

NEWS OF WORLD

AS SEEN BY CAMERA.

Lord Byng, War Hero, Arrives in Canada.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

LORD BYNG, famous as the hero of Vimy Ridge, in the world war, popularly nicknamed "Biffbang Byng," recently arrived in Quebec, and there succeeded Lord Devonshire as governor-general of Canada.

William J. Burns, head of a widely-known detective agency, was sworn in a few days ago as chief of the government bureau of investigation.

While the date and place of holding the international disarmament conference have not been announced, it is believed that President Harding's original suggestion that the sessions open on armistice day, November 11, will be acceptable and it is also believed the place will be the Pan-American building in Washington.

Dr. C. C. Kloss of the bureau of standards inspects the gold which the United States treasury uses in its mints. He uses a new spectroscopic test which is said to measure the fineness of gold "more accurately than one part in a million."

John W. Worthington of Chicago is named by government investigators as the head and brains of a syndicate which staged huge bond and mail robberies in New York, Chicago and Council Bluffs, Ia.

With a party of ten on board, the 98-foot motor-driven yacht Speejacks has left New York on a proposed 15,000-mile trip around the world. The owner of the vessel is Captain Albert Y. Goswen (insert). The boat is fully equipped with radio telegraph and telephone and other modern conveniences and devices.

A delegation of women from the League of Women Voters called on President Harding to urge that he name a woman member for the disarmament conference. Mrs. Gifford Pinchot stands at the left in the photo, taken at the time, and next to her is Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president of the league.

More than passing interest attached to the recent controversy in Illinois over the question as to whether Governor Small was amenable to arrest. Judge Ernest Smith (large photo on right) ruled that the governor was subject to arrest. In the group, left to right, are Leslie Small, the governor's son; Len Small, governor, and Colonel A. E. English, a step-son of the governor.

Once again visitors to the White House are privileged—some of them—to enjoy the roof garden promenade where there is plenty of shade on hot afternoons.

Burns Becomes Head of Investigation Bureau.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Possible Size For Disarmament Congress.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Little Motor Launch Starts Trip Around World.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Expert Has New Test For Gold.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Alleged Head of Bond Theft Ring.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Women Went Feminine Delegation To Arms Conference.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Judge Holds Governor of Illinois Subject To Arrest.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

White House Has Pretty Roof Garden.

Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.