California, but in March decided to go abroad for a pleasure trip and there met Mr. Well, who was visiting his relatives and whom she had met before at a dinner party in California. The announcement of the engagement and approaching wedding came as a surprise to her friends.

Portland friends of Mrs. Clarence Jacobson and Roy Carruthers are interested in the announcement of their marriage in New York July 7. Mrs. Carruthers has many friends here. She entertained extensively in her home on the Columbia river highway and at Gearhart. Mrs. Carruthers was the widow of the late Clarence Jacobson and she is considered one of the beautiful women of the west. She was, before coming to Portland, a resident of San Francisco. Her maiden name was Dorothy Heyemann. She has just returned from a trip to Europe. Mr. Carruthers was manager of the Palace hotel in San Francisco, then of the Pennsylvania in New York and now is manager of the Waldorf-Astoria.

Miss Stella Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Riggs, will return today from the east and with her as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Riggs will be Mrs. L. M. Stewart of San Francisco.

The home of Senator and Mrs. R. N. Stanfield of 271 Cornell road has been leased by the F. E. Judson and they will take possession on August 1. Mrs. Stanfield plans to visit in Seattle and Pendleton and will stop at the Mallory before going to Washington in September.

Mrs. W. L. Prentiss was hostess Wednesday at a card party for Miss Agnes Hickman of Kansas City, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Glenn. Four tables were arranged for bridge. Mrs. Glenn received the first prize. Miss Hickman the guest honors and Mrs. C. N. Sampson second prize.

Several other social affairs have been planned for Miss Hickman. Mrs. C. C. Colt was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday complimenting Miss Hickman. Mrs. Lawrence McNary was hostess at another charming affair. Mrs. Ernest Willard entertained for Miss Hickman at a bridge luncheon at Alexandra court. Mrs. L. M. Lacey of Knott street will be hostess next Wednesday for Miss Hickman.

An attractive luncheon of last Wednesday was given by Mrs. M. H. Lamond at Columbia Gorge hotel, Hood River.

Friends of Miss Ruth Elliot and Edward Houghton Prentiss are interested in the recent announcement of their engagement. The news was told at a buffet supper given by Mrs. W. G. Elliot Jr. at the Elliot residence on Wednesday night. The bride-elect is a graduate of Reed college. Mr. Prentiss is an orchardist of Clark county, Washington. The wedding will be a late summer event.

Mrs. James N. Dezenford was hostess Thursday at a tea at which she complimented Mrs. Max Wolf of San Francisco, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ludwig Mirach. Several girlhood friends and classmates of the honor guest and hostess were included in the guest list.

Mrs. James A. Lyons of 725 Welder street entertained at luncheon on Thursday for her sister, Miss Euphemia Rochet, a 1921 Stanford university graduate. Covers were laid for ten.

Miss Euphemia Rochet, a 1921 Stanford university graduate, has just returned with her mother, Mrs. Edward I. Karr, who has been motoring through the south for the past two months.

Mrs. Anna Newman of Fresno is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Julius Louison. Mrs. Horace Brown and David L. Newman, sister and brother of Mrs. Louison, were her guests recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vogler had as their guests for the week-end cruise on their yacht Wisdom, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sawyer, Misses Jessie and Park Sawyer, C. W. Barrett of San Francisco, Miss Helen Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Johnston.

Mrs. H. L. Temple was hostess on Thursday at a tea at which she honored her house guest, Miss Dorothy Danner, who is well known, not only as a social favorite, but as a settlement worker in Chicago. Miss Danner has been passing some time in California and is en route to Canada for a visit and sight-seeing trip. Mrs. Temple's home was decorated artistically with cut flowers on Thursday and the tea table was attractively centered with choice blossoms. Mrs. Lyle Fear and Mrs. Estes Sned-cor poured. Mrs. Edward Pape and Mrs. Stewart Moore of Hood River cut loes. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Irma Kiehlty, Miss Grace Kern, Miss Margaret Hawkins, Miss Mabel Korrell and Miss Katherine. In the drawing room were Mrs. Harold Wainson, Mrs. Kirk Reynolds and Mrs. Roland Boscow.

Mrs. Mary Dougherty and her daughter, Miss Louise Dougherty, of Irvington, have returned from a visit of six weeks in southern California, where they were extensively entertained. One of the attractive affairs for the visitors was given by Mrs. R. G. Tutbill in her walnut-shaded garden in Los Angeles.

The entire yard was enclosed with canvas, and 15 tables for bridge and two for whist were arranged under huge beach umbrellas. Jardiniers containing almost every flower that blooms were artistically placed around the grounds.

The dainty refreshments were in close harmony with the garden setting. They were served at the small tables, which were centered with flower pots filled with sweet peas. The ices were served in miniature flower pots, sprinkled with brown chocolate to resemble earth, with a perky little pansy nodding from the center.

The hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss Louise Dougherty, Mesdames Emrys White, John Cloyes and Howard Timmons, and the Misses Alice Strong and Virginia Slabaugh.

Of interest to the college and university circles is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Elline Butler, niece and ward of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Powers of Lebanon, Or., to Harry Castleman Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Parker of Independence, Or., at Spokane, Tuesday, July 12. The bride was a student at Oregon Agricultural college for the past two years and is a member of the Alpha Rho sorority. Mr. Miller is a recent graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and is a member of the Beta Zeta chapter of the Kappa Phi fraternity. Mr. Miller is an overseas veteran, serving three years in France in the medical corps.

Many social functions were given in honor of the bride prior to her departure for Spokane.

A pretty bride of last week was Miss Dorothy Engelhart, whose marriage to David E. Kellogg Jr. of Seattle was held Wednesday. Dr. A. A. Morrison officiated in Trinity chapel. Miss Marjorie Engelhart was maid of honor and Ward Gohn was best man. Ushers were Tom Sinnott and Robert Sheehy. Miss Henrietta Hepper sang a reception at the Fordham apartments followed. The bride was beautiful in white satin with veil and orange blossoms. Her sister wore orchid chiffon combined with pink. After a southern trip the couple will live in Seattle.

Miss Ruth Snyder, a charming visitor from San Francisco, was honor guest on Saturday night at a supper dance given by Miss Mildred Jackson at the Multnomah hotel. Miss Jackson is the fiancée of Stanley Simpson. Their marriage will be an event of August.
