BUZZ ARLETT LINES HOMER; OAKS WIN

Visitors Scuttle Beavers by Score of 5 to 0.

PILLETTE BADLY MAULED

Kallio Gets Like Treatment When He Enters Box; Portland Bats Heavily But Uselessly.

BY L. H. GREGORY.

No ball game is complete these days without its home run. Buzz Arlett of the Oaks was the gent to oblige in yesterday's encounter. With the score already 3 to 0 in his favor in the ninth he lifted a whale of a long drive into the left field bleachers.

In view of the status of the scoreboard at the time it did no particular damage except to Rudy Kallio's feelings, off whose pitching he made his circuit knock. However, it added one little thrill to an otherwise not wildly exciting game and gave Mr. Arlett something to paste in his scrapbook for the grandchildren to read. It also stirred up the Oaks so much that they hopped onto Kallio immediately there after for an altogether needless additional tally. That made the final score Oakland 5, Portland 0.

Beaver Slugging Harmless.

By all the rules of inter-club courtesy, which had been strictly adhered to up to yesterday, it was the Beavers' turn to win. They took the first game Tuesday, the Oaks won Wednesday, then the Beavers grabbed Thursday's battle and the Oaks copped on Friday. That certainly entitled the home boys to the Saturday clash. But for some reason or other all the Oaks have become fighting mad.

They were so altogether discourteous that they whanged Pillette for three runs up to the seventh and then went after Kallio for the two extra ones in the ninth. In the meantime the Beavers were hitting Arlett consistently enough whenever a hit couldn't help them any. But when a safe blow meant a run or two they couldn't get to him with a crowbar.

Arlett Pitches Tight Ball.

Some bird in Oakland started the story recently that Arlett's arm was sore, or that he wasn't trying to pitch, or something. If his arm was sore yesterday then he must hate himself terribly when it's right. And if he wasn't trying to pitch he gave one of the most artistic exhibitions of concealed nonchalance ever seen in this climate. He cared so little about winning that whenever the Beavers got men on bases he fed them nothing but his no-hit ball.

The Oaks restrained their appetite for runs until the fourth. Then Hack Miller bit off a ground smash to center. Willie followed with a hard rap that went through Krug's legs. Then Knight sacrificed them up a base apiece and White followed with a long sacrifice fly to Genin on which Miller tallied. Mitze hit a grounder to the right of second base that Pep Young knocked down but couldn't hold and Willie counted.

Willie Busts Two-Bagger.

In the sixth Willie, who has been on a batting rampage all week, busted a hot two-bagger into right. Knight scored him with a hot single to the same place, but Wolfer made a great catch of White's liner to left and though Mitze sent Knight to third with another single, he died there when Pillette whiffed Arlett.

The Beavers were wiped out in the sixth, after Krug had rapped a safe blow to right, when Wolfer hit into a double play. With two down Cox then singled between short and third and Poole drove a beautiful line drive into right, but both died when Butler skied to Willie.

Again in the seventh the Beavers had a chance but couldn't convert it. Fisher, leading off, drew a walk. Young advanced him to second on his out, but Bourg, hitting for Pillette, hit into Arlett's hands and Fisher was held at second. Genin smashed a hot ground single through the box, which White stopped in time to prevent Fisher from passing third. Then Krug struck out.

Arlett Drives His Homer.

Kallio, replacing Pillette, got through the eighth scathless, but with one down in the ninth Arlett got hold of one and drove it into the left-field bleachers for a homer. Pinelli popped to Butler, but with two down Kearns doubled to left and came clear on in to the plate on Cooper's little tap past pitcher. Poole got it and threw to Kallio on the base, but Cooper was safe and while the boys were thinking it over Kearns sneaked home.

To win the series the Beavers must take both games of today's doubleheader, which starts at 1:30 o'clock. The score:

CARPENTIER IS ON WAY

EUROPE'S CHAMP LEAVES HAVRE FOR AMERICA.

Station Is Thronged by Crowds Who Give Ovation to Boxer Who Is to Battle Dempsey.

HAVRE, May 7.—Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion boxer of Europe, sailed for New York this evening on the steamer La Savoie.

PARIS, May 7.—Carpentier left Paris this morning. About 100 friends accompanied him to the station, and when the word spread that the pugilistic idol of France was leaving for the United States the station was filled with a crowd and incoming commuters delayed their arrival at their offices to give the champion an ovation.

The boxer's party was completed on the eve of his departure by the engagement of "Battling" Marcot, known as a boxer, but in addition a first-class cook, who will assure Carpentier of French cookery, to which he is habituated.

Confidence was the keynote of Carpentier's godbye. In a farewell message to the sportsmen of France, through the Echo des Sports, he said:

"I know your wishes accompany me and I have every confidence I will do the best I can. If I am beaten, the only thing for me to do will be to recognize the superiority of Dempsey. If I am the winner I expect and keenly hope the American fighter will give me similar credit."

In the last part of the ninth inning Silverton succeeded in bringing in three runs, which resulted in a score of 8 to 7.

If they ever come off, there will be two important ring battles on Monday, May 9. According to present plans, Johnny Kilbane is to relinquish his strangle hold on the championship he holds long enough to give Artie Root a crack at it, while Bob Martin, heavyweight champion of the A. E. F., takes on Johnny Sexton for 12 rounds. We say "if they ever come off" advisedly. We have a memorandum book full of announced matches that never happened.

The Scottish football association is expected to send to America the best team it can gather, to sail for this side May 11. The Scotsmen will make an extensive tour of the United States and Canada and may get as far as the Pacific coast in their travels. There is considerable excellent local talent on the rim of the Pacific.

It is reported from Paris that Americans in France favor the chances of Bohemian to win the Epsom derby, to be run at Epsom, England, June 1. The backing the Americans have been giving this horse in the future books has brought the odds down from 66 to 1 to 25 to 1. Frank O'Neill, an American jockey, will ride Bohemian in the great classic.

The last scuttling of the Gunboat occurred in Buenos Aires. It's a long way to go for a licking when there are plenty of boys to accommodate right here.

FRANK TROEH LOSES ON TOSS OF COIN

Eddie Keller Tied for Trophy and Flip Settles Winner.

J. B. TROEH WINS THIRD

Yacolt Shot Wins Medal Match in Shoot-Off After Four Tied With 20 Straight.

Frank M. Troeh, trap-shooting marvel of Vancouver, Wash., did not fare so well at the traps of the Portland Gun club yesterday in the second day's registered shoot of the 37th annual tournament of the Northwest Sportsmen's association.

The shooters yesterday again lined up to blaze away at 120 targets, in addition to the two special handicap trophy shoots. In the first event the best the Vancouver ace could get was an even break with Eddie Keller, both scatter gun fiends cracking 118 targets apiece. There was not time enough to squeeze in a shoot off so the trophy put up the Portland Gun club was awarded on the toss of a coin, with Keller being favored by the fickle goddess of fortune.

J. B. Troeh Gets Third.

In the 120-bird event Troeh lost one target in his third frame and another in the fourth. Keller lost one target in the third and another in the fifth.

J. B. Troeh, brother of Frank, stepped into third money with a score of 115. Among the professional shooters who participated in the 120-target event, L. H. Reid of Seattle packed the high gun with a score of 112.

The Walla Walla Brownlee trophy handicap shoot of 20 targets at unknown angles was captured by R. W. Kinzer of Seattle with a straight run of 20. Kinzer caught his 20 targets on the wing from the 18-yard line.

Nelson Wins Dayton Medal.

In the final event of the day, which was the Dayton medal handicap shoot of 20 targets, it looked for a while as if the reliable Troeh from the other side of the Columbia river was, after all, going to be able to cart away some of the silverware but when the smoke had cleared away it was found that P. P. Nelson of Yacolt, Wash.; R. G. Lacey, Wells, Or.; Charles W. McKean, Walla Walla, Wash., and Troeh had tied with 20 straight. In the following shoot off Nelson won.

Nelson shot from 18 yards; Troeh, 22 yards; Lacey, 21 yards, and McKean, 16 yards.
