VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

Youthful Utah Golfer Is Northwest Champion.

FINAl MATCH IS WONDERFUL

Waverley Club Player Also Is at His Best.

营业 BEATS HANDICAP

Advantage of 2 Up Is Held by Portland Player at Nasco, but Win Isn't Forgotten.

VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

COMET WILL PERMIT OLD EARTH TO STAY

NEITHER SCANES NOR CLAIMS ARE FEARED BY PROFESSOR.

Life Declared Safe, as Head of Crest Will Be U.S. and Mexico.

PUTTS

Egan, called "Comet," and Von Elm, called "Pacific," met at Nasco yesterday, and a dual match was held.

The two players were the cream of the Northwest field, both having been prominent figures in local and national golfing events.

Egan, at 27, a young man of great promise, had been in the lead in the Portland Open and was the reigning champion of the Oregon Golf Association.

Von Elm, at 36, a seasoned player of international repute, had been the dominant force in the last two Portland Opens.

The match was played in perfect weather, and the course was in fine condition.

The first game was won by Egan on the 18th hole.

The second game was won by Von Elm on the 10th hole.

The third game was won by Von Elm on the 16th hole.

The fourth game was won by Egan on the 22nd hole.

The fifth game was won by Von Elm on the 15th hole.

The sixth game was won by Egan on the 13th hole.

The seventh game was won by Von Elm on the 20th hole.

The match ended in a tie, and a playoff was arranged for the following day.

VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

COMET WILL PERMIT OLD EARTH TO STAY

NEITHER SCANES NOR CLAIMS ARE FEARED BY PROFESSOR.

Life Declared Safe, as Head of Crest Will Be U.S. and Mexico.

PUTTS

Egan, called "Comet," and Von Elm, called "Pacific," met at Nasco yesterday, and a dual match was held.

The two players were the cream of the Northwest field, both having been prominent figures in local and national golfing events.

Egan, at 27, a young man of great promise, had been in the lead in the Portland Open and was the reigning champion of the Oregon Golf Association.

Von Elm, at 36, a seasoned player of international repute, had been the dominant force in the last two Portland Opens.

The match was played in perfect weather, and the course was in fine condition.

The first game was won by Egan on the 18th hole.

The second game was won by Von Elm on the 10th hole.

The third game was won by Von Elm on the 16th hole.

The fourth game was won by Egan on the 22nd hole.

The fifth game was won by Von Elm on the 15th hole.

The sixth game was won by Egan on the 13th hole.

The seventh game was won by Von Elm on the 20th hole.

The match ended in a tie, and a playoff was arranged for the following day.

VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

COMET WILL PERMIT OLD EARTH TO STAY

NEITHER SCANES NOR CLAIMS ARE FEARED BY PROFESSOR.

Life Declared Safe, as Head of Crest Will Be U.S. and Mexico.

PUTTS

Egan, called "Comet," and Von Elm, called "Pacific," met at Nasco yesterday, and a dual match was held.

The two players were the cream of the Northwest field, both having been prominent figures in local and national golfing events.

Egan, at 27, a young man of great promise, had been in the lead in the Portland Open and was the reigning champion of the Oregon Golf Association.

Von Elm, at 36, a seasoned player of international repute, had been the dominant force in the last two Portland Opens.

The match was played in perfect weather, and the course was in fine condition.

The first game was won by Egan on the 18th hole.

The second game was won by Von Elm on the 10th hole.

The third game was won by Von Elm on the 16th hole.

The fourth game was won by Egan on the 22nd hole.

The fifth game was won by Von Elm on the 15th hole.

The sixth game was won by Egan on the 13th hole.

The seventh game was won by Von Elm on the 20th hole.

The match ended in a tie, and a playoff was arranged for the following day.

VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

COMET WILL PERMIT OLD EARTH TO STAY

NEITHER SCANES NOR CLAIMS ARE FEARED BY PROFESSOR.

Life Declared Safe, as Head of Crest Will Be U.S. and Mexico.

PUTTS

Egan, called "Comet," and Von Elm, called "Pacific," met at Nasco yesterday, and a dual match was held.

The two players were the cream of the Northwest field, both having been prominent figures in local and national golfing events.

Egan, at 27, a young man of great promise, had been in the lead in the Portland Open and was the reigning champion of the Oregon Golf Association.

Von Elm, at 36, a seasoned player of international repute, had been the dominant force in the last two Portland Opens.

The match was played in perfect weather, and the course was in fine condition.

The first game was won by Egan on the 18th hole.

The second game was won by Von Elm on the 10th hole.

The third game was won by Von Elm on the 16th hole.

The fourth game was won by Egan on the 22nd hole.

The fifth game was won by Von Elm on the 15th hole.

The sixth game was won by Egan on the 13th hole.

The seventh game was won by Von Elm on the 20th hole.

The match ended in a tie, and a playoff was arranged for the following day.

VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

COMET WILL PERMIT OLD EARTH TO STAY

NEITHER SCANES NOR CLAIMS ARE FEARED BY PROFESSOR.

Life Declared Safe, as Head of Crest Will Be U.S. and Mexico.

PUTTS

Egan, called "Comet," and Von Elm, called "Pacific," met at Nasco yesterday, and a dual match was held.

The two players were the cream of the Northwest field, both having been prominent figures in local and national golfing events.

Egan, at 27, a young man of great promise, had been in the lead in the Portland Open and was the reigning champion of the Oregon Golf Association.

Von Elm, at 36, a seasoned player of international repute, had been the dominant force in the last two Portland Opens.

The match was played in perfect weather, and the course was in fine condition.

The first game was won by Egan on the 18th hole.

The second game was won by Von Elm on the 10th hole.

The third game was won by Von Elm on the 16th hole.

The fourth game was won by Egan on the 22nd hole.

The fifth game was won by Von Elm on the 15th hole.

The sixth game was won by Egan on the 13th hole.

The seventh game was won by Von Elm on the 20th hole.

The match ended in a tie, and a playoff was arranged for the following day.

VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

COMET WILL PERMIT OLD EARTH TO STAY

NEITHER SCANES NOR CLAIMS ARE FEARED BY PROFESSOR.

Life Declared Safe, as Head of Crest Will Be U.S. and Mexico.

PUTTS

Egan, called "Comet," and Von Elm, called "Pacific," met at Nasco yesterday, and a dual match was held.

The two players were the cream of the Northwest field, both having been prominent figures in local and national golfing events.

Egan, at 27, a young man of great promise, had been in the lead in the Portland Open and was the reigning champion of the Oregon Golf Association.

Von Elm, at 36, a seasoned player of international repute, had been the dominant force in the last two Portland Opens.

The match was played in perfect weather, and the course was in fine condition.

The first game was won by Egan on the 18th hole.

The second game was won by Von Elm on the 10th hole.

The third game was won by Von Elm on the 16th hole.

The fourth game was won by Egan on the 22nd hole.

The fifth game was won by Von Elm on the 15th hole.

The sixth game was won by Egan on the 13th hole.

The seventh game was won by Von Elm on the 20th hole.

The match ended in a tie, and a playoff was arranged for the following day.

VON ELM DEFEATS EGAN FOR TITLE

COMET WILL PERMIT OLD EARTH TO STAY

NEITHER SCANES NOR CLAIMS ARE FEARED BY PROFESSOR.

Life Declared Safe, as Head of Crest Will Be U.S. and Mexico.

PUTTS

Egan, called "Comet," and Von Elm, called "Pacific," met at Nasco yesterday, and a dual match was held.

The two players were the cream of the Northwest field, both having been prominent figures in local and national golfing events.

Egan, at 27, a young man of great promise, had been in the lead in the Portland Open and was the reigning champion of the Oregon Golf Association.

Von Elm, at 36, a seasoned player of international repute, had been the dominant force in the last two Portland Opens.

The match was played in perfect weather, and the course was in fine condition.

The first game was won by Egan on the 18th hole.

The second game was won by Von Elm on the 10th hole.

The third game was won by Von Elm on the 16th hole.

The fourth game was won by Egan on the 22nd hole.

The fifth game was won by Von Elm on the 15th hole.

The sixth game was won by Egan on the 13th hole.

The seventh game was won by Von Elm on the 20th hole.

The match ended in a tie, and a playoff was arranged for the following day.