Misses Lotta Fleek and Lulu George on Thursday evening of this week. Miss Fleek and Miss George expect to leave the first of June for a trip abroad. Covers were laid for eight.

Miss Margaret Hyatt was hostess at a May-time tea at her home in Laurelhurst yesterday.

Dr. James Eaves of San Francisco entertained Monday night at a dinner for Miss Lovelle Florence. Several dinners and luncheons have been given for the popular Portland girl during her visit.

Umpqua chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Roseburg, elected for the coming year the following officers: Regent, Mrs. George W. Houck; vice-regent, Mrs. W. F. Thomas; secretary, Mrs. F. H. Grinstead; treasurer, Agnes Grinstead; registrar, Mrs. F. H. Churchill; historian, Mrs. Charles Sewarby; chaplain, Mrs. Helen G. Smick; directors, Mrs. D. J. Stewart and Mrs. John Busenbark.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Edna Davidson and Albert J. McKay, both of St. Paul, Or. The bride has a wide circle of friends here, having attended St. Mary's academy, and small functions have been planned in her honor. The ceremony will be June 8.

Mrs. Fred A. Kribs was hostess on Wednesday at a luncheon for Mrs. Carl G. Liebe, who will leave soon for a trip abroad, and Mrs. M. J. Delahunt, who will take a trip throughout the eastern states.

Miss Ethel Crane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crane, was hostess Saturday at a matinee party for Miss Peggy Hall, who is leaving soon to join her mother in New York. Following the performance tea was served at the Hotel Portland. Miss Alice Dabney chaperoned the affair. Those making up the party were Misses Hall, Sara Lutten, Ruth Tutthill, Marie Hecklein, Constance Frost, Evelyn Myers and the hostess.

Mrs. Ralph Smith of Waterbury, Conn., who is spending some time at the Hotel Portland, entertained Tuesday with a small and informal dinner party in honor of the 21st birthday anniversary of her niece, Miss Beatrice Taylor. Covers were placed for six guests at a beautifully decorated table. A large birthday cake on which flamed 21 tiny candles was a feature of the occasion.

One of the large and important club events of the week was the luncheon of the Catholic Women's league on Tuesday in the grill of the Hotel Portland. Mrs. Winthrop Terry was chairman of the committee, and the president, Mrs. J. C. Costello, gave a review of the work of the league for the past 12 years. Addresses were given by Judge J. P. Kavanaugh, Judge John H. Stevenson and Dr. Mae C. Cardwell. Music was given by Miss Nina Dressel, vocalist, and Mrs. Marie Chapman McDonald, violinist. Covers were placed for 200.

A tea and entertainment for the residents of the Old People's Home was given Saturday under the direction of Mrs. John Ross Dickson, assisted by Miss Ella Stephens and Dean Young of Reed college. Mrs. A. J. Meier, Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. Martin Winch and Mrs. H. W. Corbett presided at the tea table. Among those who presented numbers for the programme were Orpha Phelps, Hazel Carver, Margaret Thomas, Hazel Williams, Myrtle Swain.

The marriage of Miss Doris Ellen Slocum and Edgar Garbade will be solemnized June 1. Miss Slocum attended the University of Oregon, where she was a popular member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. Garbade is a member of a well-known family, a graduate of the state university and a member of Phi Gamma Delta. He served overseas with the 116th engineers.

Miss Elvera Anderson entertained for Miss Slocum Saturday and Miss Gretchen Robinson was hostess for her Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Johnson from Belvidere, Ill., who have been spending the winter in Portland, gave a complimentary dinner to the low, Dominic Selandra, Margaret Westgate, Marjorie Campbell and others representing Reed college. Fancy dances were directed by Miss Nielson. The tea was one of a series planned for the pleasure of the home residents.

Miss Laura Glover, whose marriage to Mr. A. G. Mink will take place on next Sunday, has been the inspiration of many social affairs this past week, among which was a dinner and shower on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Greer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cahill entertained at dinner on Sunday for Miss Glover and Mr. Mink.

Mrs. George McCaslin was hostess at a beautifully appointed dinner Monday evening in honor of Miss Laura C. Glover, a bride of the coming week.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Ben Franklin council of the American Association for the Recognition of Ireland was organized last Wednesday night at St. Andrew's hall by J. R. Murphy, director of the association. Mr. Murphy spoke on "Why Ireland Should Be Free," and later assisted the council in its first meeting. The officers chosen were: G. E. Sonn, president; Mrs. R. A. Kirk, treasurer; Mrs. Benjamin W. Hill, secretary. The association is non-sectarian and not limited to the Irish alone, but to all who believe in liberty, justice and the pursuit of happiness. Meetings will be held the first and third Wednesday nights of each month at St. Andrew's hall, Ninth and Alberta streets. The 40th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Emery was celebrated recently in Battle Ground, Wash. About 100 friends assembled in the community church to do honor to the event. The affair was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Emery and was enjoyed by friends and neighbors.

The old-fashioned dress dance given by the Kenton club last Wednesday night was well attended by members and friends. Decorations consisted of Scotch broom and ferns displayed. Mrs. E. E. Topping was awarded a prize as the best representative character, costumed as Priscilla. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Trullion were hosts for the evening.

Miss Laura Schulze was hostess at a surprise shower given last Tuesday in her home at 356 East Forty-sixth street in honor of Miss Edith Sandberg, whose wedding will be an event of June. Snowball blossoms made the room attractive for the occasion. The table decorations were especially arranged.

"WITH malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

—ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

This store will be closed Monday, Memorial Day.
