STANFORD HOPES HIGH

CARDINALS EXPECT TO DEFEAT OLD RIVALS ON GRID. Nucleus of Great Eleven Left From Last Year's Team—New Stadium to Be Dedicated.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Palo Alto, Cal., July 13.—Stanford is to try this fall to build up a football team which will dedicate the new $200,000 stadium here with a victory over the University of California in the "big game" November 19.

Stanford's new coach, Gene Van Ghen, the new coach, and Jack Patrick, the varsity captain are confident the cardinal has an excellent chance for victory.

Three clubs were entered—Outriggers, Yale and Hui Makihi, the latter having Warren and Pua Kealoa on its team. Not more than a year separated all swimmers to the end of the fifth lap. On the final lap Jeffree swam for Yale. He got away first, then the Hui Makihi man and finally the Duke.

Then, on the night of August 1, in the open-water meet, the Outrigger Canoe club relay team won the 600-yard race through the efforts of Duke.

DUKE KAHANAMOKU IMPROVES WITH AGE

Champion Swimmer for 10 Years Shows Great Form.

GREAT RACES ARE STAGED

Sprinter Enters Relays of Yale-Hawaii Meet and Sets Crowd Wild With Thrills.

BY MIKE JAY. HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 13.—(Special.)—Duke P. Kahanamoku, world champion sprint swimmer, seems to improve with age. His performances in the last few days appear to warrant the statement: A world champion since 1911, he has continued to lead them all for ten years.

On July 29, 30 and August 1 the Yale-Hawaii swimming meet was held here. Duke did not enter any of the open events because he is training to row in the September regatta here. He consented to swim an anchor man on the Outrigger Canoe club team for the meet.

Great Relay Races Staged. As a result Honolulu fans saw two of the greatest relay races ever staged in the islands. The first one took place on the night of July 29 in the University of Hawaii tank. Four teams, Outrigger, Yale, Hui Nalu and Hui Makihi, took part and finished in the order named.

It was a 400-yard relay. The Outriggers took the first lap, but Yale finished leading the second. Hui Makihi finished the third lap first. Then came Yale, Hui Nalu and the Outrigger club. Binney swam the last 50 yards for Yale. Duke swam the last 50 yards for the Outriggers. He was last to take the water. One by one he passed the others, and was even at the 40-yard mark with Yale.

In the last ten yards he sprinted and won for the Outriggers. His unofficial time for the 50 yards was 22.4, which is one-fifth of a second better than his own world record for either tank or open water. The crowd went wild with delight.

Sprint Overcomes Lead. Then, on the night of August 1, in the open-water meet, the Outrigger Canoe club relay team won the 600-yard race through the efforts of Duke.

Three clubs were entered—Outriggers, Yale and Hui Makihi, the latter having Warren and Pua Kealoa on its team. Not more than a year separated all swimmers to the end of the fifth lap. On the final lap Jeffree swam for Yale. He got away first, then the Hui Makihi man and finally the Duke.
