PORTLAND MINISTERS ASKED TO MEETING AT Y. M.C.A. TOMORROW

Information Valuable to Pastors in Regard to the Social Service Agencies of the City Will Be Discussed by Welfare Workers - Questions Will Be Answered.

The subject under discussion will public welfare bureau; Miss Elnora Sims, will repeat certain selections of the Easter music. E. Thomson, director of public health for the Oregon School of Social Work;
Dr. S. C. Kohs, psychologist of the court of domestic relations; Miss Anna Murphy, parole officer, Oregon state board of health, and A. R. Gephart, general secretary of the public welfare bureau, under whose directions of the Easter music.

This evening there will be another illustrated community service, in which will be a look into the life and ways of one of the greatest people of today. Each Sunday night the world's news and events will be featured in moving pictures. The sermon will be on "Unorthodox Sins and Sinners." E. Thomson, director of public health welfare bureau, under whose direc- and Sinners." tion the programme is being preared, will answer questions coverng practically all the fields of social work in the city of Portland.
The officers of the association feel hat this will be a very valuable

H. Edward Mills will address the Realization league at 148 Thirteenth street at 11 o'clock on "Master, Where Dwellest Thou?" pared, will answer questions covering practically all the fields of social work in the city of Portland.

that this will be a very valuable meeting and trust that all members of the association, together with all interested ministers and friends, will take advantage of the opportunity sented the playlet, "The Piper Paid," attendance is reported, and the larg-est audiences of their history were in attendance at the eight churches on Easter. The city missionary, Rev. Joseph Boyd, has just completed an evangelistic meeting at the Church of Christ, Rodney and Knott streets, with 45 additions to the church. Beginning today, the evangelistic meet-ings will continue at Kern Park Christian church, with Rev. Boyd ocsupping the pulpit during the week.

All interested in the work of obtaining an expert Bible teacher for Portland and vicinity under the aus-pices of the Moody Bible institute are requested to meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. audi-

luck dinner in the Sunday school section; J. D. Carter, W. H. Belles, G. O. Nelson, elders; Mrs. C. E.

at both services. The reception of new members and the celebration of the lord's supper will take place at the close of the morning service.

Dr. W. B. Hinson, pastor of the East Side Baptist church, will commence his fifth year of ministry in this church today. Under Dr. Hin-son's faithful ministry and preaching, the church has more than doubled its former membership each consecu-March 52 were received into the church. Fifteen were baptized on Easter Sunday and others are awaiting baptism. The Easter thank offering amounted to $7000 and the dren of the world was $200.

Dr. Hinson will preach this morn-ing at 11 o'clock from the subject "The Only True Church." This even-ing at 7:30 his theme will be "The Lord's Return." Sunday school con-

Owen T. Day, pastor of the Arleta Baptist church, 48th avenue and 64th street, will speak at 11 A. M. today on "The Consecration of Life's Re-sources," Sixty persons are awaiting church fellowship, while 50 have been sing at the morning service. At 7:30 P. M. a song service will be led by "The Transfiguration of Thomas" will be the theme from which Rev. R. E. Close will speak at the Third Baptist church Sunday morning. The lord's supper will be observed following the morning sermon and the hand of fellowship will be given to those who have recently entered the church The subject of the evening sermon will be "The Garden Where God and Warriors Met.

At Glencoe Baptist church, East Forty-fifth and Main streets, morning services will be held at 11 o'clock mervices will be held at 11 o'clock with preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Stewart on the topic: "Seeing Jesus." Evening services will be at 7:36 P. M. Dr. J. S. Reed will conclude a two weeks' series of special evangelistic meetings. These meetings have been most successful and the public is invited to hear Dr. Reed ic is invited to hear Dr. Reed on Sunday night.

Communion will be celebrated this morning at Sunnyside Congregational church, when Dr. J. J. Staub will speak on "Risen with Christ." Over speak on "Risen with Christ." Over 40 new members were received into fellowship last Sunday morning.
There will be an interesting address tonight given by Miss Minnie Tontz, a member of this church, recently returned from Mt. Selina, East Africa. Miss Toniz has a wonderful Africa. Miss Tonta has a wonderful story to tell of her work in the dark continent. Her talk will be filus-trated with a very fine, recently-taken set of slides.

Monday at 2:30 P. M. the Portland Bible league will meet in the church parlors and Dr. W. P. White will speak on "A Revival of Bible Interest in Portland.'

Wednesday evening the interde-nominational Bible class will study the ninth chapter of Daniel, led by

THE Portland Ministerial association extends to all ministers in the city a hearty invitation to the meeting of ministers at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium at 10:30 A. M. to-places at the tables must be made in advance. advance.

. . . be "What All Ministers Should Know The post-Easter service at the At-About the Social Agencies of Port-kinson Memorial Congregational About the Social Agencies of Port-land." Instead of a formal address, Dr. Philip S. Parsons, chairman of the Oregon child welfare commission; Miss, Amelia Perry, director and trainer of family visitors for the

As a result of a special evangelistic of the pastors of Portland Christian churches during a seven weeks "go to church" campaign, 117 people have been added to the church A decided general increase in church attendance is reported, and the large and the Misses Mille and Harriet and the Misses Millie and Harriet Congregational Young Folk to Have Busy Week.

Mrs. Edward Drake Becomes Or ganist of First Church.

director, will be present. Those desiring classes formed in their communities should attend this meeting.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 2.—(Special)—The members of the First Presbyterian church, at the annual congregational meeting, decided to ask for an immediate report on the advisability of erecting a manse for the church now owns. The church on lots on West Second street, which the church now owns. The report is expected to favor the project. The following elders deacnesses and trustees were elected at the business session following a petluck dinner in the Sunday achogi specthes by Dr. E. Ford Warner on section; J. D. Carter, W. H. Belless.

Gleaners, as Mrs. H. A. Roberts' class of business young women is called. Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen and Mrs. D. S. Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen of business young women is called. Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen of business young women is called. Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen of business young women is called. Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen of business young women is called. Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen of puging the ta so coleky is and Mrs. Peter Biankholm.

On Tuesday evening, April 5, a general demonstration meeting is honor of members of the confirmation class this year and the large number of new members which were received into fellowship with the church on Palm Sunday and Easter.

Plans are being prepared for the remodeling of the church interior and the making of certain necessary lm-provements to the church property. The St. James congregation occupies one of the best centrally located church sites in Portland, at West Park and Jefferson streets, being one of the best centrally located church sites in Portland, at West Park and Jefferson streets, being the making of certain necessary lm-provements to the church property. The St. James congregation occupies one of the best centrally located church sites in Portland, at West Park and Jefferson streets, being from all parts of the city. St. James from all parts of the city. St speeches by Dr. E. Ford Warner on easily reached by connecting carlines "The Alumni Movement," Louis from all parts of the city. St. James Adams of Oregon City and Dr. Mac-congregation, which was organized lar Rossman programme for the Men's Brotherhood meeting. Dr. Samuel C. Kohs, psychologist of the Samuel C. Kohs, psychologist of the court of domestic relations, will interpret a very remarkable set of stereopticon pictures and D. Solis Cohen, who is an attorney by profession and an orator by preference will the paster. Rev. Jacob Stocker will sion and an orator by preference, will the pastor, Rev. Jacob Stocker, will deliver an address on the Zionist preach on the subject "The Church of movement.

Jesub Christ, What Is It?" This will

Mrs. Edward Drake is the new organist at the First Congregational church. Mrs. Drake is a Portland woman. She is a daughter of an Oregon ploneer, F. S. Akin. She received the early part of her musical educa-tion in Portland. Later she studied inday school offering for the chil- piano with William H. Sherwood and pipe organ with F. Loui King. A number of years ago she was the or-ganist of the First Congregational "The Only True Church." This evening at 7:30 his theme will be "The Lord's Return." Sunday school convenes at 9:30, and the young people's societies at 6:30.

Owen T. Day, pastor of the Arleta Street and the Centenary Methodist churches. It was with very keen regret that the First church parted with Miss Ethel Lynn Ross, who has been the organist during the last year. The illness of Miss Ross mather led to the resignation.

mother led to the resignation.

Today Mrs. Dudley Steele, the so-P. M. a song service will be led by a chorus choir. The pastor's topic will be "A Fool's Death."

"The Transfiguration of Thomas" will give the following programme: 11 A. M.—Prelude, "Allegreto" (Tours)
postlude, "Festvorepiel in C Major" postlude, "Festvorepiel in C Major" (Liebig).

7:30 P. M.— Prelude, "Benedictus" (Weber); prelude, "Une Fete a Trainon" (Henri Roubier); postlude, in "A Minor" (Brede).

is Dr. McElveen's topic this morning. At the evening service he will answer four questions:

1—Your epinion of ex-Secretary of State
Lansing's book on the peace negotiations'
2—Is President Harding about to establish an American embassy at the vatican' 3—What did you learn as a member of the board of arbitration on the wag-

4-Is hell a myth?

This morning at the Highland Con gregational church the pastor, Rev. Edward Constant, will preach a post-Easter sermon, "A Noble Confession." At the evening service he is to pay tribute to the late John Burroughs. The subject of the address will be "John Burroughs, Humanist and Naturalist."

The ladies' aid meets for special work at the church Wednesday morning, and the evening of that day the workers of the Sunday school will gather for dinner, business and a social time.

The quarterly communion service and administration of the Lord's Supper will take place at 11 o'clock at Waverly Heights Congregational church. At the evening service, be-ginning at 7:30 o'clock, the chorus choir will give a sacred concert and the pastor, Rev. Oliver Perry Avery, will give a brief address on "What Is Heaven Like?"

The class on fundamentals will meet Thursday evening.

Friday evening at 6 o'clock will be held a mothers' and daughters' banquet. This promises to be a great event. A splendid musical programme is being prepared by Mrs. James vited.

At the Methodist Episcopal church South, corner Union avenue and Multinomah street, the pastor, Rev. Joseph B. Harris, will speak at 11 A. M., on the theme "Christian Volunteers" and at 7:45 P. M. will have for his subject. "A Revival." The public is invited. At the Methodist Episcopal church Officers re-elected last Monday to carry on the work of the City Church Extension society of the Methodist Ep iscopal church of Portland and general representative of the Methodist national centenary programme committee, who is visiting Portland: Left to right—E. A. Baker, secretary; L. C. Cunningham, treasurer; J. R. Ellison, president; Samuel Connell, vice-president, and Dr. Balph E. Diffendorfer.

Debt Against Church to Be Cleared Today.

St. James' Lutheran Congregation to Burn Its Mortgage.

CPECIAL services will be held today at St. James English Lutheran church, at which time the congre-Betian Brun rendered a plans gation will observe the event of the the afternoon meeting by different mediums. The regular monthly mestable for the evening were about $15,000 in a fitting manner. A united campaign in which the entire congresevening. April 6, at 8 P. M. campaign in which the entire congregation co-operated, directed by the pastor, Rev. William E. Brinkman, and assisted by special canvassing dissionary alliance, will speak at committees, has met with most gratifying results in its work and the congregation has gone "over the top" in the raising of funds for canceling the debt. Rev. Mr. Brinkman will make be the eighth sermon on the letter of Paul to the Ephesians. In the after-noon at 3 o'clock there will be a service at the Altenheim at Division street. The Young People's alliance will meet at 6:30 and at 7:30 the pastor will continue his series of ser-mons on the letter of Paul to the Romana the subject being "The Doc-trine of the Holy Spirit."

Three services will be held today in St. Paul's Lutheran church, East Twelfth and Clinton streets, Rev. A. Krause pastor. The subject for the Krause paster. The subject for the morning service, which is held in German at 10:30, will be "Christ, the Life of the Christians." The topic for the English sermon at 7:30 P. M. is "Why Ministers of the Gospel Can and Do Pronounce Absolution for the Forgiveness of Sins." The choirs sing both morning and evening. The devotional service and Bible study begins at 5 P. M. and the Sunday school, with lasses for all ages, meets at 9:30 A M. The quarterly meeting of the congregation takes place Modday at P. M. and the choirs rehearse Wednes P. M. and the day at 8 P. M.

Services will be held at Trinity Lutheran church, Rodney and Ivy, as follows: 10:15, in German; 7:30, ordial invitation is extended.

'Unreality" Is Subject of Science Lessons Today.

Testimonies of Healing Includes in Evening Services.

"I NREALITY" is the subject of lesson sermens in Churches of Christ, Scientist, today. All Christian Science churches hold services Sun-day morning at 11 o'clock. and all except Fifth and Seventh Sunday evening at 8. Wednesday evening meetings, which include testimonies of Christian Science healing, are held in all churches at 8 o'clock.

Sunday school for pupils up to the age of 20 is held in all churches Sunday morning. Downtown reading rooms are maintained at 1133 North-western Bank building and at 33 North Third street. The public is invited to attend church services and visit the reading rooms.

Churches are located as follows:

street.
Fifth—Sixty-second avenue and Ferty-second street Southeast.
Sixth—Pythian temple, $88 Yambill

Seventh-403 Smith avenue. The First Spiritual Science churc The First Spiritual Science church will hold services Sunday at 3 P. M. and 3 P. M. in Manchester hall, 85½ Fifth street, Lecture sermons will be given by Rev. Max Hoffman and L. E. Philips on the subject "Under Whose Judgment Am I?"

The Society for Spreading the Knowledge of True Prayer, as organized by Mr. Rawson, meets in the blue room of the Portland hotel Mon-day evenings at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

The First Spiritualist church. East Seventh and Hassalo streets, will hereafter conduct meetings every Sunday at 11 A. M., 3 P. M. and 8 P. M. Mrs. Lillian Smith is pastor. Messages will be given by Mrs. Downes and Mrs. Helenas. Message circles will be held immediately after the afternoon meeting by different

Miss Margaret Houser of St. Paul. Minn, evangelist of the Christian and 7:45. The doors of the church will savior from his life.

Missionary alliance, will speak at not open until 7 o'clock.

The new music both morning and availage an

THE young people of the First Church and address suitable to the occasion.

The young people of the First Following are the names of the charter members who will have part in the service when the mortgage and church at 441 East Twelfth street. corner Sherman, for tonight at 8 note which have been canceled are of clock is The Aquarian Epoch." The THE young people of the charter members who will have part in the service when the mortgage and note which have been canceled are to be burned; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. W. W. Gleaners, as Mrs. H. A. Roberts' class Glean

The Young People's society of St. Stephen's (Episcopal) pro-cathedral will hold their regular weekly meeting at 6:30 P. M. Sunday in the parish house at the corner of Thirteenth and Clay streets. Donald Lamont Jr. Whitney Boys' Chorus to Sing at First Methodist.

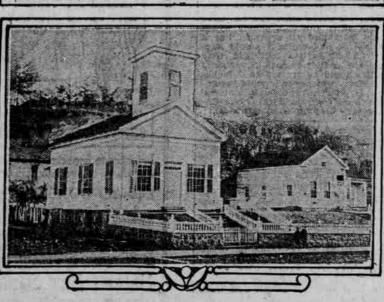

Dr. Stanfield to Speak on "The Curse and the Blessing of La-bor."

and the meeting will begin 15 minutes earlier than usual-7:30 instead of At the Easter day service tast Sun day the church was crowded and sev-eral hundreds were unable to get in.

the society came into existence. Nearly 1200 trained workers have been sent to foreign lands and more than $22,000,000 have been contributed to the uplift of heathen women and children. The present membership in this country is approximately 200,000. About 200 persons in Centenary-Wil- P. M.

NEW METHODIST CHURCH DEDICATED AT OREGON CITY BY BISHOP SHEPARD.

ove-New home of Oregon City Methodists. Below-First Protestand church west of the Rocky mountains, built at Oregon City by Metho-

The new Methodist church of Oregon City was formally dedicated Sun March 20, with appropriate cer emonies, led by Bishop W. O. Shepard. Methodists of the city had been without a regular church building of their own for about 15 months. The residence property of C. H. Caufield, at Eighth and Center streets, was purchased recently and remodeled as a modern church plant.

Services of a historical nature were held in the new church March 18.

Mrs. Eva Emery Dye delivered an address outlining the early religious work in the state. George H. Himes of the Oregon Historical society presented Rev. Melville T. Wire, pastor of the new church, with a photograph of the first Protestant church west of the Rocky mountains, which the Methodists had the honor of building in Oregon City, bur church are identified with this organization.

The Sunday evening services at Contenary-Wilbur church have for some time been marked by an evan-gelistic interest and fervor, which is very gratifying to pastor and people and the cause of general comment throughout the community. At prac-THE first Sunday after Easter at the First Methodist church will be another big attendance day. In the evening at 7:30, the Whitney boys' speak of the wonderful way in which chorus will have the entire service speak of the wonderful way in which the infinite love of God pursues the for a man to exclude a seeking Two interesting social events will for a man to exclude a seeking for a man

The new musical organization, which promises to become an outstanding feature of attraction for this downtown section of the city, will present its first programme at the services on the coming Sunday. Professor J. MacMillan Muir has been entered to the city will be sung by Mrs. Herman Hucke, fees of J. MacMillan Muir has been entered to the company of the company with Sunday school at when reports for the first and conference year will be received from the pastor and staff workers, the trustees and stewards and all organizations of the church. On Thurs, day night at the question period of the prayer meeting service, one of the guestions will be, "How many days of the Christ's life are reported in the Gospels and why so meager a record," at Gospels and why so meager a record, and the community night entertainment on Friday will provide motion pictures on "Rip Van Winkle." For the benefit of the children, the resistive of the pastor, will sing. Among the twistors will be Dr. John D. McCormick, from the Kimball school of the last of the children, the resistive of the children, the resistive of the conditions of the conditions of the children the resistive of the National Unitarity and the pastor, will sing. Among the twistors will be Dr. John D. McCormick, from the Kimball school of the last of the cology, Salem, Or. This evening at the cology, Salem, Or. This evening at the cology, Salem, Or. This evening at the pastor, will sing a many be evenly distributed.

At Central Presbyterian church, and few others, so that sociability and a few others, so that Intuition," and at 7:30, "Immortality a Natural The week of April 11 to 16 has been Intuition," and at 7:30, "Immortality designated by the association as "Be Sustained by Logic and Science." Kind to Animals Week." It proposes Sustained by Logic and Science."

There will be special music at each service, under the direction of Professor F. C. Streyfeller. The Sunday school meets at 9:45, the junior league at 3 and the Epworth league at 6:30. This church has received 61 members since October, 1920, and is prospering in all its departments.

At the Rose City Park Methodist

At the Rose City Park Methodist Episcopal church Dr. Huett, the pastor, will speak in the morning at the sermon, "One Trial Better Than Many.

the evening another lecture sermon will be given with the help of the stereopticon and Porto Rico will be the field. This is the fifth in the series, Panama, China, the Philippine islands and Hawali having already been given and it is the plan to go over all the great mission fields a good moving-picture machine. Strangers are always welcome.

With Christian Happiness. Christian Church Bible School Contributes $850 on Easter to China

Rev. H. H. Griffis to Deal

Relief.

THE Rev. Harold H. Griffis will L speak today, both morning and preach by request on the position of the Christian church with regard to the Lord's day, having for his specific subject "Why We Do Not Observe the Sabbath" superintendent. At Kern Park Christian church street, the regular monthly merger ber. Dr. Harold Leonard Bown service of the church and the Bible complimented the classes for the school will be held at 11 & M. The ergy displayed and the progress and byterian church, East Minsteenth and Division streets, at the hour of morning worship. The pastor, Rev. D. A. Thompson, will preach from the text "This do in remembrance of me." Members will be received both by ietter and on confession of their faith infant children of church members may be presented for bantism.

Garden" (Holton), by Mrs. O. B. Rid-dle and Miss Beatrice Palmer.

ing officers for the ensuing year and hearing reports of the work of the past year. A fellowship dinner will be closed its year's work last Sunday, served in the church dining room at 6:30. All members of the church and with a hope for even greater achievecongregation are expected to be pres- ment. Keeping in mind the inspira-will be discontinued after this week. There will be a considerable accession of children, young people and adults at the communion service.

Unitarians Are Planning Big Social Events.

Regular Monthly Musicale Will Be Held This Afternoon.

eral hundreds were unable to get in.
At the public worship service in the morning at 10:30, Dr. Stansfield will services on the coming Sunday. Propresent on "The Curse and the Blessing of Labor." On Monday night the quarterly conference and official board meetings will be held in the loady at 10:20 on Sunday evening.

Sunday school temple at 7:45 o'clock.

Tualatin Methodist Episcopal church

Besides the solo parts, some of which will be sung by Mrs. Herman Hucke, the choir will sing a fine group of Easter carols. The choir contains the choir, pulpit, decorations and altar. Tollowing singers: Mytilene Fraker Stites, contralto and director; Mrs.

Tualatin Methodist Episcopal church

Tualatin Methodist Episcopal church

Tualatin Methodist Episcopal church Stites, contralto and director; Mrs. H. J. Hucke, soprano; J. Ross Fargo, tenor; Walter Hardwick, bass. Ralph W. Hoyt and Mrs. Walter Hardwick are accompanists. Light refreshments day," the society says in its announce-At First Norwegian Lanish Methodist Episcopal church, Eighteenth and Hoyt streets, Rev. C. August Peterson, pastor, Rev. E. Gjording will preach at 11 A. M. and Rev. C. J. Larsen, D. S., will preach at 7:45

Ment.

"It has back of it no mercenary method to finance any local or national institutions, no matter how commendable may be their purpose or valuable their work. The purpose or valuable their work. The purpose of the night service at the Easter motive; it does not seek to finance exercises in the Sunday school amounted to almost $20. This money in the Chieng Rung station of north Siam.

The authors of the night service at the Easter motive; it does not seek to finance exercises in the Sunday school amounted to almost $20. This money in the Chieng Rung station of north Siam.

humanitarians, are among the asso-ciation's ideas for the week.

Mr. Coursen to Give Organ Recital Today.

Dr. Bowman to Preach Sermon at First Presbyterian Church.

A corner of Twelfth and Alder day night to encourage new members.

On Monday night, April 4, will be of today in this way and in the not distant future the moving-picture streets, the pastor, Rev. Harold Leonfilm, "The Pioneer Trail" will be ard Bowman, D. D., will speak this will be ard Bowman, D. D., will speak this given. The church is supplied with morning at 10:30 on "The Blessedness of Being Ordinary."

At the night service at 7:30 o'clock the subject will be "The Vision Splendid." As a prelude to the night service from 7:15 to 7:30, Edgar E. Courble of the course of the courble of the course of the courble of the c the subject will be "The Vision Splendid." As a prelude to the night service from 7:15 to 7:30, Edgar E. Coursen will give an organ recital, with sen will give an organ recital, with the following programme:

(a) "Elevation," (Saint-Saens): (b) "Air." (Bach); (c) "March." (Merkei).

The quartet will sing at both services. It is composed of Mrs. Blanche Williams Segersten, soprano; Mrs. Virginia Spencer Hutchinson, contralto; John D. Treharne, tenor, and Otto Wedemeyer, bass and leader.

As a special musical feature, John D. part of the programme also furnish. evening, at the First Christian church. The morning sermon will deal with the comprehensiveness of the Christian religion, the special topic being "Three Legitimate Kinds of Happiness." In the evening the pastor will preach by request on the position of the Christian church with regard to classes and departments for all ages.

A cordial invitation is given to all who are desirous of doing serious study of the Bible. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a conference will be The musical offerings by the church quartet for these services will include the afternoon a conference will be held in the chapel for Presbyterian prano-contralto duet "Midnight in the Garden" (Hoiton), by Mrs. O. B. Riddle and Microscopic and Collection were astonishingly large. The Sunday school collection is to be used for foreign missions.

Rev. Danala and Microscopic and Country of the Bible. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a conference will be held in the chapel for Presbyterian be used for foreign missions. ence will be addressed by two visitors from Philadelphia—Rev. J. S. Ar-mentrout and Miss Florence Norton dle and Miss Beatrice Palmer.

The Easter offering made by the Bible school of this congregation for China relief amounted to $850. The original pledge was $500, but when the pupils and officers came to understand the great need of the famine district they increased their subscriptions by more than $500. During the past four months this school has centributed for world relief approximately $2500. John F. Faust is the superintendent.

The Warren Bible class and vesper class of the First Presbyterian church gave their annual banquet Tuesday night, honoring 440 new members who Forty-sixth avenue and Sixty-ninth have joined these classes since October. Dr. Harold Leonard Bowman pastor, J. F. Ghormley, will speak along all lines of work for the ad-on "The Children of the King." The combined choruses under the direction The speakers were James F. Ewing. of Mrs. May Vail Billingsley will Mrs. Minnie Heath Gardner, Miss sing. At 7:30 P. M. Evangelist Joseph Grace Burton, Miss Marie Lessing. Boyd will speak on "God's Gift."

Mrs. Minnie Heath Gardner, Miss Boyd Will speak on "God's Gift."

Miss Jessie McLaughlin and George Morgan. The musical programme was The sacrament of the Lord's supper under the management of Victor de will be observed at the Mizpah Pres- Pinto, leader of the vesper orchestra. byterian church, East Nineteenth and Soloists were Clinton O. Bay, John D.

may be presented for baptism.

The theme for the night sermon will be "Standards of Value." The chorus of high school students will sing at the night service.

The intermediate society of Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:45.

The regular congregational meeting of the church will be held on Wednesday, April 5, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and Westminster Presbyterian church The Easter services were largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

The pastor's pre-communion classes will be discontinued offer. It is children's sermantic again."

ter on the thought, "The Fear of God." Sunday night's sermon will be on "A Bible: Have You One, and What Is Its Use?" For special music Professor Hutch ison has chosen:

Morning: Anthem, "Glorious Is Thy Name," (W. A. Monart); offertery, Frelude in D flat, (A. Glazounov); tenor zolo, "The Procession," (Caesar Franck).

Evening: Anthem, "The Lord Omnipotent Reigneth," (Thomas Adams); offertory, Andante in A. (S. Rousseau); baritone zolo, "There is a Green Hill" (Charles Gounod).

Everyone who attended last Sunday

The Christian Endeavor society will meet at 6:45 P. M.

P. M.

At the Sellwood Methodist church.

Rev. W. S. Gordon, the pastor, will begin a series of sermons on "The Immortality of the Soul." The topic need repeated emphasis."

The week of April 11 to 16 has been in the animal seek simply to have sermons preached on the sermons preached on the occasion throughout American pulpits on the general subject of the night service at 7:30 is "Methods of Approach to the Siamese Heart and How These Methods of Approach to the Methods of Approach to the Siamese Heart and How These Methods of Approach to the subject of the night service at 7:30 is "Methods of Approach to the Methods of Approach to the Siamese Heart and How These Methods of House Succeeded." Mr. and Mrs. White have been connected with the north Siam mission since their marriage in 1902, and have served in the care of city and country churches. itinerating evangelistic work. for the past seven years have had charge of the theological seminary at Chiengmai.

> Many of the Presbyterian churches of the city held their communion service on Easter Sunday, but at Piedmont church the regular April 3, will be reserved for this Holy communion and admirelen embers will be the feature of the morning service, with Rev. J. Francis Morgan using the topic, "My Whole-hearted Following."

At night his subject will be, "Mirscle-working Faith." At this service the cantata "The Daughter of Jairus."

as sung Easter Sunday, will be re-T the First Presbyterian church,

T the First Presbyterian church,

A rousing preparatory meeting was held in the church auditorium Thursheld the teachers' meeting, reports from different Sunday school departments will be given.

church's activity. This will be an unusually interesting annual meet-the morning service today at Rose City Park Presbyterian church is "A Resurrection Reverie." A. B. Carr. missionary at Elat, East Africa, will speak at the night meeting on "Afri-ca." Communion of the Lord's supper will be observed at the morning service. Easter was a notable day in the history of the church. One hundred new members were received at the morning service. The church will hold its annual congregational meeting on Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the church.

Rev. J. S. Armentrout of New York city will speak in the Fourth Pres-byterian church this morning on "Re-ligious Education." emphasizing ea-(Concluded on Page 7,)