

SOCIETY

Miss Harriet White and Miss Clarence White, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Beaver White, visitors from The East.

Mrs. Charles H. Mauerhans and Barbara Jane.

Miss Harriet White and Miss Clarence White, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Beaver White, visitors from The East.

Protective society, and is well known throughout the state for her interest in and work among young girls. She is the daughter of the late Senator William Wirt Pendegast, criminal lawyer and statesman of California. Dr. Leigh is prominent in professional and fraternal circles in California. The wedding will take place in the fall.

Miss Pendegast was the recipient of a shower given by the women members of the board of directors of the Albertina Kerr nursery on Wednesday afternoon in the reception room of the new nursery building. Many bits of dainty lingerie and other gifts were presented to her.

Mrs. E. R. Spots and daughter of Houston, Tex., are visiting Mrs. G. W. Akers of Wistaria drive. On Tuesday Mrs. Percy Allen gave a bridge tea for the visitors. Mrs. Akers entertained for them on Thursday.

The engagement of Elvira Burness Watson and Arch Bidwell Cleveland of Minneapolis was announced Wednesday at a bridge luncheon given by Mrs. William L. Powell for the bride-elect and several friends, including Mrs. James Burness. Mrs.

D. H. Bates, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mrs. H. L. Gibbon, Mrs. Ernest Crichton, Mrs. Owen Davis, Mrs. Victor Strode, Mrs. Dorothy Danner, Mrs. H. L. Temple and Mrs. Frank Burness.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mabel Pett, daughter of Mrs. Theodore Pett, to Earle C. Miller of Portland. The ceremony took place Saturday morning at the First Presbyterian church, Portland, in the presence of the immediate family.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Simpson college, Indianola, Ia., where she was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega fraternity. For the past three years she has been on the faculty of the Cornish school of music, Seattle, Wash., and a member of the Ladies' Musical club and Musical Art society.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Valparaiso college and the Indiana state university. He was formerly identified with the Ellison-White Chautauqua as manager of the Australia and New Zealand territory.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Richard Field, who are visiting Mrs. G. W. Akers of Wistaria drive, are celebrating the birth of a son. He was born July 29, and will be called James Catlin. Mrs. Wolford was Miss Jean Campbell of San Francisco. The baby is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Wolford and great-grandson of Mrs. Charles Catlin of Portland. Mrs. A. D. Campbell of San Francisco is visiting her daughter.

Miss Mildred and Miss Bernice Starks with their mother, Mrs. Charles Starks, are visiting Mrs. E. T. Bemis and Mrs. George F. Baer. Their home is in Billings, Mont., but they have many friends here and are being extensively entertained at luncheons and theater parties.

Mrs. Burt Granning entertained informally at her home last Tuesday with three tables of bridge. Mrs. Granning was assisted by Mrs. J. Roy Kenny and Mrs. Richard Field.

Miss Helen Hammersly entertained a group of girls at her home honoring Miss Dorothy Hann, whose marriage to Rene Roisner will take place this month. Among those calling were the Misses Joyce Ellsworth, Helen Tallmadge, Margaret McGowan, Helen Veach, Nell Freeman, Beryl Richay, Nina Jones, Val Nichols, Helen Woodworth, Jane Carter, Rachel Holloway, Luth Hann and Ruth Davenport.

J. Harold Hart and Miss Dorothy Canfield were married at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hart, 1280 Commercial street, by Rev. Joseph Boyd of Woodlawn Christian church last Sunday evening.

Mr. Hart attended the law school of the University of Oregon and was graduated from Georgetown university in Washington, D. C. He is a member of the Phi Alpha Delta fraternity and is an ex-service man. He is now a member of the law firm of Hart & Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart are spending their honeymoon at the beach after which they will return to Portland to reside in the new home purchased by Mr. Hart on Portland boulevard.

Mrs. L. R. Fairchild was hostess for a dinner last week, honoring Mr. and Mrs. David Halstead of Philadelphia, Pa.

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Viers of Dallas and James Allen Ingalls, son of William Ingalls of Rockport, is announced.

The bride-elect is a former Portland girl. She is a student of the University of Washington and a member of Alpha Chi Omega society. Mr. Ingalls is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Mrs. H. L. Gibbon, wife of Dr. Gibbon of Spokane, is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Bayley, and is being feted. Mrs. Gibbon is accompanied by her little son.

Mrs. D. A. Hamburger and Miss Florence Hamburger are charming visitors from Los Angeles. Mrs. Hamburger is the wife of a prominent business man. Their daughter is a pretty and talented young girl.

Mrs. Roy Marx was hostess on Wednesday at a luncheon at Tuatlatin Country club.

Mrs. Henry Feldman was hostess yesterday at an informal party for a group of young girls.

Members of Alpha Lambda chapter of Alpha Delta Pi spent an enjoyable evening last Thursday at the home of Elaine Cooper. Miss Cooper has just recently returned from Colorado where she attended the convention of the national sorority. One of the features of the evening was her report of the convention. Several out-of-Portland members were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mortimer Bruhn have gone to Eugene for the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson of La Grande were guests at a dinner given during the week by Mrs. Ora C. Baker. Mrs. Richardson is a gifted singer and socially popular. She sang at St. James church last Sunday. Several teas and luncheons were given by local friends.

Mrs. William Akers was hostess on Thursday at a dancing party. The guests motored out the Columbia River highway to the residence of Mrs. Akers' brother and enjoyed a delightful evening.

Mrs. W. Kapus was hostess on Thursday at a party for Miss Agnes Hickman of Kansas City.

Mrs. Robert Louis Barron was hostess at a recent luncheon in the Maltonah hotel honoring Miss Gladys Morrow and Miss Frances Tate, brides-elect. At an attractively appointed table covers were placed for Miss Olive Collier, Miss Gladys Forrester, Mrs. Ralph S. Wittenberg, Mrs. M. H. Lamond, Mrs. Leslie M. Scott, Miss Alice Anderson, Mrs. Paul M. French, the guests of honor and the hostess.

Mrs. F. J. Leonard is recovering from her recent illness. She has a wide circle of friends and has been greatly missed at social gatherings.

Dr. and Mrs. N. F. Spinnery have as their guests, at their home, 620 Albina avenue, Mrs. J. H. Spinnery of Ames, Ia., and Mrs. Harry Regnart of San Jose, Cal.

The Scotch residents of Portland are planning a moonlight dancing party to which they invite their numerous friends. A combined committee from the Portland pipe band, Clan Macleay and the Daughters of Scotia have arranged to charter the dance barge Swan on Tuesday, August 2.

Charles Robertson and Dave Gray represent the pipers who will be remembered from their recent appearances in the Shrine parade, the Decoration day parade and several engagements at local motion picture houses.

Mrs. William Doig, Mrs. Hugh Mac-

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst entertained with a line party at the Drama League plays at the Little theater, Tuesday evening. Their guests were the members of last year's cast of the Laurelhurst club plays, their wives and husbands.

Mrs. George M. Parker Jr., will sail on the Japanese ship Tokuyasu Maru, July 27, for Panama, where her husband, Major Parker, is on duty as executive officer of the 29th infantry brigade, under command of General Rabbitt. Mrs. Parker has been in Portland for the past three months at the bedside of her father, J. L. Cooper of Independence, Or., who died here July 2. Since that time she has been at the family home in Independence, where she will remain until she sails next week. Several years ago Major and Mrs. Parker were stationed at Vancouver barracks with the 1st infantry.

Mrs. John W. Kelly and children have gone to Ft. Stevens, on the Tillamook coast, for the season.

Mrs. Herbert Frank spent the week at Columbia George hotel, Hood River.

Miss Dorothy Brown, who has been the guest of Mrs. Louise Goldsmith, has returned to Seattle.

The engagement of Miss Janet M. Pendegast, prominent social worker of Portland, and Dr. Robert Edward Leigh of San Francisco was announced by Mrs. R. E. Bondurant at a luncheon given by the women members of the board of the Albertina Kerr nursery on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Pendegast is field lecturer for the Pacific Coast Rescue and interesting Clearaway of Mid-Summer Wearables

Consistent with Lennon's policies, all midsummer merchandise is being offered at the most attractive prices while the season is at its very height. This is not a clearaway in the usual sense—for all merchandise offered in this sale is new, wanted and of best quality. Some lots are limited—so early shopping Monday morning is advised.

Women's $8.50 FUTURIST
Crepe de Chine and Pussywillow
UNION SUITS $3.45

They're cool and comfortable as can be, and are enjoying a wide popularity these midsummer days. Soft, smooth pussywillows and fine, heavy quality crepes de chine, in one of the best known brands obtainable. Dainty flesh color. All sizes.

$2.65 Batiste Athletic Suits, $1.45

Suits of cool batiste in flesh color. The popular athletic style that is practical, because it entails no laundry problem of torn lace. Excellent quality at a special price.

Three Unusual Groups of BLOUSES

All of them in the season's most durable styles and colors—odd lines and broken assortments reduced for quick clearaway.

95c
for Blouses Formerly $2.45, $2.95 and $3.95

Many of these are soiled from display, but as they're all tub blouses that doesn't impair their quality. A variety of styles—lace and embroidery trimmed and some with plaid gingham collars. In pure white, stripes and solid colors.

$1.95
for Blouses Formerly $3.95

One is sketched. It is of sheer pink batiste with dainty white frilling for its only trimming. There are voiles, dimities, organdies and lawns; trimmed with lace and crocheted edges.

HAND-MADE BLOUSES at this special price that they regularly $3.45 to $5.00. They have dainty drawwork and hemstitching and embroidered dots.

$3.45
for Blouses That Were Priced $5.95

Popular eponge and cotton crepe blouses; some of them with touches of hand embroidery. The eponges have smart ratine collars in colored tapestry effect. Some have neck frills in contrasting shade. Not many of a kind.

A Sale of 35 JERSEY COATS $4.95

7 were $12.45
20 were 6.85
8 were 5.95

Regulation Tuxedo style jersey coats that have become a necessary part of every woman's wardrobe. Also some knitted coats that are proving so popular. Light and dark shades—healthers, pink, brown, red and some odds and ends of other shades.

Clever Drop-Stitch Tricolette SWEATERS

Very Special $4.85

They're particularly desirable for midsummer days, these tricolette drop-stitch sweaters. Tuxedo models in lovely shades—Nile, honeydew, tan, black and porcelain blue. Especially pretty with light skirts.

$2.25 to $4.95 VESTEES

95c

Crisp, cool organdie vestees; some with touches of hand embroidery, others with organdie frills in contrasting shades and many with colored binding. Also some smart plaid gingham vestees with organdie trimming.

HOSIERY

The usual LENNON QUALITY is assured in all these special-priced hose.

Women's Fiber Silk Hose Special 75c

Brown and gray stockings—the season's favored shades. A remarkably low price for such smart hose.

Women's Pure Silk Hose on Sale at 85c

Pure thread silk stockings with lisle tops, soles and heels. Every pair is perfect. Such wanted shades as African, Russian white and black.

Women's Silk Plaited Hose—Special $1.15

Hose that will give splendid service. In black, white, navy and brown, they're unusual at the price.

Women's Pure Silk Fancy Hose, $1.75

Popular drop-stitch stockings at a very special price. Black, brown and white. Smart with suede Oxfords and straps.

Children's Fancy Half Sox, Three for $1

Regular fly they're 45c—but Monday they're 35c or 3 pairs for $1. With fancy rolled tops in stripes and plaids.

$1.85 to $2.19 GLOVES

$1.45

Here's an unusual midsummer sale of gloves. Odds and ends of 8-button and strap wrist chambray gloves and doettes in alpine and 8-button styles. White, gray, mastic, pongee, beaver, mode and slate. Most of them in large sizes. A special purchase makes the price possible.

The Smartest Midsummer SKIRTS $9.85

3 that were $23.85
2 that were $21.85
4 that were $19.85
9 that were $16.45
2 that were $14.85

Note the reductions—then you'll be prepared for some unusual specials! The skirt sketched is one of the new knitted sports skirts with stripes and blocks in contrasting shade! Clever as can be for sports wear—and the kind of skirts that do not crush.

Light-colored flannels—pinks and blues with white lacings—smart blocks and stripes and checks. Light colors and dark colors—skirts that will serve a score of needs—at a price that will make choosing doubly pleasant. Only one or two of some styles and colors.

Those Dashing Knitted CAPES $7.45

They Have Been $10.85 to $12.85

Smart as can be for sport wear! Dashing, gaily colored capes to flaunt a midsummer breeze! Some are in solid color with contrasting stripes around the bottom. A very effective white cape has black brushed-wool collar and black stripes running around the bottom. A jade green cape with white collar is cool looking as can be. Then there are porcelain blues, brown and other shades. Some are perle to give accordion pleated effect—others are in solid shade. All are smart and greatly reduced! Not a great many of some shades.

PLAN THAT FALL GARMENT NOW!

Glance over the Style Books, pick out the garment that you fancy most, then come in and get our estimate on

EMBROIDERY BEADING—BRAIDING
Dollars Saved Are Dollars Earned

Stephan's
"In the Pittock Block"
Broadway 1099

Beautiful Sets of REED FURNITURE

Made of select round reed, over hickory frames, by expert workmen at unusual prices. See our display of the best reed furniture at 219 Williams avenue. Call East 218 for estimate of repairing and refinishing of your old reed furniture.

Reed Specialty Shop

Lennon's
GLOVES, HOSIERY, UMBRELLAS

A. J. Lennon, President. Chas. F. Berg, Vice-Pres.
309 MORRISON STREET, Postoffice Opposite.