THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, SEPTEMBER 11, 1921

due to the untiring efforts of Dr. Richard T. Scholz, president, Reed college will open its 1921-22 academic year tomorrow. Ten new names have added to the Reed teaching staff, which now numbers 31. All are experienced in their respective fields and with the old members of the faculty will create a new era in the history of the college. Three of the ten new faculty mem-bers have been granted full profes-sorships. One of the three is Dr. Edward O. Sisson, who was a member of the Reed faculty in 1911-12 as professor of philosophy. Since leav-ing Portland he became prominent as commissioner of education for the state of idaho and as president of the University of Montana His return University of Montana. His return after an absence of ten years makes possible the reopening of a department of philosophy. A second per-son who was granted a full professor-ship by the Reed board of regents is Dr. Victor L. Chittick of the University of Washington, where he was associated with President Scholz. He secured his doctor of philosophy degree at Columbia university and was also later a member of the fac-ulty of that institution. With the addition of Dr. Chittick, the Reed

English department will be materially strengthened. The third member given a full professorship is Dr. Barry Cerf of the University of Wis-consin. He is a graduate of the University of California and was a student in France and Italy. Dr. Cerl comes to Reed with a wide experi-ence gained from his 12 years' educational service at Wisconsin as professor of comparative literature.
