"GETTING GERTIE'S GARTER" IS LAUGH-PRODUCING FARCE

Story Hinges Around Garter Worn by "Gertie" Which Contains Photograph of Former Suitor.

Lydia Lipkowska The Merry Widow in Henry W. Savages' Revival

BY ELIZABETH LONBERGAN.
NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—"Getting Gertie's Garter," which Al Woods is now showing at the Republic theater, is a worthy box-office successor to "Ladies' Night," one of the outstanding hits of the past season. Avery Hopwood and Wilson Cullison are responsible for "Gertie's Garter," which is a fast moving farce of the type productive of many laughs. The story hinges around a garter worn by "Gertie," which contains the photo of a former suitor. The night the house to get the garter, fearing that his wife may find it, while the wife is there conducting a little flirtation of her own. The ensuing complications can be imagined by anyone familiar with farce comedies. Others in the cast are Lorin Baker, Dorothy Mackaye, Donald MacDonald, Ivan Miller, Louis Kimball and Eleanor Dawn.

Madame Lydia Lipkowska, the young Russian prima donna, formerly of the Metropolitan Opera company, and more recently with the Chicago opera, has been engaged by Henry W. Savages for the title role of "The Merry Widow," whose new production will be offered at the Knickerbocker theater on Labor day. This will be Madame Lipkowska's first experience in light opera. She has been in grand opera since her debut, at the age of 15, in "Rigoletto" at the Imperial opera, Petrograd, where she made a sensation and was honored by the czar. The following season the young singer was brought to America by Director Russell of the Boston Opera company, and for the first ten years she has spent much of her time in this country, though she has also filled notable engagements in London, at Covent Garden, in Milan at La Scala, in Paris, at both the Opera Comique and Grand opera house, and in Vienna at the Imperial opera. It was in Vienna, at a charity matinee, that Madame Lipkowska sang "The Merry Widow" and was heard by Franz Lehar, the composer, who pronounced her the only and ideal widow.

"Drifting," William A. Brady's new production for Alice Brady, by John Colton and D. H. Andrews, opened at the Globe theater, Atlantic City on Monday, August 8. The cast included Charles Richman, Florence Auer, Mrs. Marguerite Barry, Herbert Ashton, Clarence Derwent, Margaret Linden, Leward Meeker, Harry Redding, M. J. Rae and William Blaisdell. "Drifting" is a new kind of love story. It has a novel angle. Two derelicts, two bits of driftwood, meet on the sea of life and their love is the motif of the play. Most of the settings are highly colorful, the scenes being laid in China near the Yellow sea.

"The Night Cap" opened at the Thirty-ninth-street theater the week of August 15. The cast includes hard-surfaced every inch.

PEACE PORTAL TO OPEN

Pacific Highway Gate at Border of Canada Will Be Dedicated.
BLAINE, Wash., Aug. 20.—Dedication of a huge "peace portal," built across the Pacific highway where it crosses the boundary line between Canada and the United States here, will take place September 6. The portal was built to commemorate the century or more of peace between Canada and the United States. The dedication will be attended by representatives of the Canadian, French and American governments, as well as by hundreds of residents of British Columbia and the Pacific northwest. The ceremonies also will include dedication of the Pacific highway which leads nearly 2000 miles south from Vancouver, B. C., across Washington, Oregon and California to Tia Juana in Lower California. The Pacific highway will be paved its entire length by 1925, it is expected, making it the first trans-continental road in the nation to be paved.
