Warner Gerick Is Arrested and Held on Blanket Burglary Charge; Drills Identified.

When Deputy Sheriffs Christofferson and Schirmer burst into the at-tic rooms occupied by the family of Warner Gerick at 3531 East Sixtymorning, they were amazed by the sight which greeted them. They appeared to have entered the stock room of a hardware, automobile supply and bicycle store combined.

There were new and shiny electric a blow torch, soldering irons, eight new bicycle wheels and tires, three unused bicycles and bicycle lamps, and many other articles of value, chiefly hardware.

The man under arrest is not entirely unknown to the authorities. He was arrested by Constable Gloss and Deputy Censtable Watkins on February 13, 1919, under the name of "W. W. Gierke," for shoplifting in the Meler & Frank department store. On investigation great rolls of tar paper, household goods and seven Remington rifles stolen from the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railrond warehouse were found in his rooms. He was held to the grand jury and inwas held to the grand jury and in-ficted on March 7, 1919. Circuit Judge Gatens held at that time that man was "in mentally as to make him unable to tell right from wrong" and continued sentence against him for one year. This amounted to a dismissal of the

Closer Supervision Over Vouchers of Public Welfare Bureau Is

Change of control from the road-master's department to Sheriff Hurl-burt in the management of the rock crusher at Kelly Butte rock pile was made by Multnomah county commis-sioners at the recommendation of the grand jury, it was revealed in the final report of the January panel re-turned before Presiding Circuit Judge Tucker vesterday. Notice of the new Tucker yesterday. Notice of the new policy was made public last week but there was no indication at the time that it was the result of a grand jury

The new arrangement, comments the grand jury, "will serve a useful purpose to the general satisfaction of the taxpayers, and, we hope, to the county commissioners."

The complaint at Kelly Butte was that there was continual interference with the attempts of Sheriff Huriburt to keep prisoners busy on the rockpils by delays caused by those in charge of the machinery and rock distribu-county departments."

The grand jury in January acted on 68 cases, finding 36 true bills or indictments and 30 not true bills.

Indictments returned with the final report yesterday were: Jerry Harris, obtaining money by false pretenses through selling forged tickets to the Multnomah-Pacific ficet football game December 3; Alexander De Stefano and Pete Baliva, perjury in the municipal court trial of John Dagostino for violation of prohibition law; George Brown, obtaining money by false pretenses, and A.
