COMING EVENTS.

Winslow Meade circle No. 7 of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet tomorrow in room 525 courthouse.

Members are invited to come early, take articles for a light lunch, also needlework, and enjoy a social afternoon. Those who desire to play cards will be afforded the privilege.

The officers of the Daughters of Scotia will give a dance in their hall, Pythian building, on the evening of Friday, September 16. Members and their friends are cordially invited to attend. Punch will be served during the evening.

The women's progressive unit of Laurelhurst club will hold their first meeting Tuesday, September 13, at 2:15 P. M. at the clubhouse. All women members of the club are invited.

The regular Tuesday afternoon card party will hold its first party on Tuesday, September 20, 2 P. M. at the clubhouse.

The Minnesota State society will hold its first meeting of the season Wednesday, September 14. A short business session at 8:15 will be followed by the usual cards, dancing and refreshments.

All members and friends who enjoyed the social activities of last year are urged to attend. Ex-Minnesota people and friends are invited.

Of interest to the members of the Christian club will be the opening party September 19, at 8 P. M. This club was formed for the benefit of the pupils of the Christian dancing school only. In the last 12 years this club has held its parties the first and third Mondays of each month, enjoying dancing in a uniform manner. The coming season will introduce many new dances adopted at the convention and normal school held in New York and also the western division in Salt Lake City where Victor Christensen and Mrs. Christensen attended.

The Daughters of Isabella's social calendar is rapidly being completed. The initial event of the fall season is a card party to be held in Cathedral hall next Tuesday. The object is a get-together social to help defray the remaining debts on the highway cottage.

Sponsors for the party are the Misses Genevieve Ryan, Mazie Murphy, Augusta Pember, Ida Martin, Gladys Rogers, M. McCarrick, Frances Schneiderjohat, Grace Stanton and the Mesdames E. Drennen and Anna Mohl.

The Question Prom will give a dance on Thursday, September 15, at Irvington clubhouse.

Scout Young auxiliary No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans, will give a card party in room 525 courthouse Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Oregon Shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem, No. 1, will give a party on October 4 in Pythian temple. This will be the first of a series of parties for the season.

St. Patrick's parish will entertain their friends with a five hundred party Thursday evening, September 15, at the parish hall, Nineteenth and Savier streets. The hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. Earl Klesendahl, Mrs. T. J. Conannon, Mrs. Walter Adams and Mrs. J. Gray. Prizes will be given and refreshments served. This is the first of a series of parties contemplated for the season. The next party will be the end of September.

Mrs. A. N. Hildebrand will entertain Friendship Auxiliary, Order Eastern Star, at her home, 522 East Forty-eighth street North, next Thursday, September 15, assisting hostesses being Mrs. H. W. Fawk and Mrs. C. W. Simon.

WEDDINGS.

Sarchin-Karol.
Miss Betty Karol was a bride of September 4 when her marriage to Samuel Sarchin of Seattle was solemnized in the rose room of the Benson hotel, Rabbi Jonah B. Wise officiating.

The bride wore white Canton crepe trimmed with pearls. Her veil was held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a shower of roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas. Rose and Matilda Karol in dainty organdie frocks were bridesmaids. Abraham Karol was best man. Gene Epstein played the wedding march. Maxine Seavey was flower girl. Dancing and a supper in the tyrolean room were after-wedding features. The couple after a trip through Canada, will reside in Seattle.

Mulkey-Cline.
Friends of Miss Irma Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cline of this city, will be greatly surprised to learn of her marriage September 7 to W. J. Mulkey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mulkey of Monmouth, Or. The couple became acquainted while Miss Cline was attending the Oregon State Normal school this summer.

Mr. Mulkey is an ex-University of Oregon man and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. After a short trip the couple will make their home in Monmouth, where Mr. Mulkey is in business with his father.

Angus-Pascall.
Miss Ethel Pascall became the bride of Eldridge H. Angus on Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Pascall, the Rev. Charles H. Johnston officiating. A reception was held after the wedding, after which the young couple left to spend their honeymoon on an extended motor trip in southern Oregon. They will be at home in Portland after October 1.

Ryel-Wilder.
A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends was that of Miss Marguerite Wilder to Dr. Clarence C. Ryel, which was solemnized at the home of the bride on Platt street recently. Rev. L. M. Broyles, pastor of the Hyde Park Methodist church, Tampa, Fla., officiated. Miss Wilder is the only daughter

TALENTED GIRL DANCES AT DELTA ZETA TEA.

Florence Paige. One of the attractions at the Delta Zeta tea at the home of Mrs. Simeon Barker yesterday was the dancing of Florence Kathryn Paige, daughter of Mrs. C. F. Paige of Vancouver, Wash. Miss Florence is a clever young girl who has appeared at several society teas and concerts as a solo dancer.

A reception and buffet luncheon followed at the home of the bride's parents. Thirty guests were present. The rooms were decorated with gladioli and ferns. After the honeymoon the couple will be at home in The Dalles, where the bridegroom is an employe of the O.-W. R. & N. company.

Konick-Westerman.
An interesting wedding was that of Miss Sarah Westerman and William Konick of Corvallis, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, of Mr. and Mrs. F. Badger Wilder, and was born and raised in this city. She completed her education at the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee, later taking a special course at Brenan college. Dr. Ryel is a native of Portland.

Canton crepe, trimmed with lilac lace and hand-made flowers and wore with it a hat of gray trimmed with orchid shaded plumes, gloves and shoes to match, and carried a round bouquet of lilacs and orchids.

The couple had no attendants and were married in the presence of only the immediate members of the family and Dr. and Mrs. G. Hudspeth, friends of the bridegroom. Dr. Ryel served as best man at their wedding. Baskets of pink flowers were placed on the porch. The library was decorated in green asparagus, plumosa and vases of pink asters.

In the drawing room where the ceremony was performed, and in the dining room the chandeliers were entwined with plumosa, and vases of sweet peas were placed on the piano mantle and tables. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wilder entertained the bridal party and guests at a Spanish dinner at the Boulevard cafe.

Davis-Hallinan.
Announcement from San Francisco tells of the marriage of Marie St. John Hallinan and Benedict Clement Davis of Portland. The ceremony was solemnized at St. Mary's cathedral. Announcement is made by Mrs. John Hallinan of 1660 Bush street.

Wright-Bedgood.
Among the recent church weddings was that of Miss Jane Charlotte Bedgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bedgood, and Charles B. Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wright, at the Methodist Episcopal church South on September 1. Rev. J. B. Harris officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Rose McCauley, as maid of honor and Albert Stanley was best man.

A reception and buffet luncheon followed at the home of the bride's parents. Thirty guests were present. The rooms were decorated with gladioli and ferns. After the honeymoon the couple will be at home in The Dalles, where the bridegroom is an employe of the O.-W. R. & N. company.

Konick-Westerman.
An interesting wedding was that of Miss Sarah Westerman and William Konick of Corvallis, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, of Mr. and Mrs. F. Badger Wilder, and was born and raised in this city. She completed her education at the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee, later taking a special course at Brenan college. Dr. Ryel is a native of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Se Westerman, last Sunday afternoon. The ceremony was witnessed only by relatives and a few close friends.

Mitchell-Davis.
The marriage of Hettie Orton Davis to Warren R. Mitchell was solemnized last Sunday at Kelso. Rev. Fred Berry officiated. The ceremony took place at their new home among relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mitchell is a native of Washington but has lived the last few years in Portland, where she has a host of friends. Many beautiful gifts were received by the couple.

Miss Eva Nordstrom attended the bride, while Orville Orton was best man.

Burns-Hall.
Miss Ruth Hall daughter of Mrs. Emma L. Hall, was married on Friday at Grace Memorial church to Tom Burns formerly of Wichita, Kan. The bride and bridegroom are at home in Irvington.

Queen Quality SHOES

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. T.G. & CO.

More Comfortable than the Old, and Stylish to the Last Degree!

Because Queen Quality "lasts" fit perfectly, there's comfort in Queen Quality shoes from the first day you wear them.

And there's style in the hand-tailored patterns; there's beauty in every line; there's the requisite lightness, flexibility and shapeliness demanded in each type of shoe.

Truly the Queens of Shoe Quality

'Tis so easy to make your choice wherever Queen Quality shoes are sold, for there's a quality about each style that sets it apart from common shoes; a distinction that your friends will recognize; a fitting ease and grace that are reflected in your walk and dress.

And They Fit Where Others Fail

"Fit" is the great secret of Queen Quality shoemaking. Without it your shoes will become shapeless; they'll wrinkle and pinch and soon wear out. Queen Quality shoes are made and sold "for the right purpose, to the right wearer, in the right fitting, for the right price." They are the shoes for you.
