couple went to Seattle. They will make their home in Pasadena where the bridegroom has built a home which awaits their occupancy. Since the announcement of the engagement many social affairs have been given for the bride.

Flowers and congratulations are finding their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wheeler upon the arrival of a little daughter last Sunday. She will be called Betty Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Binney (Elizabeth Peters) are in Portland as the guests of Mrs. Binney's parents. They will leave soon to make their home in Connecticut.

One of the largest teas of next week for the young girls who will soon be leaving for college will be that for which the members of Nu chapter of Gamma Phi Beta will be hostesses on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Isaac Lee Peterson Jr. (Bertha Masters). About 150 invitations have been issued to the affair, which will be attended also by both active and alumnae members of the sorority. Presiding over the tea table will be Mrs. O. W. Mielke, Mrs. W. T. Masters, Mrs. William N. Layman and Mrs. Lyle G. Fear, assisted by Miss Thelma Hopkins, Miss Catherine Wilcox, Miss Margaret Kern and Miss Dorothy Schmeer.

Tuesday was chosen as the wedding day of Miss Bernice Mathisen and Dr. Thomas Chambers Bailey. The bride was lovely and girlish in a gown of white satin draped in tulle and with a long veil and shower bouquet in orchids, roses and lilies of the valley.

The Misses Margaret and Marion Mathisen were bridesmaids. They wore attire in yellow and coral satin and tulle, respectively, and carried sweetpeas to correspond with the shades of their gowns. Miss Margaret Therkeisen, maid of honor, was gowned in orchid satin and georgette and carried orchid sweetpeas. Dainty Mary Stewart and the flowergirl, Paul Hutchinson, sang pleasingly. Miss Frances Nendel played the wedding march and the accompaniment for Mr. Hutchinson's solo, "All Mine Alone." Following the ceremony there was a reception at which Mrs. Robert Neighbor, Mrs. Edward Murphy and Mrs. W. E. Stewart presided at the table and were assisted by a bevy of attractive girls including the Misses Marlon Bowles, Adele and Louise Jones, Gloria and Gladys Collinson and Margaret Murphy.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey left later for a trip to Alaska. They will make their home in Portland.

The marriage of Miss Mary Eugenia Deming and Samuel Carl Huston was solemnized on Saturday in the Church of Our Father (Catholic). Rev. W. G. Elliot Jr. officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Deming of St. Helena. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta of Oregon. Mr. Huston is the son of the late Senator S. B. Huston and Mrs. Huston. The bridegroom attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He is secretary of the A. J. Winters company of this city. He served overseas and is a member of Multnomah club. The couple will reside in Portland.

An important affair of Saturday night will be the reception to be given by Samuel Bissinger at the Multnomah hotel in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Hutchings (Helen Bissinger), whose marriage in San Francisco was a recent event of interest.

Invitations have been issued this week for the wedding of Miss Helen George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. George, 765 Commercial street, and Mr. Leonard B. Warnicker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Warnicker of Victoria, B. C. The wedding will take place September 21st.

The wedding of Miss Helen Mead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Mead, and Leslie L. Pope took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiating.

The bride was attractive in a wedding gown of white georgette crepe. She wore a wedding veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey left later for a trip to Alaska. They will make their home in Portland.

formed in the music alcove, banked with palms, ferns and a basket of flowers.

About fifty of the intimate friends of the two families were entertained at an informal reception after the ceremony. Mrs. Millard Gee and Miss Helena Cook cut loaves and Mrs. Karl Leabo served at the punch bowl.

The young couple after a brief wedding trip to the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Pope, near Klamath Falls, will be at home after October 1 at the Alice Court.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Moller of Hood River are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their second son, born on September 7. Mrs. Moller was Miss Frances Oberteuffer.

The benefit tea for Pacific university given at the home of Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith on Thompson street Wednesday, proved one of the most enjoyable and successful of pre-college season affairs. Between 200 and 400 matrons and misses, students, graduates and friends of the Forest Grove college called during the afternoon. The Smith home was beautifully decorated with palms, roses and other flowers of the season.

Honoring Miss Blanche Nelson, Miss Frances Sheehy will be hostess tonight at a dinner at the Campbell Hill. Miss Nelson is a gifted soprano and a recent acquisition to Portland's musical colony.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis of La Grande have announced the engagement of their daughter Sarah to Alfred Harding Jr. of Havana, Cuba.

Captain Andrew Hoben has issued invitations for the marriage of his

ANNOUNCING OUR FORMAL fall opening and fashion show Tuesday Evening, September 13

WE invite you and your friends to be with us next Tuesday evening, at our store, for our big formal fall opening and fashion show.

The Eastern's style show will be even more striking this year than it was last fall. Fourteen living models will display the new autumn and winter modes—not alone for women, but for girls, boys and men.

There will be orchestra music throughout the evening and a dainty souvenir for each of our guests.

And we have another surprise for you. At heavy cost we have remodeled the entire store. It is now without doubt one of the most beautiful establishments in the West.

No admission charged. No sales permitted. Come. We assure you of a pleasant evening's entertainment, from 8 until 10 o'clock.

The Five Dollar Waist Shop

---the most unusual group of blouses we've ever shown at $5

And if you've been in and looked at the blouses ordinarily shown here at five dollars you'll realize what splendid blouses you can expect tomorrow. For example:

Fine georgettes, hand beaded and hand embroidered; heavy crepes de chine, with contrasting collars and cuffs hand embroidered; tailored crepes de chine in striped patterns.

Mostly these blouses are one of a kind, and in such exquisite shades. Flesh, peach, apple green, turquoise blue, henna, navy, white. You'll have to see them to appreciate their real value. And we urge you to shop early, because, of course, the most unusual ones will be chosen first.
