

Society

Miss Gladys Barrett
Visiting in
The East.

BUCHHEIM
PHOTO

Mrs. George Richardson
(Dorothy Feenoughty)

BUCHHEIM
PHOTO

Miss Geraldine
Aitken
To Leave
For Honolulu.

BUCHHEIM
PHOTO

Mrs. S.B. Simpson
(Mildred Jackson)

ALLEN-BALL
PHOTO

Miss Madeleine Claire Barrett,
Fiancee of W.L. Brunell.

BUCHHEIM
PHOTO

Wells, house mother, and several of the younger girls entering Oregon Agricultural college this fall were special guests.

Miss Lucia Harriman and Harold Alvord Merriam will be married on Saturday, September 24, at 11 A. M. in St. Mark's church in the city of New York. They will be at home at 115 Washington place, New York, after October 15.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. J. P. Lucas, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Craig Redman, entertained informally Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. C. R. Paddock of Yakima, Wash., niece of Mrs. Lucas. Beautiful flowers in pastel shades were used, and dainty refreshments were served to a large number of guests. Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Paddock have recently returned from an extended vacation at Long Beach, Wash. Mrs. Paddock, with her son Billie, left for Yakima yesterday.

Kenton club elected officers on Wednesday as follows: President, S. Irons; vice-president, A. M. Thompson; secretary-treasurer, Floyd Tooker; directors, F. L. Giles, G. A. Pierson, C. W. Sevier, Gerry Snow, G. W. Groves, J. W. Sevier Jr. and E. E. Topping.

Women of the Elks' club gave a card party Thursday afternoon. Honors in bridge were won by Mrs. I. J. Willis, Mrs. R. L. Osborne and Mrs. A. Agnew. Those having high scores in 500 were Mrs. George Brandenburg, Mrs. O. G. Rudis and Mrs. G. W. Bennett.

The Busy Bee Social club auxiliary of the First Spiritualist church, East Seventh and Hassalo streets, will commence its season's progressive 500 card parties Tuesday, September 13, at 8 o'clock in the assembly hall adjacent to the church.

Mrs. R. C. Guerin was appointed chairman of the entertainment committee for the month of September. The proceeds of the entertainment are for the benefit of the building fund.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. William H. Lytton was celebrated at 11 o'clock at the G. A. R. and dock hall Monday at Newberg.

To the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Brunson, the couple with Mr. and Mrs. Dobbins as attendants were escorted into the hall by the four color bearers and took their places under an arch of fern and golden glow.

Post Commander George Meader read the marriage service. After congratulations by the company assembled, Mrs. Woodruff, president of the Woman's Relief Corps, presented Mr. and Mrs. Lytton with a gold piece.

September Days

AT The Ocean

The Rarest of the Year

The soft days of lingering summer, the refreshing salt air, the dip in the surf, and the evening fire are particularly inviting at this season.

Hotels are open all year, and offer attractive rates now and through the winter.

LOW FARES DAILY

$3 ROUND TRIP

TO Seaside-Gearhart

Return Limit 30 Days.

ONE WAY FARES $1.00 ASTORIA $1.50 SEASIDE

Fares include war tax.
Parlor car seats, tickets and details at:
CONSOLIDATED TICKET OFFICE, 3D AND WASHINGTON.
NORTH BANK STATION, 10TH AND HOYT STS.

Fall Style Display

The Season of
New Clothes

COATS
SUITS
DRESSES
MILLINERY

CLIMBING IN POPULARITY

AND justly so! The steady increase in the number of customers convinces us that "THE BON MARCHE" accomplished what they set out to do—win the favor of the women in Portland.

GUESSWORK ELIMINATED

In buying here you can be sure that our Fall styles are superb—values are remarkable—workmanship, appearance, fabrics, all are a delight to the critical eye. And prices, quality considered, are LOW.

We Present For Our Fall Opening

The New Fall Coats Ranging in price from.....	$19.75 to $145.00
The New Fall Dresses Ranging in price from.....	$19.75 to $ 79.50
The New Fall Suits Ranging in price from.....	$25.00 to $125.00

New Fall Offerings in Our Juvenile Department
THE COATS $5.50 to $17.50
THE HATS $1.95 to $6.95
SPECIAL—KIDS' HATS, ALL STYLES, $1.95

THE NEW FALL MILLINERY

There's a World of Charm in Our Women's Hats

ANY visitor to this store cannot deny the unusual and irresistible charm that attaches itself to our present display of Women's Millinery. All the consummate art of skilled designers has been put into these Hats. Everything that is lovely, everything that is desirable is to be found in the new creations. The opening week of our Fall Revue should attract hundreds of women to our store. We cordially invite you to attend.
$3.50 to $27.50

Theta Delta and Theta Mu chapters of Delta Delta sorority entertained with a smart luncheon Saturday in the rose room of Hotel Benson. The affair was planned in honor of a number of attractive girls who will leave soon to enter either University of Oregon or Oregon Agricultural college. Centering each table were quaint little Japanese gardens, and favors and place cards carried out the same motif. Miss Phyllis Wolfe's vocal numbers—"Sunlight Waltz Song" and "Japanese Lullaby"—added much to the pleasure of the afternoon. Miss Norma Graves was the accompanist.

One of the smart affairs of the Bay City was the wedding of Miss Hermina Lowry of San Francisco and Dr. Adalbert G. Bettman of this city, which was solemnized last week at the Palace hotel in San Francisco, Dr. Martin A. Meyer officiating.

The bride wore a becoming gown of white satin brocade and carried a bouquet of orchids. She was attended by Mrs. Edmund Lowry as matron of honor and Miss Anna Hertzmann as bridesmaid and little Theresa Ann Lowry of Seattle, who made a charming flower girl. Edmund Lowry gave his sister away.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Dr. M. M. Bettman. After the ceremony, which was held in the parlor of the Palace hotel, the guests, numbering a hundred, repaired to the banquet room, where a sumptuous dinner and dancing were enjoyed.

Dr. Bettman, who is the son of Mrs. Goodman Bettman of this city, left with his bride for Feather River, Cal., for their honeymoon. The young couple will reside in this city and will be at home after October 1.

Mrs. O. P. Hoff, wife of the state treasurer, has returned to her home in Salem after a fortnight's visit at Seaside.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae club and a few other girls enjoyed a luncheon on Friday in the home of Miss Florence Knapp. Forty guests were entertained at small tables attractively centered with old-fashioned bouquets.

Gamma Iota sorority entertained with an informal luncheon Wednesday at the Portland hotel. Mrs. Ione Iowa. Mr. Lytton served in company B of the 13th Iowa. He enlisted under Dave Stover at Newton, Ia., in February, 1864, and served to the end of the war.

Miss Cornelia Johnson, at the home of Mrs. S. B. Stevens on Friday, honored a luncheon her sister, Mrs. J. Harris of The Dalles; Miss Alma Bliss, her cousin, and Miss Ruth Mason and Miss Mamie Simms, who attended Oregon Agricultural college last year.

Members of the Kiwanis club en-