

Society

Mrs. Percy F. Freeman,
Hostess for Assembly Dance
Friday. — BERGER PHOTO.

Miss Leota Day,
Visitor from Victoria
— BERGER PHOTO.

Miss Nadine Caswell, Prominent
Society Maid. — BUSHELL PHOTO.

Mrs. Robert B. Karkeet, Hostess
at Assembly Dance. — BERGER PHOTO.

(Continued from First Page.)

ver, Alter Holman, George Keller, Frederick McKay, Milton Miles, Billy Nero, Raymond Owens, Charles Rice, Charles Randall, Ernest Simons, Almon Spencer, James Swindell, John Shillbarger, Frederick Stillwell, Alfred Van Rault, Gordon van der Werth, George Vahl, Marshall Ames, William Armstrong, Morris Barrows, Donald Bowker, Frederick Crownover, Milton Dean, Joseph Dodd, Thomas Forrest, Kenneth Flynn, Carl Friswold, Leslie Fuller, Frederick Gifford, Frederick Haines, Martin Harrison, William Hunt, George Hammond, Charles Hunter, Milton Jewett, Everett Knapp, Creeds Lombard, Stuart Livermore, Theodore Madden, Stuart Martin, William North, John Owens, George Pedicord, Ford Livermore.

The Professional Woman's league will give a tea Wednesday afternoon from 4 until 6 at the University club to meet Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Browne (Ellen Van Volkenburg) artists of international prominence who have come to Portland to give a two weeks' course of lectures on the drama, poetry and the art of play production. Each member of the league is privileged to invite two guests. The tea table will be presided over by Mrs. E. E. Brodie of Oregon City, Miss Jessie Hodge Millard, Miss Ruth Catlin and Miss Vella Winner.

The Altamont Dancing club gave a party last Saturday at Portland Heights clubhouse. The club meets fortnightly.

Irrington club held a formal dance Friday. The affair was quite a brilliant gathering and was enjoyed by a large number of members. A. J. Stewart is the general social chairman for the club and there is a hostess for each month. Mrs. F. J. McCarthy is hostess for November.

Portland Heights club will hold a formal dance Friday night at the clubhouse on Spring street. Several dinner parties will precede the main event. The social committee includes Mrs. H. D. Angell, Mrs. J. A. Gliven, Mrs. Omar C. Spencer and Mrs. H. J. Stowbridge. The formal parties at the club this year are exceedingly popular.

Mrs. Herbert Newland was hostess on Wednesday at her home in Irvington at a bridge tea. There were four tables of cards.

An event of November 18 will be the Patton home tea. A programme has been planned and tea will be served. Assisting will be Mesdames John Burdard, C. W. King, William Burdard, Roland Lockwood, Larry Cunningham and Ted Ludlum. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Members of the University club are reserving tables for the dinner dance Thanksgiving eve, November 23. Reservations are already being made for the dinner dance New Year's eve.

Misses Margaret and Vida Marshall were hostesses Thursday afternoon at an informal bridge party at Alexandra Court. A series of similar affairs will follow in the near future.

Sixteen guests shared the hospitality of Mrs. Marcus Fieschner at a dinner on Wednesday evening.

Thirty young society matrons and maids enjoyed bridge at the home of Miss Frieda Baruh on Wednesday given in the honor of Mrs. Herbert Sichel. Mrs. Sichel was formerly Miss Feldman.

The Benson hotel will be the scene of the bridge tea held in the hall in Portland on November 28. Playing will start promptly at 2 P. M. and

Mrs. Van Brakle, Entertained at Smart Bridge Tea.
— FUNK PHOTO.

3 P. M. The tournament is nationwide and is for the benefit of the needy little French children. The par-auction bridge tournament is an unusual event in that all parts of the country will participate and all will play the same hands. In Boston at the Vendome, Somerset and Lenox the tournament will be in full force on the same date. In New York, the Plaza, Ritz-Carlton, Astoria and Billmore ballrooms will be thrown open for the same purpose. In the Pacific division Seattle, Spokane, San Francisco, Coronado, Los Angeles, San Diego and Phoenix, Ariz., will hold the tournament in their larger hotels.

DISTINCTIVE

frocks expressive of individuality are exquisitely tailored of Duveltyne, Poirer Twill, Tricotine, Silk Cashmere and other new materials by

NORMAN BROS.

Tailors to Men and Women,
101-106
Mezzanine Floor,
Northwestern Bank Building.

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS NOV. 19

which will tell how each hand should have been played to make the highest possible score. And this will be quite interesting. Society is engaging tables for this event, which will be one of the most attractive affairs of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Babson entertained with a delightful supper dance on Tuesday evening at the Waverly club. Thirty guests enjoyed the affair.

Miss Edith Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Grant of San Francisco, will make her formal debut this winter. She was guest of honor last week at a dinner given by Miss Elizabeth Magee at the Fairmont hotel preceding the formal ball at which Miss Helen de Latour was presented to San Francisco society. The season is one of the most brilliant in the history of the bay city, and the debutantes are being most generously feted.

One of the most attractive parties of the week was given by the assembly at Laurelhurst club Armistice night. In keeping with the holiday, the hall was decorated with many flags, which draped the windows and doorways. Chrysanthemums and palms supplied a colorful background. Supper served after the dancing also carried out the holiday idea. Hosts and hostesses for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rainford, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Healy, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sauter, Mr. and Mrs.

Harold Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. Tait, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Camp, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Allmen, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shively, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brunch, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Neustead, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Force, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Van Cleave, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Harr, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Moore, Dr. and Mrs. William Shae, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tidball, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Karkeet, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maxon, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Briedwell. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Denlon, Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gramm, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maxon, Mr. and Mrs. George Dean, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Will, Mr. and Mrs. James Polhemus, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pock, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGinn and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Aldrich.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Henningsen were hosts at a musical last Tuesday night when more than 100 guests were invited to hear a piano programme played by their daughter, Doris. Miss Doris is a talented and popular member of the younger set. She studied piano with Dent Mowray in New York last winter and also attended Miss Dow's school.

The spacious salons of the Henningsen residence in Scott avenue were beautifully decorated with flowers and autumn foliage. Assisting were Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. Grace Hall, Mrs. J. M. Ambrose and Mrs. J. Benham.

Mrs. Otto Rothchild will be hostess at a luncheon next Wednesday.

The women of St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral are preparing for their annual Christmas sale to be held December 1 in the assembly room of the Portland hotel. Mrs. Robert War-rack is president of the guild of St. Stephen's, whose members are actively engaged in arranging for the sale.

An anticipated event is the annual Christmas and holiday sale to be held in the Portland hotel on December 1 under the auspices of the women of St. Stephen's pro-cathedral. Those having charge of the booths include Mrs. W. F. Sumner, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. H. E. Blossom, Mrs. E. A. Sykes, Mrs. W. A. Montgomery, Mrs. H. B. McCabe, Mrs. Gerald Bishop, Mrs. Carl Benton and Mrs. J. P. Wildman. The "leopard" will be in charge of Mrs. George Haughton and Mrs. J. B. Claghorn.

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Porteous to W. Bailey Upton Jr. of Washington, D. C., in Price, Utah, November 8, has been announced here. Mrs. Upton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Porteous of Irvington, is a popular member of the younger set. She attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Mr. Upton is the son of Mrs. William Bailey Upton of Washington, D. C. He is a civil engineer. He is a graduate of George Washington university and a member of Theta Delta Chi.

Mr. and Mrs. Upton are expected in Portland within a few days for a short visit prior to leaving for their home in Washington, D. C.

On Saturday Miss Grace Bingham entertained with a delightful tea honoring Miss Geraldine Huffman of Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Thomas Autson

MAX

311 Central Bldg.
Main 3408

Leaving City

Offer my entire stock of Imported Dress Patterns, Beaded and Spangled Tunics, Trimmings and Tapestries, at

MOST ATTRACTIVE PRICES

Let's Make It Unanimous—

Today, the Eastern is serving thousands upon thousands of women and men in Portland—but there still remain some who have not yet experienced the satisfaction of trading here at our store.

So that new friends may be added, we have selected for tomorrow's showing a group of our most exclusive coats and dresses. There is the mark of distinctiveness in every one of them—but even so—the price is exceptionally low, quality considered.

Washington
at Tenth St.

Coats and Frocks

$69⁵⁰

Credit—Gladly

Coats of rich Normandy-Bolivia or Bolivia, with huge collars of genuine skunk, wolf or raccoon. Loose or belted models, some trimmed with stitching, others almost plain, depending on their tailored simplicity for that distinctive air. Navy, Sorrento and brown are the colors. A wide range of sizes. $69⁵⁰ Exceptional values at... $69⁵⁰

Millinery $17.50

A new shipment of the better sort of hats has just arrived. As your finished appearance depends so greatly on the proper hat you wear, we urge you to see these clever modes tomorrow.

Silk Fashioned Hose $2.25

That sheer, lustrous appearance so necessary in your hose is "built into" every one of these pure silk thread fashioned hose. Colors of black, white, cordovan and navy. Though our hosiery department is new, we're offering remarkable values.

Eastern Outfitting Co.

"The Grey-Tile Corner"

WEDDING

and Visiting Cards

W. G. SMITH & CO.
311 Morgan Building.

J. K. STERN
LADIES' TAILOR
447 Alder

Special offer in long coats and tailored dresses. Investigate.

M. PATT LADIES' TAILOR
Suite 512-13 Bush & Lane Bldg.
BROADWAY AND ALDER.