly was held Tuesday. After the assembly bly, at 10:30 o'clock, school was dis-missed for the rest of the day. The intervention of the day. The the set of the school grounds, composed of Howard McCann, Will-iam Paulsen, Lutrelle Fenn and Roy Washington.

A large number of Lincoln's former students have come back to the school this term to inke post-graduate work. Some of these are: Florence Fowler, Ernest Markowitz, Helen Simmons, Martha Shull, Robert Sheppard, Olivia Lipshutz, Marion Bonney, Hannah Laidiaw and Anne O'Reilly.

Laidiaw and Anne O'Reilly. At the last meeting of the junior class Rupert Bullwant and Norma Wilson were unanimously chosen edi-tor and associate éditor, respectively, of the class Cardinal. Business man-

Wilson were unanimously chosen edition respectively, of the class Cardinal and class markers of the class Cardinal and class play are to be announced soon. Last Thursday the girls of each term met during the sindy period with their respective advisors to elect their officers, representatives of each term make up the executive committee of the biague. The various terms formulated plans which they intend to carry out individually. The subject of immigration has increased at the inspiring talk on the 1925 exposition.

inspiring talk on the 1925 exposition. Miss Helen Harper, assisted by her Jefferson Second-Termers Provide Programme at Entertainment. Washington's Memory Honored. BY VIRGINIA BROUGHTON. J EFFERSON freshmen and their parents were guests of the seniors

Mildred Boon, Barbara Blythe, Helen Leonard, Frances Jones, Elizabeth Rauch, Edna May Root and Frances Sefton.

"O. E." class of freshmen presented a scene from the "Merchant of Ven-ice" to an appreciative audience. The cast included Francis McKenna as

On Tuesday the girls' hiking club Shylock, Frances Borton as Portia, Edwin Applegren as Antonio, Al-phonso Minez as Bassanio, Claytan Herberg as Gratiano, Sybel McGarn as Namissa, Norman Willet as the clerk, Rose Taimadge as the duke and Morray Burns as the doorkeeper. The negrorus as the doorkeeper.

Inter-class basketball games have been started among the girls. A short time ago the third-termers challenged all the other classes and now that the Furnishing Flat With $100 Is Problem.

Fourth-Term Girls' Polytechnic Students Learn to Fit Out Three Rooms at Minimum Expense.

BY LOLA HOLMES.

PROGRAMME was given Tuesday in commemoration of George Washington's hirthday anniversary. It consisted of several musical scleeuons, directed by Miss Magers, the singing teacher, and readings given by the different English classes by at 10:30 o'clock, school was dis-missed for the rest of the day. The assembly was opened by the salute to the flag and the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner." The orchestra played two new selections and the entire school sang patriotic songs. The best part of the programme, however, came later when Dr. Pence gave a stirring talk on Washington was famous for what he was, not for what he did or said. He declared that the great to try to do likewise. A large number of Lincoln's former A large number of Lincoln's former A visit to the library was made by the art metal classes hat week for the purpose of getting designs and to become acquaitfied with the art reference room. Copper is being used to make bookends, blotter tops and book corners by the beginners' class

An exhibition showing methods used in the removal of stains and the testing of bluings was made by the second-term cooking girls in their House plans are being made by the House plans are being made by the fourth-term cooking class. They are also planning the furnishings of, a three-room flat with only $100 to buy furniture with.

Some very attractive hand-made trimmings have been finished by the first-term grade millinery class. Wire frames and practice hats are being finished by the first and second-term home millinery classes.

The Polytechnic Maid, which is to be published in May, was unanimously voted for during a meeting held last week by the seniors and their advisor.

. . . .

Thursday, a meeting was held to cleet the advisor and officers of the thirdterm class.

School Honors Washington.

Appropriate Washington's hirthday exercises were held at Sitton school formerly North school, the morning of February 22. A talk on Washing-ton by Miss Nellie M. Stevens, the principal, was a feature of the proprincipal, was a leature of the pro-gramme. There was patriotic music and other appropriate exercises. The hall was crowded with pupils, many of whom participated, and a number of visitors were present als

Calgary Bishop Is 76.

meetings have been well attended. District Superintendent Larsen will preach in the Vancouver-avenue Nor-wegian and Danish Methodist Episco-The change in Fifth avenue was re-flected in the recent purchase of prop-erty bordering the East river at Fifth ty-eighth street by Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt Sr., where she intended to rest on the date of the state of the s pal church at 11 o'clock at the communion service. The Swedish Methodist Episcopal church and the First and Vancouver Methodist churches have had gospel meetings together the last two weeks. Bishop William O. Shepard will preach at the Vancouver-avenue Methodist church Sunday night at the united rescal meetings. pastor, will preach both morning and united gospel meeting at 7.30 P. M. Rev. E. Sutton Mace, pastor of the Clinton Kelly Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, Powell and East Fortleth streets, will take a worldold theme for his subject this morn-The young people's Epworth league will be led by Wesley Beck at 6:45 This morning at Rose City Park Methodist Episcopal church Dr. Huett, P. M. The pastor will preach in the Westmoreland chapel, Milwaukle the pastor, will speak on the topic, "Past and Present, or Former Times street and South avenue, at 7:30 P. M. This idea Not Better Than Now." This idea will be discussed in the morning sermons and a conclusion arrived at which, while giving due credit to the past, will also show actual accompliation arrived at this discussed in the morning sermons. " At night a stereopticon lecture on Phanma will be given. The very latest things known about Panama and is pecifications for a proposed new edifice which is estimated to cost $40,000. Rev. Mr. Kephart, pastor of the church, in conjunction with the directors, is carrying out planama and supply information every patriotic American ought to know. No Not Better Than Now." This idea will replace the morning sermons and a conclusion with the directors. In conjunction with the directors is carrying out planama and supply information every patri-Not Better Than Now." and supply information every patri-otic American ought to know. No charge and a welcome to all. Rev. W. S. Gordon, of the Sellwood Methodist church will energy for many years. Rev. W. S. Gordon, of the Sellwood Methodist church, will speak Sunday at 11 o'clock on "Why Was I Born"— a study of God's purpose in the world. This will be a special address to young people and to old people with bard to old people with young hearts. At 7:30 P. M. a printed programme will be used, entitled "The New Road," showing the work being done among the colored population of America. Several young people will have part in the service, and the choir will fur-nish special numbers. The Sunday school will meet at Country's First Prevalence of the sub-tors Give Cup to School. BY GERALDINE ROOT. B' FAR the most lively and en-held at Franklin last Tuesday morn-held at Franklin last Tuesday mornrew features, among which are the exchange column by Truman Bailey, weather forecast by the science department and a number of stories on various subjects. The Zographemians, Benson's camemoration Ode," on, My Oregon," by school, and T AN assembly Tuesday morning on, My Oregon, " by school, and

That the address was enjoyed was proven by the rapt attention given the speaker. The assembly was opened with a The short end of a 24-to-14 score in ton's birthday Judge Guy C. H. Corliss delivered an inspiring address. His subject, "Washington," offered a broad field and Judge Corliss did it justice. He told of Washington's life, character and undying love for truth. That the address was enjoyed was proven by the rapt attention given A week ago Thursday Benson de-a scene from the "Morehau of Trues and the second de-a scene from the "Morehau of Trues".

Mr. George, faculty advisor.

Th fifth-termers entertained the fourth-termers at a matinee dance Thursday, February 17. Members of the fifth-term class furnished the music. Punch was served. Miss Clinchaperoned. Mr Getz and Miss Kincaid

The orchestra members at a recent eeting elected these as their offi-ers: President, Laura Lott; vicepresident-secretary, Florence Blom-gram; business manager, Ross Bag-ley; faculty adviser, Mr. Taylor,

The birthday of George Washington was celebrated at assembly Tuesday morning. The meeting opened with singing of "America." Mr. Fletcher gave a talk on the boy-hood of George Washington, showing that the boy of more than 100 years ago made his way to manhood over the same road the boy of today must travel

Harold Vates road an essay on Harper, Riley Stevens; library, Jo-sephine Ulrich; "Daily Trombone," Warren Clark, Helen Kirschner, Jack George Washington; Ellery Landers gave an extract from an address on ashington, made by Henry Cabot odge, and Mr. Dunkelburger spoke Rivenburgh: personal Helena Pittel-kau, Doris Gubser; art, Abbot Lawon "What Problems George Wash-ington Had to Face." The meeting closed with singing of "Speed Our Republic." rence, Gladys Young.

Inspection of Terminal Proves Educative.

Students and Teachers of High School of Commerce Make Study of St. Johns Shipping Facilities.

BY GEORGINA AUSTEN THE ENTIRE student body and faculty of commerce were guests of representatives of the Portland Chamber of Commerce Wednesday morning, when they were taken on the Bluebird for an inspection of terminal No. 1, at St. Johns. The stu-dents reported at school at the usual hour and then marched to the Morshine Orput; violin solo, by Helen street dock, where they boarded the boat and made the trip down the Schuppel . . . river. The students were deeply interested in being shown throughout the ter-ninal and enjoyed also an inspection of a large enjoyed also an inspection necretary, Agatha Erswein; treasure was being loaded there. Business men who escorted the Commerce party on the trip were: A. G. Clark, man-ager of the Associated Industries of Oregon; H. H. Ward of the Vegetable Oil Mills: H. W. Kent, exceptive and of a large ocean-going vessel which Oregon; H. H. Ward of the Vegetable Oil Mills; H. W. Kent, executive sec-rotary of the Portland Service league; R. T. Traglio, of the Portland Flour-Ing mills, and G. B. Hegardt of the R. State of the Portland Service league; In State of the Portland Service league; R. T. Traglio, of the Portland Flour-Ing mills, and G. B. Hegardt of the State of the . . .

Portland dock commission. The class of January, '29. A special assembly was held Feb-ruary 16 to celebrate the winning of the basketball game against Lincoln by a score of 30 to 21. Yells and school songs gave yeat to the en-thusiasm of the students. Miss Lamberson and Mr.

Mr. Murphy gave a banquet at his nome in honor of the basketball squad on Wednesday. Those present were: Neil Agan. Coach Pander, "Mix" Grider, William Fehse, John Kep-Washington's birthday was a holl Agan. Coach Pander, "Mix" ler, William Fehse, John Kep-ter. Ted Gurlan, Grover O'Donnel, aard Adams, Sam Gold and Frank mesker. inger, Ted Gurlan, Grover O'Donnel urmesker.

Taylor was the speaker and gave a very interesting talk. After the as-Teachers of the school were very sembly the pupils were dismissed for nuch surprised Tuesday when the the rest of the day.

son, Frances Gripper, Gwendolyn Kohns, Penelope Gehr and Lydia Pat-Gwendolyn Screnade," in which Gladys Bozee took the solo part, supported by the entire cast. entire cast.

at the school. Registration is steadily growing, having jumped from 1070 the first Warren Ulrich, editor of the Lens has appointed the following staff: Associate editor, George Gallagher; fiction, Phil Thompson, Elaine Benday to 1225 the first of last week.

A week ago Tuesday an election iett, Aileen Burrows, Audry Jensen Walter, Hoge; verse, Doris Ogden was held in the registration rooms for the purpose of selecting members of the Minute Men's club for the Mary Frances Cox, Katheline Powell, Aileen Armstrong, Jacob Karol; es-says, Gertrude Houck, Helen Cantine term. A membership in the organization is one of the high honors obtain-Adeline Zurcher, Charles Reynolds society, Josephine Orput, Patricia Smith, Mildred Johnson, Helen Ahern, ble in student activity. A Minute Man must have no failures appearing against him for the last term's work and must be of such standing that chool notes, Pauline Bondurant, Hazel Smith; exchanges, Rodney Keat his club duties will in no way intering. Homer Simola; sports, Charles fere with his school work. The club for this term is composed Norton: cartoons, Robert Tasher, Harry Coffin: "Under the Lens," Allen

rissel, Violet Faulkner, Edward Locke, Virgil Hodges, Jack Jones Stuart Ball, Jack Holt; photos, Jerry Jennings; 30, Vivien Dominey;

R. Miller; 32, Roland Richter; A, ville Hopp; B. Frank Howard; C. The class of June, '21, entertained the freshmen on Wednesday. Owing to the basketball games, it was im Owing Harold Yarnell; blacksmith, J. Spofford; electric, Norman Bartlind and Emerson Taylor; foundry, Michael possible to use the gymnasium, so the entertainment, instead of the usuar "frolic," took the form of a pro-Francone; gas engine, Enos Quesnell; sheet metal, William Bauder; wood-working, Leonard Barber; library, gramme given in the assembly hall. The names of the freshmen were given out to the seniors by lot and Francis Stephenson, Holden Leroy; machine, Harry Matheson; X, J. Dal-rymple; Y, Donald Graves. each senior sat with the freshmap whose name he or she drew.

The programmo was as follows "Welcome to the Freshmen." by Wayne Woodmancee, president of The reporters for the Tech Pep have been appointed for the present term and have started work in carn-June, '21, class; response by Ruthel Jacobson, past-term representative song, "Washington, My Washington;" talk on "The Student Body," by Joy Johnson; talk on the musical organ izations, by Johnny Kirk; talk on the Lens, by Don Abbott; vocal solo, by Margaret Ellis; talk on "The Hikers," by Erances Collier; reading, by Jo-> Toolmakers' association. Wayne Car-roll; Minute Men, Herbert Zenger; Radio club, John Hertz; Zographemians, Charles Snyder; executive board, Albert Anderson.

Hedrich

the parts of the which Mr. Jenkins presented the sil-city. Real estate men, who have watched with interest this aggression of trade, say that another decade will have wiped out the last bit of resi-dential exclusiveness in the avenue. The change in Fifth avenue was reited Benson a week ago Friday for the purpose of inspecting the shops dential exclusiveness in the avenue. Constance Roth.

The change in Fifth avenue was re-flected in the recent purchase of prop-erty bordering the East river at Fif-is directly across from Blackwell's other childleh games, and by danc-island, where a city prison is located, and is almost underneath the Man-hattan approach to the Queensboro This was the first Zeta party of the bridge Real Estate back, helped to make Fifth avenue history with her brilliant social ac-tivities, said when she purchased the

The club for this term is composed of the following boys, elected from the rooms indicated: 1, Levi Smith; 2, M. W. Lockridge; 3, Frank Small; 5, Arthur Myers; 6, Clarence Bell; 8, Paul Feldman; 9, Virgit H. Gerlach; 10, I. Jackson; 11, Herbert Zenger; 21, A. R. Morton; 22, Robert Myers; 24, Decar Fries; 25, Nick Hatch; 26, Ray Bennett; 28, Adrien Spires; 29, Don Jennings; 30, Vivien Domines; 31, has been waged since the late nineties when real estate men began to get options on property near the magnifi-

Edgar Pengra, Clifford Snyder, Clar-$1, Edgar Pengra, Clifford Snyder, Clar-ence Kalk, Baird Little and Philip homes there expended millions of dol-lars in buying up property in an ef-fort to stem the tide. Much of this property was purchased at expendence and a sugar to the students.

fort to stem the tide. Much of this property was purchased at exorbitant figures and after a lapse of years has fallen back for business use, hotels, banking houses, jewelry stores, millhery and fine tailoring establishments have gradual-ly crept north ward along the north ward along the are. Donovan, Alice Eliquist, tana Musice, dorf, Mabel Biersdorf, Marian Musice, Vera Coulter and Margaret McDaniels, ly crept thoroughfare. The home which Mrs. Vanderbilt is forsaking, at Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street, will become the term and have started work in earn-est. They are: Electric shop, Nor-man Bartlind; wood shop, Francis Stephenson; print shop, Ray Ridout; blacksmith shop, George Moore; ma-chine shop, William Haug; gas en-gine, Oliver Fortier; plumbing shop, Gilbert Drynan; foundry, Ralph Green; science department, Julian Thomas; drawing department, Lloyd Lee; glee club, Vaughn Watson; band, Glenn Harms; HI-Y, Charles Foster; Heeneckis club, Carey George Beam; Benson Tech Boosters, Carl Taylor; Toolmakers' association Wayne Gorg monthly meeting of the club. As there museum. is much talent in the organization, the committee is not appalled at the prospect.

Beaver Auction Is Held.

and is almost underneath the Man-hattan approach to the Queensboro bridge. Real Estate men expect that Mrs. Vanderbilt's migration to the East river will mean a new exclusive district in a part of the city where near-slums existed before. Mrs. Vanderbilt, who a few years Mrs. Vanderbilt, who a few years back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-ter set for the semi-an-back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-ter set for the semi-an-back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-ter set for the semi-an-back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-ter set for the semi-an-back belred to make Fifth expenses for the semi-an-ter set for the semi-an-classes and hear them. This semester the debates will probably be given about the middle of the term. Delta Epsilon plans for the semi-an-nual Pi Delt-Zeta dance were dis-cussed. There will be a joint meet-ing of the Pi Delta and Zetas Lincoln has recently been presented with a copy of the picture of President Lincoln meeting with his cabinet. It is to be hung in the school library where everyone will have a chance to

At the first meeting of the term the Girls' Glee club elected these officers: Ruth Wilkinson, president; Oka Ryan, vice-president; Marie Maitland, secretary; Ethel Cockorham, treasurer; Frances White, sergeant-at-arms; Katherine Voges, editor. The club is planning to give an informal party in the school gymnasium on April 1. The Boys' Glee club is to be invited and a second time is assured. and a good time is assured.

The Tecknophile girls have elected the following officers: Martha Batterson, president; Helen Maly, vice-presi dent; Edith Burke, secretary; Emil; Abisher, treasurer; Loraine Hansen Emily Abisher, treasurer; Loraine I sergeant-at-arms; Katherine Voges, editor. The girls are planning to give a St. Patrick's "frolic" in the school gymnasium on March 19.

India & Bartis & Styder: according bartis & August a second in school & A