fred Jerome Sullivan, for Miss Goldie Peterson and Vernon Westler; for Miss Florence Parelus and Verne F. Everett, and for Miss Nell Reidt and Norman Hunter.

Several theater parties are planned for the latter part of the week to greet Blanche Bates and Henry Miller and for the next few days Orythem parties for brides-elect and sorority girls will be afternoon and evening gallees.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy R. Fields entertained at dinner on Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. von Egloffstein gave a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Cobbs last Sunday.

Miss Mary Bell entertained on Wednesday at an informal dinner for Mrs. Henry Russell Talbot. Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey were dinner hosts for Mrs. Talbot on Friday.

Mrs. Simon Benson entertained at luncheon Thursday for Mrs. Eita Bancroft. Present were Mrs. A. E. Butterfield and daughter, Mrs. Young, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Emma Eppinger, Mrs. Berkeley Snow, Mrs. R. H. Wallace and Mrs. Marion Macrae. The party was held at the Columbia Gorge hotel, Hood River.

Another attractive party at the Columbia Gorge was a bridge tea of ten tables, at which Mrs. A. S. Kier was hostess, on Wednesday.

One of the brides of the present week will be Miss Florence Parelus, whose marriage to Verne Everett will take place next Wednesday, in the home of the bride, in Irvington. Fred Rahn of San Francisco will be best man. Mrs. Dolph Phipps of Medford will be matron of honor. Miss Jennie Parelus will be maid of the bride. Kingdon Parelus Palmer ring bearer, and Miss Mary Finagan, bridesmaid. Mrs. Harold Wheeler will sing and Miss Marion Grobel will play the wedding march from "Lohengrin." The decorations are being planned by Mrs. Harry Price Palmer. The bride is a member of Gamma Phi Beta of the University of Oregon and a sister of Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Charles E. Busby of Philadelphia. The bridegroom is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and is well known in business circles. The couple will live in Pullman, Wash.

A notable wedding of the week was that of Miss Margaret Raeder and F. X. Rinehart, solemnized Tuesday evening in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Belle Raeder. Father Thompson of the Church of the Madeleine officiated. Tuesday was a popular day for the length of the court ceremonies took precedence over other society gatherings. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warner, cousins of the bride, were the attendants at the Rinehart-Raeder nuptials. Little Mary Ellen Carpenter was flower girl and Mrs. Homer V. Carpenter played the wedding march. The bride was a picture of queenly beauty in her robe of silver cloth made over a pale pink satin and enveloped in tulle. The skirt was trimmed with panels of rich lace and panne velvet and the train was of velvet. The coronet was of rare rose point lace and the veil fell to the full length of the court train. The bouquet was a shower of roses, lilies of the valley, orchids and gardenias. Mrs. Harold Warner was lovely in pink charmeuse. The rooms were a bower of beauty adorned with choice blossoms. Assisting during the reception hour after the ceremony were several charming maidens and waitresses among whom were Mrs. Homer D. Angell, Mrs. Frederick C. Austin, Mrs. Charles Preston, Mrs. E. Vaughan, Miss Irene Stone, Miss Jeannette Wiggins, Miss Florence, Miss Lavelle Florence and Miss Alma Todd. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart will live in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Henry Clay Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd of Portland, formerly of Pendleton, will be married tomorrow in the latter city. His bride will be Miss Vera Temple, daughter of Mrs. Alvin Slusher. The wedding will be attended by many Portlanders. A large reception will follow the ceremony. Miss Thelma Thompson will be maid of honor. Frank Dickerson will be best man. Evelyn Greenwell, a niece of the bride, will be flower girl.

A smart affair of Wednesday afternoon was the tea given by Mrs. R. Park at her home in Irvington, honoring Miss Laura Taylor of San Francisco, the house guest of Mrs. Donald Hemmingway. Mrs. Edwin Geary and Mrs. Whitney Morden poured. Miss Laura Taylor will enjoy a lengthy visit in Portland before returning to her home.

Mrs. Richard M. Blatchford has arrived from Camp Lewis and is at home at Vancouver barracks. General Blatchford is the new commander of the barracks and he will arrive with the troops in a few days. Colonel William Jordan and Colonel Bradbury and Mrs. Bradbury will be others who will be interesting members of the army-society set this season.

Colonel and Mrs. C. E. Dentler entertained last Sunday for Colonel and Mrs. Whitworth and son. Colonel Whitworth will be stationed in Portland in charge of the organizing of the 96th division.

After passing the summer in this city and at Seaside with her family, Miss Constance Piper left on Thursday for New York to resume musical work. She is an accomplished pianist and accompanist. Miss Piper was honor guest at several informal musical gatherings given during her stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank and two children passed a week at Columbia Gorge hotel. Frank Branch Riley and his mother, Mrs. Riley, have been to Columbia Gorge hotel for a three days' visit.

A bride of Wednesday night was Miss Blanche E. Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Strong, whose marriage to William Marshall Litchfield took place in the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Joshua Stansfield officiated. Charles Litchfield was his brother's attendant. Miss Marjorie Davis was bridesmaid and Mrs. Laura St. John, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with rose point lace and carried a shower of white roses and sweet peas. Her vell was held in place by a coronet. Miss Davis wore organdie and carried Cecil Brunner roses and pink sweet peas. Mrs. St. John's gown was of lavender Canton crepe and she carried lavender orchids. Miss Altemay Kadderly and Miss Gladys Perry wore organdie gowns, the former apricot, and the latter blue and gray. Mrs. Litchfield, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black lace gown and Mrs. Strong wore lavender Canton crepe. More than 100 guests attended. The rooms were decorated in autumn foliage and gladioli of various shades of pink.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the supper room Mrs. Herbert Strong poured. Mrs. Neal Jerrins and Mrs. Judith Wright cut the loaves. During the evening a feature was the singing of Miss Gladys Keeney and the piano solo of Mabel Satt Miller. Sorority sisters of Alpha Chi Omega—Katherine Honey, Mrs. E. R. Cole, Caroline Starker, Frances Roper, Zelma and Vera Colt and Dorothy Yeers—assisted about the rooms. The girls wore various tints of organdie, which material was the basis of all the gowns of the assisting group.

Later in the evening the young
