INGRAHAM DEFEATS BETTENS IN SINGLES

Rhode Island Net Star Wins Oregon Championship.

SMASHES ARE BRILLIANT

San Franciscan, Erratic at Start, Receivers and Then Loses Out in Hard Game at Finish.

BY LAWRENCE G. SMYTHE.

Will Ingraham of Oakland, R. I., won the men's singles tennis championship of the state of Oregon when he defeated Phil Bettens of San Francisco in the finals of that event which was held at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. The scores were 6-2, 5-7, 4-2, 4-2.

Ingraham won by a superb uphill struggle. The match, which was one of the most sensational witnessed here in many days, brought out some wonderful tennis on the part of the two competitors. After winning the first set Bettens the next two, the eastern invader displayed a wonderful come-back and won the final two. He was called upon to use every shot in his long list and invariably was able to put across a stroke that would give him a point.

Bettens Works Hard

In his second attempt to win the title Bettens played a fine game and if he could have reached the net in either of the last two sets, the score might have been different. He put up a great battle and forced the New England player to the limit. The pace of the last set was too much for Bettens and after tying the match at 4-4 and 5-6 he faltered.

Ingraham opened the first set with a good service. Bettens was erratic and placed the ball out twice and in the next two, losing the set. Ingraham came to the net in the second game and broke through Phil's serve, making four clean passes.

Outside Corners

Bettens was all over the court in the third game, but could not keep the ball inside. His forehead drive came into prominence in this game, but he kept over-hitting the back line. The fourth game went to deuce three times before Ingraham put over a winner. He then followed up with a clean pass down the sideline. Bettens broke through Ingraham's serve in the next game and won. He also took his own serve, winning the last three points on passes. Both players drove the outside corners of the court and many points were made with this method. The easterner put a stop to this in the seventh game, which he won on Bettens' errors. He won Bettens' serve in the eighth game and the set 5-2.

Bettens Efficient at Net

Bettens came to the net in the second and third sets and here he showed to advantage. He outdrove and out-battered his opponent and by sharp returns of the easterner's lobbs managed to win the two sets.

Ingraham started the second set by winning three games straight. Bettens rallied in the fourth game and by clever placing of his volleys, which he rainbowed over Bettens' head, made the score 3-1. He lost the fifth game through his own error, but settled the second set in the next four games in a row, taking the lead 5-4. Bettens' serve proved to be the easy hand for the New England player. Three passes, one of each of the last two games, coupled with Ingraham's nets, gave the set to the Californian.

Rallies Are Brilliant

Brilliant and prolonged rallies featured the third set. Bettens continued his practice of coming to the net and likewise returned the ball. Time after time Ingraham crept to the center barrier, but Bettens' lobbs rainbowed over his head forcing him to retreat to the back line. Here he was met with a continuous series of high lobbs that he could not smash. Ingraham started the second set by winning two games, the first on Bettens' error and the second on clean passes, which he drove down the line with deadly accuracy. In the next three games Bettens displayed a drive seldom seen here and won by his steady passes which Ingraham could not reach. The New Englander tried at first, but after missing a few, let the net go by. It would have been useless for him to try to reach them, as it would only have tired him. Ingraham tied the count, 3-3, in the sixth game and took the lead by one game in the seventh. Both players fought for the set, and the one who got there invariably won the point. The next two games were split, and then the Californian ran out three straight, taking the set, 7-5.

Ingraham Plays Next Game

Each player took a much-needed rest at the end of the third set. Ingraham evidently saw victory in playing a net game and if so, he was right. In the fourth set he came to the center barrier continually and here he won out. He smashed Bettens' returns of his short lobbs and won more points on this method than any other. Bettens was at a loss to keep up with his opponent and succeeded in winning but two games in the set.

With everything square both players started the fifth and deciding set with the greatest caution. Ingraham took a commanding lead at the start and won three games. He lost the fourth and won the fifth. Bettens came rom back and took by his head he placed his shots on the back line with speed and accuracy. At the end of the eighth game the score stood 4-4. Ingraham won a love game on his serve and Bettens responded his Bettens became erratic in the next game and lost on his errors. In the 12th and final game, after losing the first two points Bettens won two and the score of the game stood 30-30.

Recoveries Are Thrilling

Ingraham made a clean pass down the sideline and the 40-30. With the score point-match, Bettens was up equal to the occasion, and bowed to defeat. Ingraham then he drove the ball out for the final point.

Both players put forth their best efforts and were called upon to make many wonderful shots. Time after time they gave the large gallery a thrill by making seemingly impossible recoveries.

FORMER BEAVER NEW SWAT KING OF AMERICAN LEAGUE

HARRY HEILMANN.

The Detroit American right fielder who played with the Portland Beavers not so many years ago is leading all other players in hitting in the American League this season. Heilmann recently made a record home-run drive of 610 feet. This is considered a record for distance.

HEILMANN GOES ON RAMPAGE WITH BAT

Tiger Outfielder Jumps Into American League Lead.

AVERAGE LIFTED TO .432

Speaker Loses 21 Points, Score Dropping From .415 to .394. Ruth Has Total of .371.

CHICAGO, July 16.—Harry Heilmann, the plugging outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, went on a rampage last week and batted himself into first place in the race for batting honors in the American league with a .432 average. Heilmann, who was champion pilot, who stepped out in front a week ago.

Heilmann boosted his average to .432, compared with .409 a week ago. Speaker lost 21 points, his average dropped from .415 last week to .394, the same figure held by Ty Cobb, the Detroit manager, who has not been in the game the last few weeks because of injury. Tris Speaker of St. Louis is fourth with .375, and Babe Ruth of the Yankees next with .371.

Ruth Lands on Dick Kerr.

Up to this point in the New York-Chicago series, Ruth had been unable to get a home run in Chicago this year. Little Dick Kerr, who set the "home run king" back during the last invasion of the White Sox to New York, pitched the final game in Chicago and fell the victim of Ruth's bat. Chicago was the last of the American league cities to come in on Ruth's winning.

Ruth is far ahead of his last season's record, for homers, having scored 25 circuit drives. He has also scored more runs than any other player in the league, having crossed the plate 83 times. Although he has only 106 hits, he leads the league in total bases with 245.

George Sisler, the St. Louis star, failed to add to his string of stolen bases during the past week, but his 16 thefts continue high. The averages are those of players who have participated in 50 or more games.

Other leading batters:
Severid, St. Louis, .347; Williams, St. Louis, .344; Veach, Detroit, .331; Sisk, St. Louis, .327; E. Collins, Philadelphia, .324; Cuthaw, the first sacker of the Pittsburgh Pirates is making Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star, step lively to retain the lead among the National league batters. Cuthaw, who boosted himself into second place a week ago by steady hitting, has increased his position appreciably, winning.

Hitting Average Is .382.

This week the averages show him hitting .382, compared with .458 a week ago. Hornsby slumped eight points but still retains the lead with .420. Cy Williams of the Phillies boosted himself to third place with an average of .364.

George Kelly, the slugger of the Giants, again leads Irish Meusel of Philadelphia in slugging. Meusel failed to add to his string during the past week while Kelly drove out his 12th home run. Frisch, of New York and Carey of Pittsburgh are having a merry race for the stolen bases honors. Carey is ahead 23 thefts, while Frisch is one behind. Frisch, however, leads the league as a run getter, having crossed the plate 10 times.

Other leading batters:
Grimes, Chicago, .349; Young, New York, .348; Meusel, Philadelphia, .347; McFerry, St. Louis, .332; Mann, St. Louis, .331; Fournier, St. Louis, .346; Maranville, Pittsburgh, .316.

CHICAGO, July 16.—R. E. Knopper of Sioux City, Ia., champion carried National Champion Chick Evans of Chicago to the 34th green today before Evans could annex his sixth title as western amateur golf champion. 3 up and 2 to play, at Westmoreland Country club.
