laid for the honor guests, Miss Katherine Hoyt, Miss Lorraine Goodrich, Mrs. E. A. Valentine, Mrs. Vanzel D. C. Beach, Mrs. Henry Goode and Mrs. Menefee.

Miss Julia Morse, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Insler, is another attractive visitor for whom much entertaining is being done. Miss Morse shared honors on Thursday night at a musical evening at which the Insleys presided. Miss Morse sang a group of songs and was accompanied by Miss Constance Piper at the piano. The programme was exceptionally well arranged and the selections presented to advantage the sweet voice of the singer. Flowers in abundance, artistically mingled, adorned the rooms. At the table were Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. Charles F. Swigert and Mrs. W. H. Ayer, who were assisted by Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth and Mrs. Otis Wight.

Miss Mary Peck Thomson of Chicago was honored on this occasion, with the niece of the hosts.

The Misses Clara and Katherine Shennon of Minneapolis, are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Kiehle and are being extensively feted. They were honored by Dr. and Mrs. Kiehle at a dinner dance and were made the inspiration for several luncheons, dinners and motor parties.

Miss Mabel Spiller of Gardner, Ill., is another visitor who is being entertained. She is the guest of the N. U. Carpenters.

Miss Estelle Nissen of Santa Ana, Cal., was honored at a luncheon given by Miss Kate Kelly on Thursday. Covers were laid for 12 at the George Kelly residence.

Miss Nancy Holt was hostess on Thursday at a tea for Mrs. George Allen Lawrence (Elizabeth Peacock). Another visitor is Miss Dorothy Lingman, guest of Miss Dorothy Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Logan. Several teas and luncheons have been planned for the visitor.

Society enjoyed the evening of pantomime, dancing and an exhibition of art work, given last Friday evening at the Portland Art museum. The Rosse summer school students were hosts. At these art school affairs society frequently has been entertained and at times has participated in the dress-up affairs such as the oriental evening given in the winter when all appeared in gay and colorful attire and when Chinese and Japanese and Turkish women, bandits, pirates from Algeria and Chu Chin Chow from China danced and made merry.

San Francisco society enjoys the dress-up affair that always is a Mardi Gras event and not long ago participated in a motion picture that was filmed at Del Monte. Society will be interested in knowing that Lady Duff Cooper of London (Lady Diana Manners) had made arrangements to appear in pictures when she met with an accident and was unable to fill her contract. Mrs. Morgan Belmont of New York and Newport for six weeks reported every day at the studio at Mamaroneck, N. Y., and is one of the players in "Way Down East." Her gowns are creations of Lady Duff Gordon.

Mrs. Fletcher Linn was hostess recently at an attractive tea honoring Miss Fays Steinmetz.

Mrs. Preston W. Smith was hostess Friday at a luncheon honoring the Misses Shenehon of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Ester Snedcor entertained for the same attractive visitors by giving a dinner Thursday. Mrs. Harvey Parker gave a luncheon Tuesday.

Mrs. F. C. Malpas was hostess at an event of social interest, a tea, Tuesday, for Mrs. J. L. Riddell (Ethel Mays) and Mrs. H. Mitchell. The former is a visitor from San Francisco, spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malpas, and the latter is the guest of Mrs. William Macphail.

Mrs. Maylon E. Scott (Stephanie Strain) was honor guest last Thursday at a tea at which Miss Eliza Gill, her cousin, entertained a few friends.

Miss Gill was complimented guest Wednesday at a party given by Mrs. J. C. Robinson. Miss Gill has just returned from New York City, where she did secretarial work. Mrs. Scott is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Strain, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young are the guests of Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Whitmer. They will be at the beach this week, but will return to continue their visit here until about September 1.

Dan P. Smythe and Miss Harriet Korn were married Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the home of Mr.

Waverley Country club, honoring Miss Dorothy Danner, who is the guest of Mrs. H. L. Temple. The table was centered with flowers. The guests were Miss Danner, Mrs. Clayton Sharp, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. Joseph Riech, Miss Madelle Lyon, Mrs. MacAdams, Mrs. Felix Leherwood, Miss Mabel Korell, Mrs. Stewart Moore of Hood River, Mrs. Hamilton Street, Mrs. Earl Thomas, Mrs. Walter Yerlan and Mrs. L. B. Cornell.

Miss Dorothy Carpenter has as her guest Miss Isabel Spiller of Gardner, Ill., who is a cousin of Miss Carpenter and who is socially charming.

A luncheon for Miss Spiller was given during the week by Miss Carpenter.

Mrs. W. A. MacRae is at the Eyrie for the week, while Mr. MacRae was a week-end guest.

Miss Elizabeth Peters went to California recently to meet her fiancé, Edwin Binney Jr., who is a member of the Yale swimming team. The team had exhibition swims at San Francisco and at Del Monte, Monterey, and sailed July 20 for the Hawaiian Islands, where they will stage a meet and on their return to this country the marriage of Miss Peters and Mr. Binney will be solemnized. Mr. Binney is a Yale graduate of the June '21 class. He has the 50-yard dash world record and is a member of the 200-yard relay team.

The wedding will be a home event of August 12.

This August Sale of Blouses promises to surpass even our own expectations. These are blouses of many descriptions, styles and materials. Every preference may be satisfied, and prices, too, are much below usual, quality, of course, considered.

Blouses Formerly to $ 8.95 Now . . . $ 5.50
Blouses Formerly to $11.95 Now . . . $ 7.50
Blouses Formerly to $15.95 Now . . . $10.00

Majority of these blouses are georgettes, a few crepes de chine and pussy willows. Embroidered and lace trimmed. Round and V neck, long and short sleeves. Some will need laundering to restore that fresh new appearance, but the price will well compensate you for this inconvenience.

Many are exclusive, having been made for our special order. In mode, fabric and finish every blouse meets our usual high standard.

AND now comes the month of August when many will declare there is nothing going on in the social world. Yet in the next breath they will tell of a motor trip and picnic supper for some visitor from the east and will say that they are having a few friends in for bridge and tea, and the next day they will have a porch party and a supper at Columbia George hotel and then they'll dash over to the Eyrie for the week end and then motor out the Hood River valley and will come to town for a summer dance and then off they'll motor to Seaside or Gearhart. As so many charming visitors come to Portland in the summertime there never is a really dull season. The formality of winter and the elaborate gowns and appointments of entertaining may be lacking, but the entertainment offered the visitors always is attractive. The flowers that bloom in profusion are used most effectively in decoration, and the sporty, the sheer organdies and the gay blossom-trimmed hats make each garden or home afternoon attractive.

Miss Esperance Ghirardelli of San Francisco is one of the interesting visitors of the week. She came to be with her sister, Mrs. Percy Lee Menefee, for a few days. On Wednesday Miss V'ona Guthrie gave a luncheon for Miss Ghirardelli. Covers were
