

BROADWAY SUCCESS TO APPEAR IN FILM SOON AS "FOREVER"

Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid to Be Stars of Screen Version of "Peter Ibbetson" With Notable Cast.

ELSIE FERGUSON AND WALLACE REID.

UNDER the screen name of "Forever," the famous novel by Du Maurier, "Peter Ibbetson," which also appeared three years ago as a marked Broadway success, will shortly appear as a Paramount picture starring Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid, supported by a notable cast.

SIX SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH EXPEDITIONS ARE PLANNED

South America to Be Field of Expedition for Four—China and Colorado Desert Will Be Explored by Other Investigators.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—South America will be the field of four out of six scientific research expeditions to be sent out by the Field Museum of Natural History during the next five years. Two of these expeditions will gather geological specimens in the area from Brazil to Patagonia and two, one zoological and one botanical, will study the animal and plant life of Peru.

"Prisoner of Zenda" to Be Filmed in Near Future.

REX INGRAM will finish "The Prisoner of Zenda" soon. He has before him a schedule which will keep him busy for the rest of the year. About February 15 he will begin filming "Black Orchids," an original which he wrote and produced back in 1915. Then he made it for something less than $10,000, but this second production will be a much more elaborate feature, of course, retaining the interesting experience and progress which have made Rex Ingram a headliner in the business.
