THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1921

The police have made inquiries at Scattle, where relatives reside, and serious condition

Dr. Fenton is 58 years old and has been one of the leading physicians of the city for many years. He has a son and daughter, both of this city. OREGON PIONEER NEWSPA-PER PUBLISHER'S FUson and daughter, boin or this city. His wife died several years ago. He has three brothers, Drs. Hicks C. and Matthew F. Fenton, and W. D. Fen-ton, all of this city. When last seen Sunday night Dr. Fenton was wearing a black overcoat and a gray-striped suit. He wore a the wore a tan soft hat, Dr. Fenton weighs about 170 pounds, has dark hair and a gray mustache.

STRIKE IS NOT EXPECTED

Portland Not Likely to Be Involved in Packers' Walkout.

That the strike vote now being taken in the packing plants at Chi-cage and other middle west points will not affect the Portland plant of will not affect the Portland plant of Swift & Co. was the belief expressed yesterday by B. C. Darnall, manager. Mr. Darnall said that so far as he knew no vote was being taken here-and he did not believe it possible that a sympathetic strike would develop here, even should the workmen in the middle west go on strike. Mr. Darnall said that a large per-centage of the butchers in the local centage of the butchers in the local plant are organized and he expressed the belief that probably a fourth of the unskilled laborers in the plant were members of the union. There has been no reduction of wages in the Portland plant in con-unctions with the general drop in the junction with the general drop in the middle west.

PUBLIC DANCE IS TABOO

McMinnville Councilmen Pass Law

Over Mayor's Veto.

McMINNVILLE, Or., March 19,-McMINNVILLE, Or., March 13.--(5 ccial)--At an adjourned meeting of the city council last night the anti-dance ordinance was passed over the mayor's veto by a vote of 5 to 1. The ordinance prohibits the opening of a hall for public dances, or dances where an admission is charged. The dance ordinance question has created considerable stir in the city the past two factions have been tween the two factions have been sharply drawn. Upon the passage of the ordinance two weeks ago a large majority of the business men of the his veto, which he did last week. A counter petitioned the major to exercise his veto, which he did last week. A counter petition, containing the names of over 400 citizens, was presented to the council last night. It we about 20 years in the city.

It wide about 20 years in the city.
It we about 20 years in the city.
It wide about 20 years in the city.
It wide about 20 years in the city.
It we about 20 years in the city.
It wide about 20 years in recent years in Coos county was brought to light.in the filing of volblackjack.

blackjack. Johnstone is alleged to have told a friend in Olympia that it was diffi-cult to obtain a revolver there, but that in Portland it was an easy mat-ter, if one had the price. The rifle is said to have been borrowed.

Frank A. Bowen

Funeral services for Frank A. owen, pioneer of Oregon and former publisher of one of eastern Oregon's first newspapers, who died Tuesday last at his home, 1816 East Morrison street. were held last Friday after-noon at 2 o'clock from the chapel of R. W. Gable & Co., funeral directors. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor of the Irvington Episcopal church preached the funeral sermon. Mr. Bowen was born at Free-port, 111. January 12, 1856. He crossed the plains with his parents in 1862 and the family set-tled at Auburn, Baker county, the locale of the first important For many years he was en-gaged in newspaper work, founding the Huntington Herald in 1889. Later Mr. Bowen went to Baker City and, after work-ing on several newspapers ing on several newspapers there, came to Portland, where he engaged in the real estate and insurance business. He lived about 20 years in the city. on March 28.

Reveals Startling Facts Overlooked by Doctors and

Scientists for Centuries

11

Over 50 Years!

Now 83 Years.

to Friends.

Sciencists for centuries "I all eighty-three years old and I doc-tored for rheumatian ever since I came out of the army over fifty years ago," writes J. B. Asheiman. "Like many others, I spent money freely for so-called curves," and I have read about Uric Acid' until I could almost taste ft. I could not sleep nights or walk without pain; my hands were so sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now, as if by magic. I am again in active business and can walk with ease or write all day with comfort. Friends are surprised at the change." Apply It to Any Rupture, Old or Recent, Large or Small and You Are on the Road That Has Convinced Thousands.

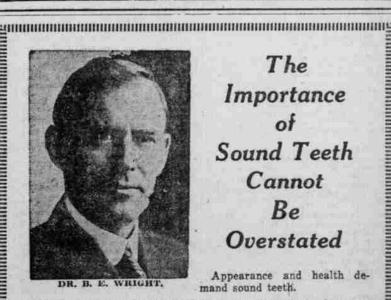

<section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text>

All the plants will soon be overwhelmed with work and yours will have to await its turn. If you look over your lighter weight things and send them to be dry cleaned NOW, your work will naturally get more and better attention than it will later. Be sure to insist on the "Master Cleaner Tag" when you have any dry cleaning or dyeing done.

NATIONAL ASS'N DYERS AND CLEANERS

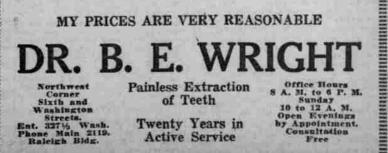

If you have eye trouble you lose no time in seeing a doctor or

But in most cases you allow tooth trouble to run along without dental attention.

Prompt attention to minor tooth troubles will save you many dollars and perhaps serious sickness.

At this office you will receive prompt highly skilled service, including x-ray examinations.

Sucrementer and a sucrementer and a sucrementer and a sucrementer of the sucrementer of t so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can hot penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over Bramwell Names Deputy.

PRINEVILLE, Or., March 19.—(Spe-clal.)—Frank Bramwell, state super-intendent of banks, has appointed George F. Euston as a deputy. Mr. Euston will have charge of the af-fairs of the Crook County bank.

chance if the light were shot at. The chisel in the picture was used to cut a barbed-wire fence along the railroad right of way. A wire fence was cut at the Perland rendervous of the "Shadow." Similarity of work is considered as circumstantial evidence by the police. The hat was lost by the blackmaller when American Legion members of Olympia attempted his capture. The rifle is a 22-caliber automatic, while the handkerchief is an improvised blackjack. Marriage Licenses Issued. Marriage Licenses Issued. KELSO, Wash., March 19.—(Spe-tal.)—Marriage licenses have been is-sued as follows by County Auditor Davis: Gus Vennum and Ema Knight, Tacoma; D. W. Franklin and Minnle Payne, Castle Rock; S. W. Stryker and Mrs. J. Reid, Portland; Fred Shepard, Aberdeen, and Georgia G. George, Cen-tralia; W. H. Moody and Iva M. Car-ter, Portland. Judge Dunn Is Visitor. Sent Free to Prove This Judge Dunn Is Visitor, Johnstone is alleged to have told a friend in Olympia that it was diffi-cult to obtain a revolver there, but that in Portland it was an easy mat-ter, if one had the price. The rile is said to have been borrowed. Mottman was not threatened with outright death. The printed letter, which he received informed him that his store had been mined with ex-plosives, and unless the money was

