

POLITICAL CAMPAIGN FAR FROM A TIME ONE

List of Candidates for Governor Not Yet Completed.

PRIMARIES 90 DAYS OFF

Stump Speaking, Campaign Tours and Plenty of Publicity Promised to the Voters.

Three months from today the primary election will be held. The next 90 days will be crowded with activity in political circles for announcements for various nominations have scarcely started.

Already four aspirants are in the race for the republican nomination for governor, and the list is not complete. There will be one or two more in the field, so that voters will have a wide assortment from which to make their selection for this office.

In the order of their formal entrance, the avowed candidates are: J. D. Lee, of Multnomah; Louis E. Bean, of Lane; Stephen A. Lowell, of Umatilla, and Charles Hall, of Coos. Governor Olcott is expected to make his official announcement as a candidate almost any day. Then there remains the list of possibilities including George H. Kelly, of Multnomah; L. L. Patterson, of Polk; C. E. Gates, of Jackson; W. M. Calk, of Multnomah; Adjutant-General George A. White, and Seymour Jones, of Marion. What any of these possibilities intend to do no one knows but themselves, and they are keeping their own council.

Campaign Will Not Be Tame.
Voters can rest assured that the campaign will be far from tame. There will be stump-speaking and campaign tours and plenty of publicity. At present no issue has developed, but each of the avowed candidates will have his own talking points.

Charles Hall arrived at the Benson yesterday from Coos Bay and began gathering details to be used in the preparation of his platform. Senator Hall, who is the indorse of the federation of patriotic societies, says that his statement of reasons why he should be elected will be given to the public in a week or ten days. The platform will not be long, but will cover a considerable range of topics. It is the plan of Senator Hall to establish a campaign headquarters in Portland, but whether he will manage his own campaign or have someone attend to the routine for him he has not said. The last six weeks prior to the primaries he intends devoting to a speaking tour. He will go through the Willamette valley by automobile, touching every town within his time limits and later will swing into eastern Oregon, going to Baker and the towns along the main line.

Bean Stumping Eastern Oregon.

The past week has found Mr. Bean, speaker of the lower house of the legislature, energetically stumping eastern Oregon. Speaker Bean, far 14 years a member of the legislature, has close friends in every county and practically everywhere in the state, which will be of material advantage as he circles Oregon in behalf of his candidacy. In his talks made the past week he has alluded to the indebtedness of the state. Like Senator Hall and Mr. Lee, Speaker Bean has not yet formulated his platform, but this is in the process of construction.

Judge Lowell of Pendleton has reversed the practice of the other candidates for the judgeship, and has taken the platform and said what he intends running on, providing he runs. The fact that Judge Lowell prepared and sent to the newspapers his platform has caused him to be regarded as a formal candidate, albeit the judge has not said so in so many words. The judge would not say whether he has gubernatorial candidates flock to him around the state, but the proposal will not be accepted.

Governor Olcott Sits Tight.
Having the "edges" because he is the incumbent Governor Olcott has been sitting tight and saying nothing while watching his competitors getting into the ring. Presumably the governor has been holding back to see what will be pitted against him and what they have to offer in their platform. If the governor pursues the tactics he adopted in previous campaigns, he will not go on the stump, but will remain at the state house and depend largely on the Willamette valley for carrying his message.

When in Portland the last week Senator Patterson issued a statement to the effect that he was seriously considering becoming a candidate for some time, but if he decides to become a candidate or if he decides not to become a candidate, he will make the announcement himself. In other words, Senator Patterson let it be distinctly understood that he is still a possibility and has the subject under deliberation. The status of Senator Patterson appears also to be the status of George A. White, adjutant-general, Mayor Gates of Medford and Colonel Kelly. Senator Kelly is now in New York, far from the madding throng of politicians. The boom of Seymour Jones has made no visible headway, but a couple of months and W. M. Calk is not excited over the mention of his name as a possible candidate.

From the looks of things, the next move will be made by Governor Olcott.

POLITICAL INTEREST SMALL

Representative Johnston of Grants

Pass Not to Be Candidate.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Little interest is being shown in politics here this year. Representative Johnston of Grants will not be a candidate for re-election. Senator J. C. Smith is a holdover. An attempt is being made by friends of H. D. Norton to have him announce his candidacy for circuit judge, running against Senator C. M. Thomas and Gus Newberry of Medford. Mr. Norton has declined to do so.

One county commissioner is to be elected. H. M. Robinson, ex-county commissioner, says he may run against Fred McCabe, incumbent. Practically none of the county officials come up for re-election at this time.

SENATOR EBERHARD TO RUN

Formal Announcement of Candidates Expected to Be Made Soon.

LA CHANDRE, Or., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Senator Colon R. Eberhard expects to file his formal announcement as a candidate at the republican primary in March. Eberhard is a senator from Umatilla, Morrow and Union counties by Monday, he declared today. Senator Eberhard has represent his district at four sessions of the legislature, two regular and two special sessions. So far as can be learned he will have no opposition at the primary election.

Mr. Eberhard is a lawyer and came to eastern Oregon in 1904, at which time he settled in Joseph. He practiced law there until 1908 and then came to this city, having been appointed receiver of the United States land office here. He held this office four years and then formed a partnership with George T. Cochran under the firm name of Cochran & Eberhard.

During the war he was chairman of the legal advisory board for his district and chairman of the home service section of the Red Cross. He has also been a member of the La Grande school board, serving as president last year. At one time he was district attorney for several months, having been appointed to fill an unexpired term.

He is 40 years of age, is married and has two children.

MINISTERS ARE NEEDED

Not Enough Young Men Are Preparing, Lutherans Find.

The Lutheran churches of the Pacific northwest, with many open doors awaiting the extension of their work, find themselves confronted by the situation that not enough young men are preparing for the ministry. The subject is of special importance that it will receive especial consideration at the meeting of the Lutheran Ministerial association of Portland tomorrow in the Lutheran church, will read paper on "Candidates for the Lutheran Ministry," to be followed by a general discussion.

For Morrow and Umatilla district E. P. Dodd of Hermiston is mentioned. Dr. J. P. Conder of Hesperia and E. M. Holden of the Morrow farm bureau. C. E. Woodson, incumbent, has no intention of returning to Salem. Both Denton G. Burdick, Redmond
