LEAGUE TO GIVE PLAYS
Little Theater Will Present Three Tabloids March 30-31.
Three playlets will be presented by the Portland Drama league on the nights of March 30 and 31 at the Little Theater in connection with that organization's series of productions in which local thespians appear, it was announced yesterday.

Two of the numbers, "Face Tag" and "Enter the Hero," are said to be of the vaudeville type of comedy, while the third, "Good Women," by George Middleton, is dramatic in the extreme. In the latter, Mrs. John Leader and George O'Neil will play the principal roles. Hazel McCord and Dean Collins will appear in the comedy leads of "Face Tag," supported by Dorothy Sanford and Walter Leve. "Enter the Hero" will be interpreted by Charlotte Ballin, Louise Manning, King Tyler and Mrs. Adkins. This production is from the pen of Theresa Helburn.

The league, in conjunction with the Shakespeare club, will celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the great poet of publicity for Lincoln county. The playlets will be presented at the Little Theater, during the last week in June. Manuscripts should be forwarded to Mrs. E. S. Parsons, 320 Board of Trade building.

Local writers have taken much interest in the league's play contest. Manuscripts are being submitted daily. The competition closes May 1 and successful writers will see their productions on the boards at the Little Theater during the last week in June. Manuscripts should be forwarded to Mrs. E. S. Parsons, 320 Board of Trade building.

RADIO TO FEATURE SHOW
STUDENT ENGINEERS WILL MAKE FINE EXHIBIT.
Big Display Planned for Oregon Agricultural College Includes Many Electrical Devices.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 26.—(Special.)—Wireless communication with all parts of the world was the latest feature obtained for the big engineering show, to be given by students of the school of engineering April 1 and 2. A one-kilowatt Thoraderson sending set, three radio receiving sets and a two-stage amplifier set form part of the equipment which will be constantly in use during the hours of the show, according to the committee in charge.

Elaborate displays are to be prepared by each department of the school of engineering, all of them having a chief engineer in charge of the exhibits. "Sightseeing" trips on the big electric crane of the engineering laboratory are on the schedule. A unique perpetual motion machine, demonstration of military engineering, high tension display produced by a 300,000-volt transformer and the Tesla coil, a talking arc light and many other unique applications of the various phases of engineering science will be on the programme.

Possibilities of the development of Oregon as to power and mineral resources will be pointed out to the visitors through the use of a gigantic relief map of the state, which has been lent to the students by Sam Koser, secretary of state. A small water wheel, a miniature bridge and a small steel truss will be used to illustrate various points of interest. Girls in the school of home economics will serve food prepared on electric stoves of the latest design.

COAST PUBLICITY IS PLAN
Newport Community Club Will Promote Scenic Environments.
NEWPORT, Or., March 26.—(Special.)—The Newport Community club met last night and took up the matter of publicity for Lincoln county. The Oregonian was complimented for the space which it has allowed and a committee was appointed to correspond with the manager of the Ford educational motion pictures, the Famous-Lasky and other film corporations.

"Why, I threw that old thing away"
MANY a man has heard from the lips of wife, secretary or stenographer the explanation: "It didn't look as if it could be anything, so I threw it away when I was straightening up."
Usually the thing is a catalogue, a booklet or some pamphlet so poorly printed and generally unattractive that feminine instinct prompted the thought that it was worthless.
The appearance of your printing determines to a large extent its importance. Our experts can plan and execute your work satisfactorily.
