That he will ever return as a candidate for minister of the congregation to which he has been preaching since August 7, is seriously doubted, a'though he himself told The Oregenian he had made no decision.

That Dr. Hulten had decided not to ride out the storm which broke in White Temple congregation among a minority because of the charge that he at one time stepped from his position as an Oklahoma City paster and sold oil and mining stock, which later proved worthless, became known yesterday when an official of the church admitted that the man to whom a call had been made had refused to remain in the city over today and fill the advertised engagements ing's issue

Too Ill Is Hulten's Reply. "Why, I am too ill to go through with the programme," was his reply. This climate seems to give me rheumatism. I assume that there will be no difficulty in meeting the needs of Sunday's services; they have a supply pastor, you know."

Dr. Hulten referred to Dr. B. B. Sutcliffe, who, it was announced officially following Dr. Hulten's refusal to remain over Sunday, will have charge of the Bible school rally at 10:30 this morning and will preach at tonight's service at 7:45. Dr. Sutcliffe is associated with the Moody Institute work here.

In response to a direct question as to whether he had formulated any written statement as to his intentions or as to his sudden leave-taking, Dr. Hulten replied:

ST. HELENS, Or., Sept. 17 .- (Spe cial.)-While the aggregate fees colected for August business by the ustices of the peace at St. Helens, Rainler and Clatskanie did not equal the amount collected during the month of July, the compensation of the offices is such as to make the Jobs attractive.

For speed cases brought before im, Judge Hazen, of St. Helens, collected $223.40 in fees for himself and this amount was further increased by collections of $21.65 for other cases. Judge Clark, of Rainler, collected $114.40 in fees and his PEACE HELD SOLE OBJECT judicial contemporary, Judge Craft. of Clatskanie, drew down $85.80.

It is not probable that Judge Hase will have a record-breaking fee month in September, for since September 1 not a speeder has been brought before him, although 40 arrests were made in his district on Sunday September 4, and on Labo: day. Since that time Traffic Officer Abbott has flagged 20 or 25 autoists who were coming rally of Bible school students exceeding the speed limit in this and members of the White Temple vicinity, but none interviewed Judge Hazen, for the cases, should the of fenders appear, will be tried before
