McCREDIE IS READY TO SELL FRANCHISE

Judge Invites Offers From Portland Sportsmen.

FANS WANT NEW BLOOD

Change in Ownership of Club Said to Be Necessary to Revive Old Baseball Spirit.

BY L. H. GREGORY.
What does Mr. Common Fan, who pays the freight, think all Portland as a baseball town and the Beavers as a ball club? And what is his remedy?

Judged from a good many opinions that reached the Oregonian yesterday, Mr. Fan has some fixed and definite ideas about it. Summed up, he wants new blood all around—new blood in the baseball team and, more emphatically yet, new blood in the club ownership.

With six years of second division trailing to spur his tongue, Mr. Fan's remarks are sometimes more pungent than polite. The significant thing about these expressions, though, is not their warmth, but their unanimity of viewpoint. They show better than a column editorial the need of a change in ownership before Portland can hope to revive its old-time baseball spirit, because now the whole atmosphere of fandom is hostile to the McCredies.

"I don't know just whether this hostility is right or wrong, justified or not justified. The point is that it is there. And it is there against them, how would it be possible for the McCredies to make a success of baseball here another year, no matter what they might do?"

But before reading what the fans have to say, pause a moment for this statement made yesterday by Judge McCredie himself. Said the judge: "I appreciate the fact that the city loves a losing ball club, and that the good city of Portland is entitled to a club that will play good ball, a contender than Portland has been for a few years.

"I appreciate the fact that the path of a winning club is paved with roses, not only for the players and owners, but as well for the fans and the city. I don't want to see the city love a losing ball club, and that the good city of Portland is entitled to a club that will play good ball, a contender than Portland has been for a few years.

VALE, HARVARD BEAT OXFORD, CAMBRIDGE

World's Running Broad Jump Record Is Broken.

GOURDIN DOES 25 FEET 3

Harvard Sets Two New Marks, Yale Two and Rivals Make One Each in Meet.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 23.—A new world's record for the running broad jump, 25 feet 3 inches, by E. G. Gourdin of Harvard, developed today in the international track and field meeting which the Yale-Harvard combination won from the Oxford-Cambridge one.

The victory of the American collegians was in all four field events and in four of the six running races. To the new records Harvard athletes contributed two, Yale two and Oxford and Cambridge one each.

Gourdin, a negro, who has been the principal factor in the strength of the Harvard team for the last two years, was the outstanding star. In the first event of the day he won the 100-yard run. It was a hard race, which stood for almost a quarter century. In another event, the 120-yard high hurdles, the record for the games and for Harvard university was equalled.

PARIS GREET GEORGES

DEFEATED FIGHTER GETS WELCOME LIKE HERO'S.

Frenchman Declares Dempsey Is Greatest Boxer of Present Day and May Last 4 or 5 Years.

BOSTON, July 23.—Tennis stars are well scattered through the drawing for the Longwood Bowl singles to be contested on the Longwood Croquet Club courts Monday. On the list are N. W. Niles, Willis E. Davis, R. N. Williams, W. J. Clothier, Zeno Shimidzu, Ichiya Kumagai, C. E. Granger, and James Davies.

College players entered include Wallace Bates and Edmund Levy of the University of California, and Phil Neer of Stanford university, intercollegiate champion.

The Saint Lazare railway station was crowded with his admirers and as Carpenter appeared, paucily surprised by the enthusiasm of his reception and effected almost to tears, he was captured by the surging crowd and borne against his will through the side door of the station and along the Rue Londres.

Meanwhile the crowd which had waited outside the station, not knowing their favorite had made his exit through another than the main door, pushed and jammed about the building for nearly half an hour after his departure, dispersing only when the news spread that Carpenter had come and gone.

That part of the crowd which had gained possession of Carpenter and with shouts of "carry him in triumph," had borne him to the street, swept aside the police line and rushed along the thoroughfares. Several doors and windows in the neighborhood were smashed in by the pressure of the throng.

Police reinforcements finally fought their way to the center of the crowd and as Carpenter appeared, paucily surprised by the enthusiasm of his reception and effected almost to tears, he was captured by the surging crowd and borne against his will through the side door of the station and along the Rue Londres.

About 50 Towns Telegraph Offers to Men to Play Sunday Ball While Case Lasts.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The baseball trial is proving a gold mine for several ex-White Sox players who have been charged with conspiracy to throw the 1919 world series. Nearly 50 towns have telegraphed offers to the men to play Sunday games while the trial is in session. Over this week-end the players defended by the team from Oklahoma to Pennsylvania and from Minnesota to Tennessee for exhibition games.

Eddie Cicotte and Buck Weaver are the only ones not to play. "I'll never throw another ball unless it's in a major league," said Cicotte.

Weaver received an offer of $500 if he could bring Cicotte, Jackson and Risberg to an Oklahoma town for one game. Weaver refused, but the other men were willing to play.

Joe Jackson was sought by half a dozen towns and several points were taken to see Claude Williams hurt a game.

There was no session of court today. Monday the fight over the admission of the Williams, Jackson and Cicotte and grand jury confessions will be resumed.
