Miss Gaudencia Beckman, Visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Beckman.

Mrs. Arthur E. Paulbrook (Margaret Hyde) Recent Bride.

Miss Leatrice Beckman, Guest of the Beckmans.

Miss Marguerite Royal, Guest of Mrs. Harold Osberg.

Mrs. Philip Twedy, Olive Wilson of Phoenix, Ariz., Guest of Mrs. Wm. Daugherty.

He is also a brother of Mrs. Samuel Blum of Portland.

Following a motor trip to British Columbia the Leopolds will make their home in Seattle, where Mr. Leopold has business interests.

Mrs. William McMurray and her daughter, Agnes, a student at Miss Allen's school, who reside on Clackamas street, are enjoying their tour through western Europe. Miss McMurray met a number of Princeton students on the steamship Camoronia and later attended a ball given by them at the Savoy hotel in London, where there is an orchestra comprised of Princeton men. They arrived in Belfast just after the king had delivered his now famous historic address at the opening of parliament. There Miss McMurray presented Hush Dickson with the gold medal which his rose "Golden Spray" won at the last Rose Festival here and in turn was invited to attend the London rose show by Mr. Dickson, which invitation was accepted. A week in Paris and a tour through Holland, Belgium and France ending with a tour through England and Scotland will complete their journey abroad. They are expected to reach Portland the middle of September.

Miss Thyrta St. Clair, who is one of the bridesmaids for Miss Dorothy Feenaughty, popular bride-elect, was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon yesterday. The guests included Miss Feenaughty, the other bridesmaids, the Misses Jeannette White, Honore Youngson, Muriel Carter, Penelope Gebr, and also Mrs. W. O. Feenaughty and Mrs. W. H. Sinclair.

Miss Cornelia Woodruff, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Woodruff, will leave September 7 for the east. She will attend Bryn Mawr this winter. Miss Woodruff was honor guest at a tea Wednesday afternoon, at which Miss Audrey Jensen was hostess.

A number of interesting Portland folk were members of the recent Mazama outing. Miss Jocelyn Foulkes, who was one of these, found the experience delightful and novel. Miss Foulkes will spend a few days with Mrs. Robert Warrack at Wabana.

The engagement of Miss Frances Tallmadge to Perry H. McAlexander was announced Friday at an informal luncheon for which she was hostess at her home in Irvington. The guests were presented with small cards announcing the news, which came as a complete surprise.

Miss Tallmadge attended Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta and Psi Chi. Epelon honorary musical sorority. Mr. McAlexander is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college and a member of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Prominent Corvallis people who have been in Portland during the past week are Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Colonel and Mrs. J. K. Partello and two children. The Kerrs returned to Corvallis Friday.

nice in marriage. Miss Ethel Wheeler, a sorority sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Miss Scanlon is the daughter of the late Judge E. M. Scanlon and attended Oregon Agricultural college, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Mr. Becker is well known in the building contracting business of this city. Upon their return from their wedding journey they will reside in Portland.

Miss Dorothy Watson of New Orleans, La., the attractive house guest of Miss Gloria Collinson, has been one of the most popular summer visitors. She will enter the University of Washington this fall.

Miss Collinson gave a tea early in the week, honoring her guest, Mrs. A. E. Allen and Mrs. J. Wilbur Hendrickson presided at the tea table and were assisted by the Misses Gladys Collinson, Pauline Dick, Louise Corbin and Helen Tuttle.

Miss Mary Newton entertained her with a small luncheon. The guests included Miss Watson, the Misses Gloria and Gladys Collinson, Louise and Catherine Corbin and Ruth Ingelhart.

Miss Watson shared honors at a tea given by Miss Louise Corbin with Miss Dorothy Danner, the guest of Mrs. Harold L. Temple, and Miss Corbin's guest, Miss Nora Aldwell of Fort Angeles. She was feted again yesterday with Miss Doris Hoefler of Astoria at a smart luncheon given by Miss Catherine Wilcox at the Wilcox home on Corbett street. Covers were laid for 13.

Mrs. F. E. Moore entertained with a large informal tea Friday afternoon honoring Dr. Zudis P. Purdom and Mrs. L. M. Fuller, both of Salt Lake City, and Miss Constance Hyland, bride-elect. The hall was decorated in yellow and white, with daisies and goldenrod artistically arranged. Gladioli in red and cream were used in the lounging room and flowers in pastel shades in the dining room.

Mrs. C. C. Coit, Mrs. A. Tichner and Mrs. George Hyland poured. Those assisting were Mrs. Ira Powers, Mrs. J. Frederick Larson, Mrs. H. W. McClain, Mrs. J. H. Joyce, Dr. Mabel Akin, Miss Helen Haller and Miss Enbna Bracon.

Mrs. Fuller left Friday evening for her home, and Dr. Purdom, who is Mrs. Moore's sister, will remain another week.

Miss Bernice Mathiesen, popular bride-elect, has been feted on several occasions lately. Miss Adele Jones entertained with a charming bridge party early in the week. Miss Margaret Therkelsen will be hostess in her honor at another affair next Tuesday.

Mrs. E. A. Hollinshead and Mrs. E. M. Hollinshead entertained at a tea Thursday afternoon, honoring Miss Laura Hollinshead of Los Angeles, who has been visiting here. The color scheme was pale yellow and white. About 70 guests called. Mrs. F. L. Eddy poured and Mrs. L. D. Roberts assisted the hostesses. Mrs. A. E. Hickman cut the ices.

A silver tea for the benefit of Pacific university is an event scheduled for Wednesday, September 7, which is interesting Portland society. Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith has given her home at 330 Thompson street for the occasion. Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. F. M. Warren, Mrs. Robert Fry Clark of Forest Grove and Mrs. H. G. Platt will pour. Those who will serve are Mrs. Ruth Fortor, Mrs. Charles Newcastle and the Misses Lura Tamiesie, Margaret Keep, Doris Bagley, Lucy Moore, Margery Forbis, Grace Haines, Dorothy Linklater, Elizabeth Harvey and Mildred Burlingham.

Mrs. William George Tucker was hostess on Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Hattie Krausgrill Thomsen, at her home on Lucretia Court. Golden glow and amillax centered the luncheon table, the color scheme being laid in green and yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Wallace Morrin, Mrs. J. R. Mumma, Mrs. R. Dunn, Mrs. Henry Vireock, Mrs. Eddie C. Seed, Mrs. Walter Wolford, Mrs. William Hodecker, Mrs. William Zimmerman, Mrs. Hattie Krausgrill Thomsen and the hostess.

Miss Josephine Thatcher, whose engagement to John Vincent Murphy has been announced, was the inspiration for several affairs during the week. Miss Soloma Clary entertained in her honor at a luncheon Thursday. The guests were the Misses Josephine Thatcher, Elacita Thatcher, Josephine Torrey, Aileen Smith, Virginia Huntington and Florence Gradon.

Mrs. Pearl Lansdon and J. E. Robison were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's brother, Lafayette McCroskie. The maid of honor was Miss Gladys Lansdon, a University of Washington girl who came from Seattle for the ceremony. Archie McLain was best man. The bride wore white satin trimmed with pearls.
