

Society

Miss Frances McGill.

Mrs. Maurice Robert Math (Lenore Blasing).

Mrs. Richard Ransom.

Miss Elizabeth Wiggins.

Miss Helen Houghton.

UNDER THE happiest of circumstances the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chaney was dedicated to good fortune, happiness and hospitality when Mr. and Mrs. Chaney entertained Thursday night at a smart, formal dinner. The residence formerly was the home of Sherman Hall, at Waverly heights, not far from Ardour, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster. The entrance hall was decorated in creeping ivy which was draped and entwined up the staircase and arched over the doorway. From the ceiling and beams overhead hung baskets filled with spring flowers in the varied shades and colors of the season. In the rooms where dancing was enjoyed the hanging baskets were used with artistic effect. The house is of the Italian type of architecture and lends its self admirably to the decorator's art. A supper was served late in the evening and in the dining room spring blossoms predominated.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaney are ideal hosts and entertain delightfully. Among those who were on the invitation list for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hawley Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick L. Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton D. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andre, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Spikes, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rupp, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Dr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swigert, Mr. and Mrs. Holt Cookingham, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Eskine Wood, Mr. and Mrs. David Henselman, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkham Smith, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green Reed, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Devereaux, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Erik P. Whitner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Minott, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Zan, Mr. and Mrs. John Letta, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney VanWyck Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Lister, Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mrs. Dolly Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. Josephine Andrews, Mrs. M. B. Scarborough, Mrs. Angela Murphy, Mrs. Margaret Burrill Biddle, Messrs. Prescott Cookingham, Ned Shevlin, Oskar Huber, Beverly Clark, Al Clark, Ella Braun, Lester Hodson, Wendell Kuhn, Charles Holbrook, H. H. Holland, Dr. Huntington, Chester Murphy, John Watzek, Aubrey Watzek, C. M. Niall, Ted Shindler, James Boardy, Burr Whitmer, Douglas Craik, Jennings Sutor, W. F. Stevens and Frank Kennedy of San Francisco. A few of these were out of town, but all others attended and shared in the happy festivity that had been planned by Mr. and Mrs. Chaney.

Mrs. James McIndoe was hostess on Friday at a smart tea for Mrs. Henry T. Mayo, wife of Admiral Mayo, and Mrs. George Mayo, wife of Major Mayo, U. S. A. About 100 maidens and matrons were included on the guest list. Major and Mrs. Mayo recently took the Dolphin residence on Madison street. For several months they resided at the residence of Colonel J. B. Cavanaugh, brother of Mrs. McIndoe. When the latter returned from the Orient recently she was cordially welcomed by her many friends. The tea of Friday was given as a compliment to Mrs. Mayo and her daughter-in-law and to give them an opportunity to greet many of Mrs. McIndoe's interesting friends. The rooms were artistically decorated in daffodils and other gay blossoms of the early springtime, heralds rather of the spring days yet to come.

Assisting in the drawing room were Mrs. Ralph Hoyt, Mrs. A. P. Matthews, Mrs. Everett Ames, Mrs. Otis B. Wright, Mrs. Alma D. Katz, Miss Shearman and Mrs. Richard Park. In the dining room Mrs. Solomon Hirsch and Mrs. James Laidlaw presided at the tea table, and assisting about the room were the Misses Mary Louise Wright, Louise Hoyt, Frances Matthews and Hannah Laidlaw.

Mrs. R. W. Montague was hostess Tuesday at a tea for Miss Vere Flynn, Mrs. S. S. Montague and Mrs. A. N. Ellsworth presided at the table.

The officers at Vancouver barracks entertained Friday with a dance in the post gymnasium. Several society folk from Portland attended.

Society is anticipating the seasons of grand opera this year. The first, the appearance of the San Carlo company, will be opened February 13 at the auditorium. March 22 the Chicago Grand Opera company will be here. Last Wednesday an appreciative audience greeted the Portland Symphony orchestra at the Hotel and repeatedly encored Harold Bauer, pianist. February 3 there will be the concert by Olga Steeb, Edna Thomas and Sascha Jacobinoff.

The committee of one hundred of the Portland Chamber of Commerce will hold a formal dinner dance Friday, February 3, in the green room of the Oregon building. There is to be an excellent programme in addition to the dinner and the dancing. Several prominent matrons will serve as patronesses for the occasion.

About 30 members of the Waverley Country club attended the annual meeting last week.

Saturday marks the opening of the polo season at Del Monte and many Portland devotees are traveling south to view the matches. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Corbett and Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Spikes are among Portland society folk in Del Monte.

Miss Dorothy Lyons was a hostess of last Tuesday. When she entertained at luncheon for Miss Lenore Blasing, covers were placed for the bride, Miss Blasing (now Mrs. Maurice Robert Math), Mrs. Richard Ransom, Miss Dorothy Dunn, Mrs. John M. Bruhn, Miss Helen Houghton, Mrs. E. L. Kline, Miss Ruth Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Wiggins, Miss Jeanette Wiggins, Miss Gladys Collinson and the hostess.

Society sent dainty gifts and flowers to greet the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Minott who arrived last Saturday. The baby is the grandson of Mrs. A. M. Minott and of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Baird. The young parents are members of old and prominent families. The Bairds are from Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Mason left Tuesday for a visit of several weeks in the east. They will spend much of the time in Washington, D. C., and will visit in New York, Boston and other cities.

For Mrs. Lynde Harrison, who left for California recently, a bride's afternoon was planned by the Misses Marshall, who were assisted by Mrs. Henry McCracken and other residents at Alexandra Court. Many of the interesting social affairs of the past few weeks have been informal card parties given by different groups at Alexandra Court.

One of the brides of the season was Miss Lenore Blasing, whose marriage to Maurice Robert took place last night in Westminster Presbyterian church. Rev. E. H. Pence officiating. Preceding the ceremony Miss Genevieve Clancy, a sorority sister of the bride, sang "Because" and "At Dawn." Little Nancy Lou Cutler, flower girl, was attired in a French dress of white ruffled net over pale pink tulle and carried a basket of Cecil Brunner roses and fuchsias.

The bride was given away by her father, H. J. Blasing. She was attired in a gown of point de Paris lace over ivory chiffon and satin with pearl trimming, fashioned on straight lines with a long train of cloth of silver and a tall veil fashioned with a coronet of rare point de Paris and Brussels lace, which the bride showered in Paris. She carried a posy of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Wiggins, wore a gown of pale pink and silver changeable tulle trimmed with silver ribbon and carried a large old-fashioned bouquet.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Ransom, wore a gown of apricot changeable tulle trimmed with silver ribbon and carried a bouquet of white peonies.

The bridesmaids were Misses Frances Gill, in a gown of changeable pale green and silver tulle trimmed with silk lace and silver ribbons; Miss Edna Pence, in a gown of changeable tulle and silver tulle trimmed with silk lace and silver ribbons; Miss Helen Houghton, in a gown of yellow and silver changeable tulle trimmed with silk lace and silver ribbons. They all wore silver wreaths in their hair and carried baskets of Ophelia roses and narcissus.

Herman J. Blasing Jr. was best man. The attendants are sorority sisters of the bride. The ushers were Robert McNary, William Bolger, Richard Norman Ransom and Robert Krohn. The church was decorated in palms, Easter lilies, calla lilies and white chrysanthemums.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mann. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blasing were in the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom. The living room was decorated in palms, tulips and hyacinths, and the dining room in daffodils and other yellow spring flowers. Assisting in the living room were Mrs. George E. Sullivan, Mrs. William Umbdenstock, Mrs. William Cutler, Mrs. Carl Klobe, Mrs. N. H. Carpenter, Miss Alma Cook and Mrs. Trena Hurd. In the dining room presiding at the table were Mrs. Charles Glafke, Mrs. Fred A. Cook, Mrs. William Fiebig and Mrs. Fred Weber, and assisting were Miss Margaret Johnston, Miss Mary Gill, Miss Genevieve Stebbins, Miss Miriam Holcomb, Miss Vivian Waller and Miss Adele Jones.

Mrs. Blasing wore a gown of electric blue sequins over black satin, and Mrs. Mann wore a gown of crystal beaded tulle over silver cloth with a skirt of Lucile blue chiffon. The bride's going-away outfit was a Harry Collins dress of gray pique with seal and marten and a French hat of flowers. The wedding trip is to be to British Columbia and the sound cities. After March 15 the couple will be at home to their friends at the new home which they have just built in Laurelhurst at 1075 Wasco street.

Mrs. Isaac Vandusen was hostess at a tea for Mrs. H. C. Wortman, who gave a brief talk. Miss Marguerite Templeton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Templeton, gave selections from modern composers and explained each selection. Miss Templeton has studied in New York and abroad. For the occasion the drawing room was decorated in roses. Miss Henrietta E. Failing and Mrs. David S. Pattullo out the tea and Mrs. Edwin Searns and Mrs. Arthur C. Emmons presided at the tea table. Assisting in the rooms were Mrs. Jay R. Smith, Mrs. Loring K. Adams, Mrs. J. C. Coleman, Mrs. Charles Edwin Searns, Mrs. P. H. Stewart and Mrs. G. H. Marsh. About 75 guests called during the afternoon.

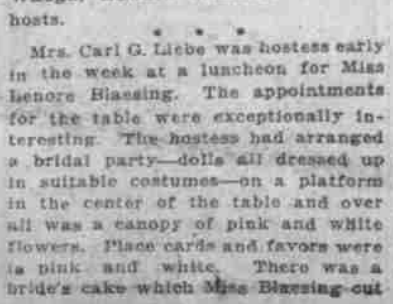

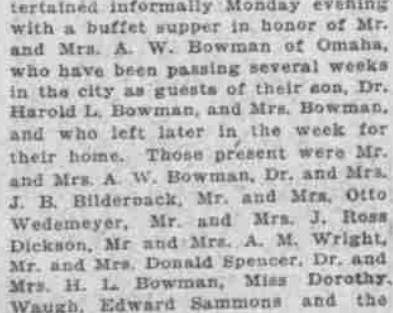

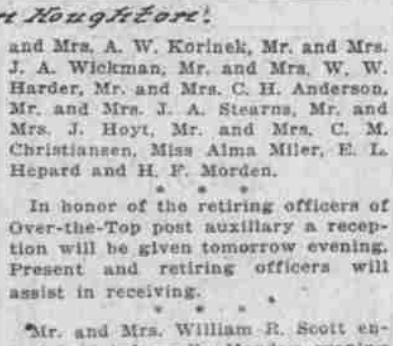

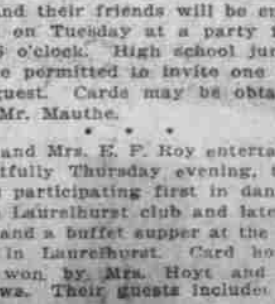

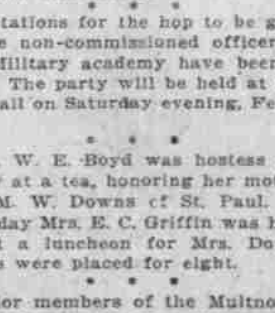

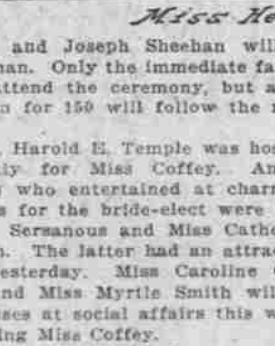

The wedding of Miss Marion Adele Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Coffey, will be solemnized on February 4, when she will become the bride of Warren Edwards of Eugene. Miss Vallaire Coffey will be maid of honor.

The wedding of Miss Marion Adele Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Coffey, will be solemnized on February 4, when she will become the bride of Warren Edwards of Eugene. Miss Vallaire Coffey will be maid of honor.

The wedding of Miss Marion Adele Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Coffey, will be solemnized on February 4, when she will become the bride of Warren Edwards of Eugene. Miss Vallaire Coffey will be maid of honor.

Bride of Saturday And Her Attendants.

and which contained several silver souvenirs.

The guests were: Miss Blasing, Miss Elizabeth Wiggins, Miss Helen Houghton, Mrs. Richard Ransom, Miss Marguerite Templeton, Miss Peggy Lawrence, the Misses Mary, Alice and Anne Hurd, Miss Trena Hurd, Miss Janis Fawcett, Mrs. Thomas Burns, Mrs. Eugene Schenck, Miss Edith Devenin, Mrs. William Tresser, Mrs. Frank Case.

In the evening about 35 additional guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lyle. The rooms throughout the residence were decorated in pink and lavender sweet peas and spring flowers.

Mrs. Harry Nicolai left recently for California and has taken a bungalow at Coronado. Nancy Nicolai has entered Bishop school at La Jolla.

Mrs. H. C. Wortman will speak next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the Unitarian Woman's alliance will hold its meeting and social hour in the church parlors. To open the afternoon there will be a board meeting at 1:30 o'clock. At 2 o'clock the business session will be held and at 3 o'clock the feature of attraction will be Mrs. Wortman's talk on Java, Borneo and India. Tea will be served and Mrs. Wortman's friends are invited to attend and share the hospitality of the alliance. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Noble Wiley Jones, Mrs. D. C. Southworth, Mrs. H. C. Holmes and Mrs. T. T. Goss.

Miss Katherine Laidlaw and her younger dance students have invited their friends for the afternoon of February 11, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, when they will entertain in Lincoln high school auditorium with a recital. Society is planning to attend.

Mrs. A. E. Jackson entertained last Wednesday at a luncheon of 35 covers. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will depart next month for a motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Hall have planned a trip to Panama. They expect to leave in the middle of March.

Dr. and Mrs. William Shea will entertain at a dinner party next Saturday. The dinner will precede the Tulliam dance at the Multnomah hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt will be hosts tomorrow at a dinner party. Honor guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson, who will leave soon for New Zealand.

A number of society folk attended the auto show last Thursday night, when "society night" was the attraction.

Donald Brake was host yesterday at a house warming at his new home. Tea was served between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Frederick H. Clous has announced the marriage of her sister, Clarice A. Laisner, to Kenneth Mackay. The ceremony took place last Tuesday in the Grace Memorial Episcopal church. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiating.

Janet Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Scott, will entertain next week at a birthday party for a few of her young friends.

A reception in honor of the retiring and recently installed officers of Over the Top auxiliary to post No. 81, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be tendered, the officers by the auxiliary Monday evening. Cora A. Thompson and Julia M. Stevens, past presidents; Ida M. Butler, retiring president; Hazel V. Walton, president, and M. (Continued on Page 2)