The Knights of Columbus and Daughters of Isabella will hold a joint bazaar at the Multnomah hotel on the evening of Tuesday and Wednesday, November 22 and 23. The various committees have been working hard and report a great variety of fancy articles, dolls, etc. An opportunity is offered for the selection of Christmas gifts.

The Catholic Women's league will meet Tuesday at 2 P. M. in the Ellera building.

St. David's parish will hold a holiday bazaar on November 30 in the assembly room of the Portland hotel. Features will be linens, dolls, bags, handkerchiefs, home-made rugs, a tea table and delicacies. In the evening dancing will be in order.

The Elks club will be the scene of the bazaar to be given by the women of Elks club on December 2 and 3. Holiday sales are planned by almost every church society and by several other organizations.

At a double wedding ceremony Friday Miss Muriel and Miss Marian Rosegrant, twin sisters, were married in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Rosegrant. Miss Muriel became the bride of Bertram Reed and Miss Marian became the bride of Harold E. Staley. The girls were pretty in their gowns of white satin trimmed with lace. They are pretty and vivacious and made a charming picture at the double ceremony. They were graduated from high school together and graduated from Good Samaritan training school in the same class. Mr. Reed is the son of Superior Judge Reed of San Francisco. He is a graduate of Santa Clara college and attended Stanford university. Mr. Staley is the son of Aaron Staley, a rancher with large holdings in Idaho. Both couples will live in Portland.

In a pretty setting of autumn foliage and chrysanthemums Miss Lorraine Phillips, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Timoney, became the bride of Harold Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson, at a double ceremony.

The woman's association of the First Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly meeting all day Tuesday in room A, third floor of the parish house.

The Book Review Contest

of The Boys' and Girls' Own Book Shop

Thirty prizes were offered by The Boys' and Girls' Own Book Shop for the best reviews of books. The books chosen were those recommended by the Portland Public Library, and listed on special lists distributed by The Boys' and Girls' Own Book Shop.

This contest not only aroused a great deal of interest among the boys and girls, but because of its constructive nature, it appealed to teachers and parents. Over 300 reviews were turned in. Miss Frances Bowman of the Intermediate Department of the Portland Public Library, Mrs. George H. Crawford, chairman of the good literature committee of the Parent-Teachers organization and Mr. James E. Brockway, scout executive, very kindly consented to act as judges.

At the special entertainment given by the Portland Public Library in Library Hall, Saturday night, the judges announced as prize winners the following:

ALICE IN WONDERLAND, Ruth Walters, Chapman School.	ANDERSON'S FAIRY TALES, Kenneth Egan, Lincoln High School.
ARABIAN NIGHTS, Barbara Clarke, St. Helens Hall.	GOLDEN STAIRCASE, Margaret Butler, Hosford School.
AT THE BACK OF THE NORTH WIND, Cecil Elliott, George School.	HIGH BENTON, Russell Baiser, Irvington School.
BIRD BOOK, Margaret Williams, Hawthorne School.	IN THE DAYS OF THE GUILD, Elizabeth Dillon, Woodmere School.
BOY SCOUTS, Dwight Daugherty, Richmond School.	JIM DAVIS, Raymond Miller, Albina High School.
BOYS BOOK OF MOUNTED POLICE, Fred Campbell, Richmond School.	ROOSEVELT'S LETTERS TO HIS CHILDREN, Margaret Boyer, St. Helens Hall.
BOYS' LIFE OF EDISON, Frank Hanes Kanzier, at home.	MERRY ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD, Elizabeth Dillon, Woodmere School.
BRIDGE OF TENDRONS, Joseph Flynn, St. Francis School.	PINOCHIO, Margaret Ormandy, Arleta School.
CHILD'S GARDEN OF VERSES, Margaret Ormandy, Arleta School.	PRINCE AND THE PAUPER, Juliet Rae Forgen, Barrett School.
CORNELL, Jane Hamer Kanzier, at home.	STORY OF A BAD BOY, Nancy Eastham, Hawthorne School.
CURRY HAIRD HEN, Mildred Cline, Hawthorne School.	TWIN SERIES, Mary Thompson, Williams School.
FIRST JUNGLE BOOK, Elizabeth St. Clair, St. Helen Hall.	WEE ANN, Berta Larson, Springdale School.

The prize winning reviews were read by the children and the prizes presented by Mr. James E. Brockway.

The celebration of Children's Book Week is over—but The Boys' and Girls' Own Book Shop will be interested in Good Books for Children every week in the year. The work done in this little shop is of a highly specialized nature, its ideal of service is—

"NOT JUST A BOOK, BUT THE RIGHT BOOK."

We wish to thank the Portland Public Library, the Parent-Teachers organization, the Boy Scout executive and leaders and other child welfare workers, whose efforts have helped so greatly in making the Third Annual Children's Book Week an overwhelming success.
