BY L. H. GREGORY.

The Tigers gave the Beavers the customary razzing yesterday and rubbed it in by knocking the usual home run over the fence. The score was 9 to 2 at the close. Ham Hyatt poled the onion across the wall this time, with Pete Schneider on base ahead of him.

The home run incident occurred in the fourth, when Vernon already had three runs. That was enough to win, inasmuch as Portland could score only twice all told. But after bringing their total to five with the homer the Tiger horse artillery continued to bombard and rang the bell four times more before the finish; Vernon 9, Portland 2.

Tigers Jump on Polson.

The Tigers jumped on Harold Polson for a tally in the first on Edington's double and Hyatt's single, brought in a couple more in the second on Gorman's single, Mitchell's two-bagger and an error by Pep Young, skipped the third by a narrow margin and then shelled Polson out of the trenches in the fourth with Hyatt's fence drive.

Sid Ross pitched from the fifth inning on and was hit about as hard as Polson had been. In the fourth the Tigers drove in two more on Edington's walk, High's double and Schneider's single, and repeated in the eighth on Edington's double, a single by High, a throw by Wolfer that got away from Willis Butler and Schneider's sacrifice fly.

Beavers Score in Second.

The Beavers made one in the second on Poole's single, his steal of second and Baker's two-bagger to left, and were presented with another in the fifth on a couple of Tiger errors, followed by Poole's drive to center. That ended the count so far as they were concerned, though they had a number of chances to drive in runs that went to seed because their batters failed in the pinches.

The game was just about as tiresome to watch as it is to read about, so why go further into details? Today the Beavers will end their home stand with a double-header, the first game starting at 1:30 o'clock. As tailend teams have a habit of bracing and doing the unexpected when everybody thinks all hope is gone, the Beavers might possibly double-cross all the boys by taking both games. The score:

SEALS BEAT BEES, 5 TO 4

Salt Lake Headed for Victory When Couch Is Hit Hard.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—San Francisco won today from Salt Lake, 5 to 4. The Bees were headed toward a victory in the sixth inning, when Couch was knocked out of the box, but his successor, McQuaid, held the visitors safe the rest of the game.

The Seals scored the winning run in their half of the same frame, Kamm's two-bagger driving in O'Connell, who had reached first base through being hit by the pitcher. The score:

ANGELS BEAT SACRAMENTO

Three-Run Lead Overcome and Game Taken by 7 to 5.

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—Los Angeles overcame a three-run lead and defeated Sacramento, 7 to 5. It was in the fifth inning the tide turned in favor of the Angels. Then they made four runs on four singles and a double, and knocked Penner out of the box.

Prough, who replaced him, suffered a like fate and Kuns finished the game for the Senators. Reinhart pitched good ball for the Angels and made four hits in four times at bat and three of their seven runs. The score:

Boston Game Is Postponed.

BOSTON, May 14.—The National league Chicago-Boston game here today was postponed because of rain.

Notes of the Game.

Ham Hyatt's home run over the right field fence with Pete Schneider on first, was the 16th to be made here in 22 games. Ham got hold of a slow ball, Polson's first pitch to him, and knocked the ball over the Bluebird sign. It was no high fly, either, but a corking line drive.

Ernie Shore, the former Boston and New York flinger, is not with the Tigers. Shore's arm appeared to be absolutely dead, so after he had been knocked out of the box a couple of times Bill Essick shipped him back to the Yanks.

The Beavers shove off tonight for three weeks on the road. They play Los Angeles there, then trek to Salt Lake, then go to San Francisco for a series with the Oaks before returning home to meet Seattle.

This is the final day for Owner Navin of Detroit to decide whether he wants to keep Suds Sutherland. The agreement on which he took Suds provided he was to be sent back to Portland on May 15 if he hadn't made good by then. Inasmuch as Suds is now the Tigers' leading pitcher in games won, there is a fat chance of getting him back. Apparently a fat chance of getting the players stipulated for him, also.

Duke's World Record Holds.

HONOLULU, T. H., May 14.—Pua Kealoha, who recently returned from a swimming tour of Australia, denied the cabled report that he had broken the record of Duke P. Kahanamoku for the 100-yard swim. Kealoha said that his best time in Australia was 53.1 seconds, as against Duke's world mark of 53 flat.

VALLEY NINES UPON TOES

WILLAMETTE LEAGUE TEAMS PROMISE SNAPPY GAMES.

Sherwood to Play at Hillsboro, Kirkpatricks at Oregon City and Artisans at Oswego.

Willamette Valley League Standings.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Crown Willamette	1	0	1000
Kirkpatricks	1	0	1000
Artisans	1	1	.500
Hillsboro	1	1	.500
Sherwood	0	1	.000
Oswego	0	1	.000

From the looks of the schedule, the fans of the Willamette Valley league are assured of some snappy ball games today. The game that is attracting the greatest attention is that between Sherwood and Hillsboro, at Hillsboro. There is a great deal of rivalry between these clubs, and every time they cross bats a keen battle is the result. Last year each won one game from the other. The game today is the first of three scheduled for this season. Myers of Baker will twirl for the Onion City lads, with Chick Baker receiving. Gray and Kreits will form the battery for their competitor.

A game which will materially effect the league standing is the one between the Kirkpatricks of Portland and the Crown Willamette club of Oregon City. Both teams are tied for the lead and today will get one of them back. Crown Willamette has been strengthened by the addition of Walter Kracke, who will bear the brunt of the receiving for the remainder of the season. King Cole will twirl, and if his record counts for anything the Kirks will have to get on their toes every minute to put over a win. Ducky Drake, who nearly landed a berth with McCredie, will work for the Kirkpatricks on the mound. Dunne or Daniels will work behind the bat.

The only other game in the circuit will see the United Artisans of Portland cross bats with Oswego, at Oswego. The Oswego club has not been able to get a good start, and has had trouble getting its players lined up, but should give the lodge boys a good run. The Artisans have a strong team ready to start and should be able to stage a win. Last week saw an addition which should materially strengthen the team. Rodgers in the outfield and Manery at second are both classy players.

All the games in the circuit will be started at 2:30 o'clock. The official umpires assigned to the games are Rankin at Oregon City, Davis at Hillsboro and Kiser at Oswego.

EVANSTON IS RIFLE CHAMP

Illinois High School Is Awarded 1921 Scholastic Title.

The Evanston high school of Illinois has been awarded the 1921 scholastic rifle championship of the United States in the competition conducted by the Winchester junior rifle corps. The Evanston team turned in a perfect score of 500. The Davenport (Ia.) high school also made a perfect score, but Evanston had 92 shots in the A circle, while Davenport had 75. The first nine teams turned in scores of 475 or better. A girls' unit of the Joliet (Ill.) high school turned in a score of 493, and another girls' unit of the same school made 485. A boys' unit of the same school made 493. Unit 714 of Larchmont, N. Y., scored 495. A Porto Rico school team shot 476, and units of Santa Barbara, Cal., and Aitken, S. C., were also in the 475 class.

The National Y. M. C. A. rifle championship tournament, also conducted by the W. J. R. C., has been won by the Juniata, Pa., Y. M. C. A. Units representing 60 Y. M. C. A.s competed in this championship. The Juniata boys scored 464 out of a possible 500, with Fresno, Cal., second with 454; Lowell, Mass., third, with 451, and another Fresno unit in fourth place with 436.

NEWBERG TAKES TOURNEY

DAYTON LOSES CHECKER, POOL AND BILLIARD GAMES.

Mayors of Both Cities Speak at Programme; W. H. Vernon Is Star of Evening.

NEWBERG, Or., May 14.—(Special.)—Newberg won the checker, pool and billiard tournament held in the Newberg Commercial clubrooms Friday evening, taking the majority of the contests in all three events. Dayton players opened the tournament strong and it appeared for a time as though they would win a straight victory, but Newberg passed them toward the end and captured the honors.

An interesting programme was presented preceding the tournament. The Newberg orchestra furnished music and Mayor Calkins of Newberg welcomed the visitors, Mayor Denson responding for Dayton. Players, referees and scorekeepers were then introduced and the contests started.

W. H. Vernon of Newberg proved to be the billiard star of the evening, taking every match in which he played. S. W. Sigler and A. C. Determering represented Dayton in the billiard contests and each took a game from Barney Groth, Newberg's second man, making the score 3 to 2.

Dayton won the first pool contest by a wide margin, but Newberg came back and won three out of the next four. E. H. Busby and Thomas Yost represented Dayton in the pool games, while Al May and Carl Groth represented Newberg.

The checker contest was close and interesting all the way through and was not decided until almost the last. There were 50 games played, each man playing ten games with five opponents. J. L. Sherman of Dayton was high man of the evening, winning nine out of his ten games played and tieing the other game. Dunton, for Newberg, was runnerup, taking five games, tieing three and losing only his two with Sherman. The final score gave Newberg 21 victories and 13 draws, as against 16 victories and the same number of draws for Dayton.

Following the contests a barrel boxing event was staged between Earl Pinney of Newberg, who represented Georges Carpentier, and Jack Chiert of Dayton, who impersonated Jack Dempsey. The event sustained the naming of the two candidates, as Chiert succeeded in flooring Pinney completely and was awarded the decision. Refreshments were then served.

About 80 men were present and Dayton was well represented.
