

DAVID REPUBLICANS WAITING FOR PLUMS

Some Exceptionally Juicy Fruit Soon to Fall.

TWO JOBS THOUGHT FIXED

Appointment of L. G. Davis, U. S. District Attorney and Elias Mayor Marshal Believed Sure.

BOISE, Idaho, April 2.—(Special.)—The republican clans in Idaho are collecting under the federal plum tree for it is soon to be shaken and when it is there will fall some exceptionally juicy fruit.

It is believed that the United States district attorneyship, a United States marshalship, an internal revenue collectorship, a prohibition directorship and an interstate commerce commission membership. At the April session of congress the fruit harvest will take place and the plums will be distributed.

At least two of the important appointments may be considered as settled, those who profess to know the inside declare. These are district attorney and United States marshal.

Gooding Believed to be Elected. It has been common report that Gooding is bound to support Davis for district attorney. It is known that John Hart favors Gooding.

There are, however, a number of applicants for this position. The list includes: B. W. Began, Shelley, F. M. Reshears, Boise; George E. Babey, Pocatello; Dr. M. L. Meeker, Boise; S. Parkhurst, Boise, and August Sutherland, Wallace.

Many Seek Collectorship. The situation with regard to the internal revenue collectorship is interesting, judging from reports in political circles. Applicants include David Burrell, American Falls; George A. Day, Outlook; Z. B. Boren, Jr., Rigby; Evan Evans, Grangeville; Glyde Gray, Boise, and A. T. Marshall, Pocatello.

Woman Caught After Thrilling Downtown Chase Held on Two Grand Larceny Counts. Fannie Ortel, alleged shoplifter de tective March 23 after a thrilling chase through downtown streets, was indicted for grand larceny by the Multnomah county grand jury yesterday. The true bills were returned on two counts for thefts alleged to have taken place March 21 and March 22.

There has never been much of a bond of sympathy between Evans and Day. When the latter was elected chairman, Day was state land commissioner and Evans insisted on his resignation. Day, however, was a strong supporter of Senator Gooding and assisted in his nomination.

Women Have Candidate. The women of the state have taken an active interest in the appointment of federal prohibition director for Idaho. They have a candidate in the race, Miss Pearl Tyer of Boise.

Keelo Bridge Being Surveyed. KELS0, Wash., April 2.—(Special.)—Surveying for the new Keelo bridge was resumed this week by an engineering crew in charge of W. D. Keller. Estimates are being prepared for two locations, one just below the present bridge and the other from the higher ground several blocks north of the business district, where the grade crossing and the life span of the bridge could be eliminated.

Physical Courses Numerous. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, April 2.—(Special.)—In the spring term of the university, that begins Monday, 35 courses in physical education are offered for men and 24 for women. Those for women include swimming, archery, dancing, baseball, corrective gymnastics, supervision of teaching, playground supervision, normal instruction, anthropology, hygiene, personal hygiene, canoeing, theory of physical education, eugenics and kinesiology.

COURT RULE ESTABLISHED

Interest in Appeal of Famous Divorce Case to Supreme Tribunal of State Grows.

SALLEM, Or., April 2.—(Special.)—If Gavin McNab, who was attorney for Mary Pickford in divorce proceedings brought against her husband in the Nevada courts, and the other four lawyers retained by Marjorie Hawley of Oregon City in her action for divorce against Willard Hawley Jr., each demand to be heard by the supreme court on the date set for the final arguments, their individual addresses will be limited to 12 minutes.

This was made known here today by Arthur Benson, clerk of the supreme court, who said the court long ago established a rule whereby attorneys appearing for either the plaintiff or the defendant in an appeal case would be limited to one hour in submitting arguments. Local interest in the Hawley divorce case was given impetus this week when inquiries were received here from Oregon City with relation to the attorneys representing Mrs. Hawley.

More than one of the inquirers said they understood from press reports that Mr. McNab had been retained by the plaintiff and would make the main argument before the supreme court. McNab Late Acquisition. Official records in the offices of the supreme court, including a transcript of testimony taken in the Clackamas county circuit court, make no mention of Attorney McNab.

Mrs. Hawley brought the suit for divorce in Clackamas county with the result that a counter-complaint was filed by the defendant, Mrs. Hawley asked a decree dissolving the marriage contract, alimony, an undivided interest in the defendant's property, suit money, custody of the minor child, and a monthly allowance for the support of said child.

Decree Given to Hawley. The court, in deciding the case, awarded a decree of divorce to Mr. Hawley, and denied all other relief sought by Mrs. Hawley with the exception of allowing modest attorney fees, alimony pending the outcome of the appeal to the supreme court and temporary custody of the child.

The plaintiff then appealed the case to the supreme court for final determination. The case will be argued before the supreme court in June.
