

RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Direct Primary Advocates Want Senator Howarth.

OPPOSITION IS ACTIVE

Issue of Next State Election Will Center Upon Nomination Rule With Republicans Split.

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 27.—(Special).—Marking of republican gubernatorial timber is quietly in progress. Some are open aspirants; others are "in the hands of their friends."

George Howarth, senator of Elmore county, a resident of the railroad town of Glenns Ferry, is leading figure. A republican aspirant from that county is strange, for until last election, Glenns Ferry, was a rock-ribbed democratic and has been since earliest days.

Primary Will Be Issue. Now the issue that is going to be before the republican party, much more so than before the democratic, for because of political necessity and what is believed by them to be political advantage, the latter party has embraced it already, is the direct primary.

Senate Defeat Measures. When this bill reached the senate the republican majority succeeded in bringing about its defeat and held ready for the convention system.

Senator Armstrong Urged. Senator Armstrong, of Hiley, who was one of the leaders with the primary wing of the last senate, is being persistently urged by his friends for the governorship.

Close friends of Mr. Hawley declare he will not consider the nomination, but that he has been used extensively in political circles.

SECRETARY HUGHES ADMITS HE CANNOT SPEAK FRENCH

Head of State Department Says He Taught Language When He First Left College, and Can Read It Well Enough.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—Charles Evans Hughes is one of the best men in Mr. Harding's cabinet according to the opinion which circulates around Washington everywhere except in the United States senate.

But learned as Mr. Hughes may be—and he is not one of those to boast about it—there are limitations on the things he knows. He was talking the other day about the forthcoming disarmament conference which is exciting the interest of all Washington.

Someone suggested that perhaps all the proposals would be in English, but Mr. Hughes said he did not think that this would necessarily follow because the conference is held here.

Representative Madden of Illinois, the new chairman of the house appropriations committee, not only intends to talk economy in the house, but he has started out to practice it.

There are many lawyers who find themselves crowded out of the courtrooms because they can't smoke under the court rules and they find they need something to quiet their overworked nerves.

John Ryan went out to see Mr. Johnston at his home in the city, a little while before Mr. Johnston could greet him and he was shown into the art gallery to amuse himself.
