FILM BEAUTY DIES AFTER LIQUOR PARTY

Virginia Rappe Is Stricken While Arbuckle's Guest.

PROBE IS TO BE MADE

Girl Apparently in Best of Health When on Way to Hotel With Group of Men and Women.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10 .- (Special.)-Virginia Rappe, a beautiful young movie actress of Los Angeles, striken while attending "a party" given by "Fatty" Arbuckle, the moving picture star, at the St. Francis hotel Monday, died at the Wakefield canitarium here Friday.

The girl was apparently in the best of health when she went to the hotel with a group of men and women. She was seized so suddenly that before physicians could be called Miss Rappe physicians could be called Miss Rappe sank into unconsciousness from which she did not recover. Liquor was served at the party, it was charged. Alarmed by the sudden illness of the girl, Arbuckle called on Thomas J. Coleman, general manager of the hotel, for assistance.

Investigation Is Ordered. Miss Rappe was removed to another room and doctors were called. The party had been using intoxicants and it was in part due to that discovery that there was ordered an investigation by the authorities after the case was reported to Coroner Leland.

The management of the hotel requested Arbuckle to leave the hotel, which he did, and he returned to Los Angeles, whence he had come to San Francisco shortly before the occur-rence at the hotel. Thursday Miss Rappe was taken to Wakefield sanitarium where she died Priday. A post-mortem indicated that she had succumbed to peritonitis.

Stomach Analysis Ordered. Deputy Coroner Michael Brown who investigated the case, directed that the stomach be removed and sent to the city chemist for analysis to determine if poison contributed to the death. The tragedy was reported to the police and detectives were de-tailed to make inquiry.

Miss Rappe came to this city a week ago to visit Mrs. B. M. Delmont at another local hotel.

The investigators have worked with the reatigators have worked with the greatest secreey, having in their company a traveling man who claims intimate acquaintance with Stewart and who declares he is positive the exbanker was here on that date; that he called to him and Stewart entered an automobile containing a driver and was driven rapidly away. At that time the traveling man knew nothing of the disappearance of

It is understood that Stewart's estate is being probated in Kelso; also it is understood that Stewart carried $119,000 worth of life insurance. The investigation being conducted here is for the purpose of proving, if possible, that Stewart was alive six days after his disappearance from Kelso.

Fred L. Stewart disappeared from the ferry boat Queen just before the boat docked at Kalama, Wash., March 17. The state bank examiner had closed the Kelso state bank, where Stewart was cashier, at noon that day. Stewart had been in Portland and evidently learned of the bank's clos-ing by telephone. He was seen walk. ing by telephone. He was seen walk-ink aft on the boat as it drew up at Kalama. His baggage was found aboard the craft after the other passengers had gone, but Stewart could not be found. It was presumed that he had committed suicide as a result of worry over the bank's difficulties. He had been 22 years with the institution and was considered one of Kelso's most reliable business mea. He had a wife and a small son.
