

CITY TO ENTERTAIN SHRINE DELEGATION

Imperial Potentate Cuts and Others Coming.

GOOD TIME IS PROMISED

Visitors Will Be Shown City, Columbia Highway and Entertainment by Local Shriners.

Portland will be the host November 21 and 22 to Ernest A. Cuts of Savannah, Ga., Imperial potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and the largest delegation of officials in Shrinism that has visited Portland a visit at one time since the memorable Shrine Imperial council session in 1920.

Potentate Cuts and an official party of ten members of the Imperial divan, augmented by officials of various Shrine temples throughout the country, will arrive for two days in Portland, on a journey which is to take them to San Francisco, where headquarters for the Imperial divan during the next Imperial council session next June will be selected.

Frank S. Grant, illustrious potentate, and William J. Hoffmann, chairman of the special committee selected to arrange for the reception of the visiting Shriners, will go to Seattle to greet the Imperial party and escort its members to the Imperial Hotel.

Californians Also Coming.
Imperial Potentate Cuts' party will reach Portland Monday morning, November 21, at 7:45 and at practically the same time a delegation of Shriners from Islam temple, San Francisco, also will arrive. The southern delegation will include James S. McCandless, better known as "Bunny Jim" McCandless, who next year will be the Imperial potentate of the Shrine. It will also include Ernest A. Cuts, illustrious potentate of Islam temple, George Filmer, general chairman of the San Francisco 1922 Shrine committee, and John D. McGilvray, past potentate of Islam temple.

Upon arrival the visitors will be taken to breakfast by the committee. Headquarters will be established in the Multnomah hotel, where the "royal suite" has been set aside for Potentate Cuts. At noon of that day Mr. Cuts and members of his party will be guests of the members' forum at the Chamber of Commerce, where Mr. Cuts, who is a cotton merchant, will give an address.

On Monday afternoon the entire visiting delegation will be guests of the 1922 exposition committee on a trip over the Columbia highway, with dinner served in the evening at Mrs. Henderson's chalet.

Tour of City Planned.

On Tuesday morning the visiting Shriners will be taken on a trip which will include the Benson Polytechnic high school, terminal No. 4 and several industrial sites. At noon Tuesday the Imperial potentate will make a short talk to the Kiwanis club. Mr. Cuts having been the first president of the Kiwanis club at Savannah, Ga. After this talk he will join other members of the party at a luncheon given in his honor at the Imperial hotel by the divan, past potentate and special committee of Al Kader temple.

Potentate Grant of Al Kader temple and other members of the committee will take Potentate Cuts on a trip to view contemplated sites for the Shriners' crippled children's hospital to be built in Portland.

On Tuesday night a formal dinner will be served at the Multnomah hotel, to which members of the order alone will be admitted. A full-dress parade from the hotel to the public auditorium will follow the dinner, the parade forming in front of the hotel under the direction of Herman von Burstel, illustrious marshal of Al Kader temple.

Entertainment Is Assured.

A meeting at the auditorium will conclude the two days' program. At this meeting entertainment features will be provided by various organizations of Al Kader temple, followed by addresses by Imperial Potentate Cuts and members of his party.

Special invitations are being sent by Frank S. Grant to officials of all temples in the northwest to participate in the two days' festivities that will mark the visit of the Shrine chief-tain. Among those who have been invited are W. H. McNair, potentate of Hillah temple, Ashland, Ore.; Past Imperial Potentate Garretson of Tacoma; Grover C. Nolle, potentate of Affili temple, Tacoma; Charles Lewis, potentate of Nile temple, Seattle; Frank S. McKee, potentate of Glizah temple, Victoria, B. C.; and Charles A. Welch and Steve Jones of Glizah temple, honorary members of the Imperial council.

BIG CAFETERIA IS SOLD

WYOMING MAN BUYS LATEST OF COFFEE CUP CHAIN.

Broadway-Washington Restaurant
of A. H. Johnston Ventures
Will Be Enlarged.

A. H. Johnston, proprietor of the Coffee Cup restaurant, sold yesterday for $25,000 his third and most recent cafeteria at 124 Park street to J. de Renzy of Casper, Wyo. Mr. de Renzy will take charge of the place tomorrow.

Last night Mr. Johnston announced that he had taken leases for 12 years on space adjacent to his place on Washington street, between Sixth and Broadway, which will give him one of the largest eating spaces in Portland. He has leased, in addition to his present first-floor space at 312 Washington, with an entrance on Washington to the basement, and also on Broadway, the first-floor space at 224 Washington and 120-2-4 Broadway. Possession of the space will be given March 1 next. Improvements which will cost $40,000 will take about one month to place.

The stores which will move on account of the new leases will be the Goodyear Raincoat company, at 224 Washington; the Hagel Tailor, 120 Broadway; the Crystal Laundry, 122 Broadway; and a shoe-shining stand at 124 Broadway. Additional space in the basement adjacent to present room also is to be taken.

"When the Coffee Cup gets possession of its new space it will have at Broadway and Washington the largest eating place of its kind in the city," Mr. Johnston said. "There will be space for 500 persons to eat at the same time, both on the first floor and in the basement."

"Among the improvements will be a large kitchen. We will improve our service in every way. I find that Portland is beginning already to show improvement from the fair talk. There are many men already here seeking investment for their money. I have just returned from a trip to California and I am more sure than ever that Portland is the best business city along the entire Pacific coast."

The restaurant sold by Mr. Johnston was opened in June, 1919. The space was first leased for a kitchen and manufacturing room. It grew valuable as a restaurant site and a cafeteria was put in. The kitchen will be transferred now to additional space on the Washington-street side.

STOCKMEN TO GET HELP

WESTERN SENATORS ASSURED
AID WILL BE SPEEDY.

War Finance Corporation Declares
Loans Have Been Made as Rapidly as Possible.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, D. C., November 5.—Officials of the war finance corporation assured a group of western senators who called yesterday to urge relief for western livestock growers when the financial aid may be expected without further delay. The fact was brought out at the conference that the only loan so far made in the northwest is one of $250,000 to the Portland Cattle Loan company.

The senators complained that the machinery of the enlarged financing organization is moving entirely too slowly, and that the aid expected for the western livestock growers when the war finance act was amended has not been forthcoming as rapidly as was expected.

The senators were told that the board has been doing its best to take care of all phases of the agricultural situation in the west, but the demands have come faster than they could be met, not because of lack of funds, but because it was not humanly possible to handle all of the long list of applications, sort them out and determine which should be approved.

Up to this time, it was indicated, the most attention has been given to the grain growers, whose needs a few weeks ago were more desperate than those of the livestock men, and that as a result the crisis in the grain growing industry is rapidly passing, notwithstanding the low prices now being received by the farmers for their wheat.

In the group which called on the war finance corporation were Senators McNary and Stanfield, Oregon; Odell, Nevada; Cameron, Arizona; and Bursum, New Mexico.

PLANS LAID FOR GRANGERS

ARRANGEMENTS FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION COMPLETED.

Bitter Fight Is Expected Over
Suspension of William Bouck as Washington Master.

Although the opening of the 55th annual session of the national grange in Portland is more than a week away, the plans for the convention, as well as for the entertainment of the thousands of members of the organization who will gather here, are completed. The session will continue for 10 days, beginning November 15 and concluding on November 25. Thirty-three states will be represented by 48 delegates and in addition there will be several thousand members who will gather in Portland.

Plans for entertaining the visitors are in the hands of a committee headed by C. E. Spence, Oregon state master, co-operating with the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

One of the features of the Portland session will be the fight which looms over the suspension of William Bouck, state master of the Washington grange by S. J. Lowell, national master. The national grange will be called upon to sustain this suspension, which is the result of a long and bitter fight between the conservative and radical grangers of the state of Washington. Election of national officers will take place and still another feature, in addition to the mass of business that comes before the convention, will be the conferring of degrees upon grangers from all parts of the country.

MAHONEY GETS RECORDS

Newspaper Clippings of Murder
Trial Also Awarded.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—At a hearing before Judge Ronald, attorneys for James E. Mahoney were granted original records and newspaper clippings of the recent murder trial for presentation to the supreme court when Mahoney's appeal is carried to that body in February.

After Louis B. Schwellenbach, Mahoney's lawyer, had admitted Mahoney's financial condition of $100, which he had received for writing the story of his life, Prosecutor Douglas admitted Mahoney was a pauper and therefore entitled to the records.

Douglas was granted a motion to enter affidavits denying the defense had been denied the privilege of subpoenaing witnesses in the sanity investigation.

Don't Read This, Boys! For Fathers Only!

CONFIDENTIAL

DEAR DAD: You know how hard it is these days to make ends meet and you also know how difficult it is to find really GOOD clothes for the boy and yourself at anything like reasonable prices.

Naturally you're not going to buy shoddy goods at any price, nor are you going to stand for inferior tailoring or designing that makes for sleepiness and discomfort.

What you really want to find is a place where you can be SURE that what you are buying is GOOD and where there is LOGICAL reason for the low price. This is THE place.

We insure you the quality with our PERSONALLY WRITTEN guarantee that goes with every garment we sell. We don't just make promises. NOTE THAT, PLEASE!

Our upstairs plan of merchandising accounts for our consistent, day-in and day-out rock-bottom prices, which we can prove to be the greatest clothing values in this city.

First of all, we have an upstairs rent (upon which we save around $50,000 alone every year). Then we cut out all useless expenses, such as extravagant mahogany showcases and such-like fixtures. Next we sell on a strictly cash basis, allowing NOBODY credit, thus saving thousands every year on credit-losses. Our next great economy is effected by our vast volume business which enables us to buy and sell for less ALL the time AND WHILE CLOTHES ARE STILL IN STYLE. Last, but not least, we have no "sales." In other words, we don't "mark up" while the clothes are in fashion at the beginning of the season and then "mark down" when the clothes are shopped and out of date. WE AIM TO TREAT EVERYBODY ALIKE.

These are cold facts that we can show you. Every day we demonstrate their truth with the biggest clothing volume business in the northwest, finding its outlet through three great upstairs stores, all founded upon the idea of selling GOOD clothes for less.

Therefore, friend Dad, as man to man, don't you think it isn't only worth your while from a strictly business point of view to benefit by the Fahey-Brockman Upstairs Plan of Merchandising but that it is also very much worth while to show that splendid youngsters of yours a fine example—to buy GOOD clothes that combine ECONOMY with STYLE?

Yours for the success of Father and Son Week.

FAHEY-BROCKMAN.

Like Father--Like Son

What prouder day is there in a father's life than that which finds him close to his boy's side in mutual confidence, and what happier day is there in a boy's life than that which finds him
