as guests. Miss Vivian Waller entertained at a luncheon at the Portland on Friday. On Tuesday Miss Dorothy Lyons will be hostess at a luncheon at Rose City Park, with several girls as guests and Miss Blasing as honor guest. For Tuesday night a dinner and theater party will be the event, with Dr. and Mrs. George Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs.

H. Enke. On Wednesday afternoon Miss Adele Jones will be hostess at a bridge-luncheon for Miss Blasing. An attraction for society this week will be the concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra, to be given at the Hotel on Wednesday night. One of the main features will be a concert by Bainbridge Crist of Boston, who frequently has visited here. His mother, Mable Bainbridge Crist, is a resident of Portland. This section has been played with success by the Boston Symphony. Society will have a number of parties and several dinners will be given before the concert.

Mrs. W. H. Eldridge was hostess Friday at a bridge party at which she entertained a coterie of friends. Six tables were arranged for the afternoon's diversion and tea was served at the close of the game. Mrs. Eldridge entertained in her home at Alexandria court.

A formal hall will be given by the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club on Friday night, January 27. Past presidents and their wives will be the guests of honor on this occasion.

Past presidents of the club are A. B. McAlpin, Dr. A. E. Mackay, Edward Cookingham, Herbert E. Judge, R. L. Gillan, Guy G. Willis, William Calk, J. N. Teal, F. A. Nitchy, R. F. Prael, D. J. Moore, W. H. Chapin, G. W. Simons, J. F. Ewing, W. A. Holt, A. M. Ellsworth, F. W. Wilbur, W. W. Banks, C. Henri Labbe.

The reception committee will consist of the president and the members of the board of directors as follows: H. A. Sargent, Dow V. Walker, E. C. Simmons, M. W. Hawkins, Arthur A. Allen, Arthur A. Murphy, N. E. Stone, A. S. Moody, Stacy Hamilton, E. R. Blair, E. P. Stott.

Mrs. Richard Ward Montague has issued cards for a tea for next Tuesday from 3 to 5, when she will entertain for Miss Vere Flynn, who recently returned from the Orient.

Mrs. Herbert Newland entertained last Wednesday at a dinner for a party of ten. A few days previously Mrs. Newland entertained at a luncheon for a coterie of young matrons. Mrs. J. C. Vankers of Seattle was honored guest.

Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Chaney will entertain Wednesday night at a dance at their home at Waverly Heights.

Mrs. Pierre R. Hines entertained Friday for her small daughter Florence.

Mrs. Everett Ames has returned from the east and is at present at the Norton hotel.

Mrs. John Borgard and Mrs. William Burkard entertained during the week for Mrs. J. F. Marston, who is visiting from New York.

One of the charming hostesses of the week was Mrs. Herbert Newland, who entertained at a smart dinner party for Mrs. J. C. Vankers of Seattle.

Mrs. Wilson Johnston entertained Friday afternoon at a tea for a few friends who were asked to meet Mrs. John Gault and Dr. Mary Ferritt of Tacoma. Mrs. Gault came to Portland to meet her son, Major Gault, who is here from Washington, D. C.

Valentine's day, February 14, will be set aside as a date when all who are interested in helping the relief fund of the British Benevolent society will have an opportunity to do so and to attend an entertainment that will be delightful. Groups of society folk are planning to make up parties and attend the dance and card party that the society will give. Rinal Smith hall has been selected as the place for the big party. The hall is large and has an excellent floor and comfortable card room. The price of admission will be small and the affair should be one of the most popular of the year. The British Benevolent society will be the committee of patrons. Miss Madge Mackenzie will be chairman of ar-presented each one with an envelope containing the betrothal cards. Mrs. R. E. Hayward and Mrs. E. B. Wright. Miss Naomi Beckwith and Miss Irene and Miss Helen Johnston assisted about the rooms. Dr. Pederson is a resident of Seattle. He was graduated from North Pacific college in the class of 1917. He is socially and professionally well known in Seattle.

Captain and Mrs. Emil Gabrielson entertained last night at a dinner party on board the Hanna Nelson. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Nordby, Mrs. Coleman Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Metcahan, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bryant and E. Sandt. Wednesday night Mrs. Coleman Wheeler entertained for Captain and Mrs. Gabrielson at the charity ball. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitte, Mr. and Mrs. Nordby, Mr. and Mrs. Metcahan and Mr. and Mrs. Bryant.

Next Friday the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club will give a formal dinner in honor of their past presidents and their wives. The same night the Heights club will entertain at a formal dance. Last Friday the potential's ball was a gay and brilliant affair given by Al Kader temple at the municipal auditorium.

Last night the Tillamook dance at the Multnomah hotel was a bright and attractive affair that claimed a large attendance of the membership and that inspired several dinner parties. Yesterday afternoon the Vassar benefit tea at the home of Donald Spencer was interesting and attractive. The tea given by Mrs. Isaac Vanduy yesterday afternoon honoring Mrs. H. C. Wortman was another affair of social distinction.

Kappa Alpha Theta will hold its 52d anniversary on January 27 at an informal evening in the home of Mrs. H. L. Temple, 748 Halsey street. All Thetas have been invited.

There is quite a gathering of Portland society folks at Del Monte which includes Mrs. and Mrs. Cameron Sauters, Edward W. Carlton, Miss Mildred and Miss M. W. Carlton and Mr. and Mrs. F. Canning Hurley.

Hill Military academy faculty, officers and cadets of the high school and intermediate departments entertained last night with a dance in the school armory. Patronesses were Mrs. R. B. Caswell, Mrs. Guy Wallace, Mrs. W. C. Knighton, Mrs. Earl Fiegel, Mrs. John Riemann, Miss E. E. Peterson and a few others.

Following were the young girls on invitational list: Laverna Gaffes, Camilla Burton, Elise Bristol, Harriet Freeman, Eleanor Adair, Anne Adams, Vivian Boase, Kathleen Brown, Laura Brooks, Helen Baker, Anabelle Bates, Marion Burke, Rhoda Barnes, Jeannette Carter, Frances Cornell, Elizabeth Donald, Dorothy Dunn, Dorothy E.

rangements. The patronesses will be: Mrs. F. C. Malpas, chairman; Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Keel, Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor and Mrs. James Laidlaw. Severance will be in charge of some of the plans. The British Benevolent society recently held the annual meeting and its reports showed a vast amount of relief work done among the needy families of former residents of Great Britain. The society is an old and well-established one, with a goodly amount of worthwhile work to its credit.

A recent hostess at dinner was Mrs. Ellis W. Lasell, who entertained at the Maltory hotel for ten guests. Several dinners are planned for tonight to precede the recital to be given in the Maltory's lobby by Gertrude Hoehner, violinist, and Ella Connell Jesse, her accompanist.

Miss Lois Janet Martin and Donald C. Cowan were married Saturday night, January 14, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Martin, the Rev. Walter Henry Nugent officiating. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Marian Bennett Duva sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Agnes Martin, sister of the bride, played the wedding march from Lohengrin. Little Virginia Hersey, niece of the bride, and Shirley Cook, niece of the bridegroom, were dainty flower girls and Master Charles Coates was ring-bearer. The bride was lovely in gown of white taffeta, trimmed with silver ribbon. She carried a colonial bouquet of Ophelia roses, lilies of the valley and other small flowers. Her attendant was Miss Eudora Cowan, who was attractive in a frock of blue and silver taffeta. Willard Hooker was best man. About 75 friends were present, including a number of out-of-town guests from the former home of the bride's family. Mr. Cowan and Mrs. Ira T. Martin were guests from California. Assisting in the dining room after the ceremony were Mrs. James H. Coate, Mrs. Carl V. Hersey, Mrs. Kenneth G. Martin, Misses Vivian Hargrove, Eva Jane Tucker and Lucille Coates.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan left Saturday night for a trip to the sound cities of the Pacific. They will be at home to their friends after February 1 at 29 East Seventeenth street North.

At an attractive tea last Sunday Mrs. Gieseker, who entertained at the Wickersham apartments, announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marie Johnston, to Dr. J. E. Pederson of Seattle. The bride-elect was an Oregon Agricultural college student and a member of Chi Omega sorority. She has traveled extensively and is popular here and in Los Angeles, where she has lived for the past two years. The family will pass the winter here and the marriage probably will be an event of the spring.

For the announcement tea, the rooms were decorated in pink and white and the table was centered with white flowers and maiden hair ferns. Baskets of flowers adorned the room. Little Peggy Hayward, in white net and pink bows, met the guests and

OLD-TIME COLD CURE-DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Brest Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoon of this Hamburg tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoonful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Adv.

Mrs. N. K. Clark of Union is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Dalquist. Mrs. Allan Hopkins has returned to Salem after a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Broughton. Miss Lenore Blasing was guest of
