A Few Committee Leaders in Elks Bazaar, December 2 and 3.

Mrs. Harry Green, General Chairman, Mrs. Marjorie Goldstein, Fish Pond.

Mrs. W. G. Hogge, in Charge of Apron Booth, Mrs. David Smith, Doll Booth.

 The Elks bazaar was held last Thursday in San Diego, to Mrs. Bradford Coleman of San Diego. Rev. Howard B. Bard of the Unitarian church officiated. Lieutenant and Mrs. Martenstein attended the couple. Captain and Mrs. Fawcett motored to Los Angeles for a wedding trip and are at home at the Hotel del Coronado. Captain Fawcett has been commander of the 15th aero squadron at Rockwell field. He is a member of Coronado and San Diego country clubs and is active in golf tournaments in the south. He formerly lived in Portland. His bride is said to be a beauty and quite young.
 The Thanksgiving ball of the Laurelhurst club will be given Tuesday evening, November 22, at the Corvallis hall. This always is one of the largest and most popular dances of the year.
 "Homecoming" was the gala event of the week-end, and many people motored to Eugene to renew old friendships and to hear again the traditions of old "Oregon." Among the alumnae and ex-students entertained by Delta Delta Delta were: Mrs. Carl Shoemaker, Mrs. Louise Brounagh, Mrs. R. D. McCarty, Mrs. Jacob Risley, Mrs. Donald Stevenson, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Earl Brounagh Jr., Miss Pearl Horner, Miss Dillah McDaniel, Miss Vera Redman, Miss Helens Hughes, Miss Janet Peters and Miss Norma Graves.
 Mrs. Nathan Weinstein was hostess Wednesday at a luncheon and musical at her home in Irvington honoring Miss Henrietta Michaelson. Miss Michaelson is an accomplished and charming pianist.
 Mrs. Victoria DeYornand entertained at a bridge luncheon on Wednesday for the Past Matrons of Corinthian chapter, order of the Eastern Star. The following were present: Mrs. J. B. Thiehoff, Mrs. L. J. Davis, Mrs. R. C. Bell, Mrs. Charles B. Turley, Mrs. W. J. Vincent, Mrs. A. A.
