

News of World As Seen By Camera

CONGRESSMAN ALANSON B. HOUGHTON of Corning, N. Y., has been appointed ambassador to Germany by President Harding and confirmation of his appointment is expected.

While Pacific coast shipping men were in Washington recently, Chairman A. D. Lasker of the shipping board took a group of them to the White House to meet the president. Portland representatives seem not to have been on hand at the time. The picture shows the group, left to right, as follows: Paul Shoup, Seattle; K. R. Kingsbury, Seattle; Herbert Fiehnacker, San Francisco; Chairman Lasker; H. F. Alexander, Seattle; Robert Dollar, San Francisco; George T. Baldwin, New York.

The largest ice cream freezer in the world, guaranteed large enough to supply any of the country's largest families, was recently made and put on exhibition at an eastern factory.

"High School" horses of the stage and circus are very generally taken to southern states in the winter and there they are kept in training, as indicated in an accompanying picture, taken at Jacksonville, Fla.

The new Grace Dodge hotel recently opened in Washington by the Y. M. C. A., is the first hostelry in that city exclusively for women. Practically all women who came for the disarmament conference registered there.

Mlle. Eleonora, noted English wire walker, has her mind set on duplicating Blondin's famous feat of walking a rope across Niagara Falls. She has been practicing for this undertaking, but has adopted a safety first protection in the form of a rope which would save her life if she fell.

When the "largest family" contest was held recently in San Francisco the prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Silverio Riverio, who have 16 living children. Four children born to them are dead. The contests revealed four San Francisco families having 14 children and three having 13.

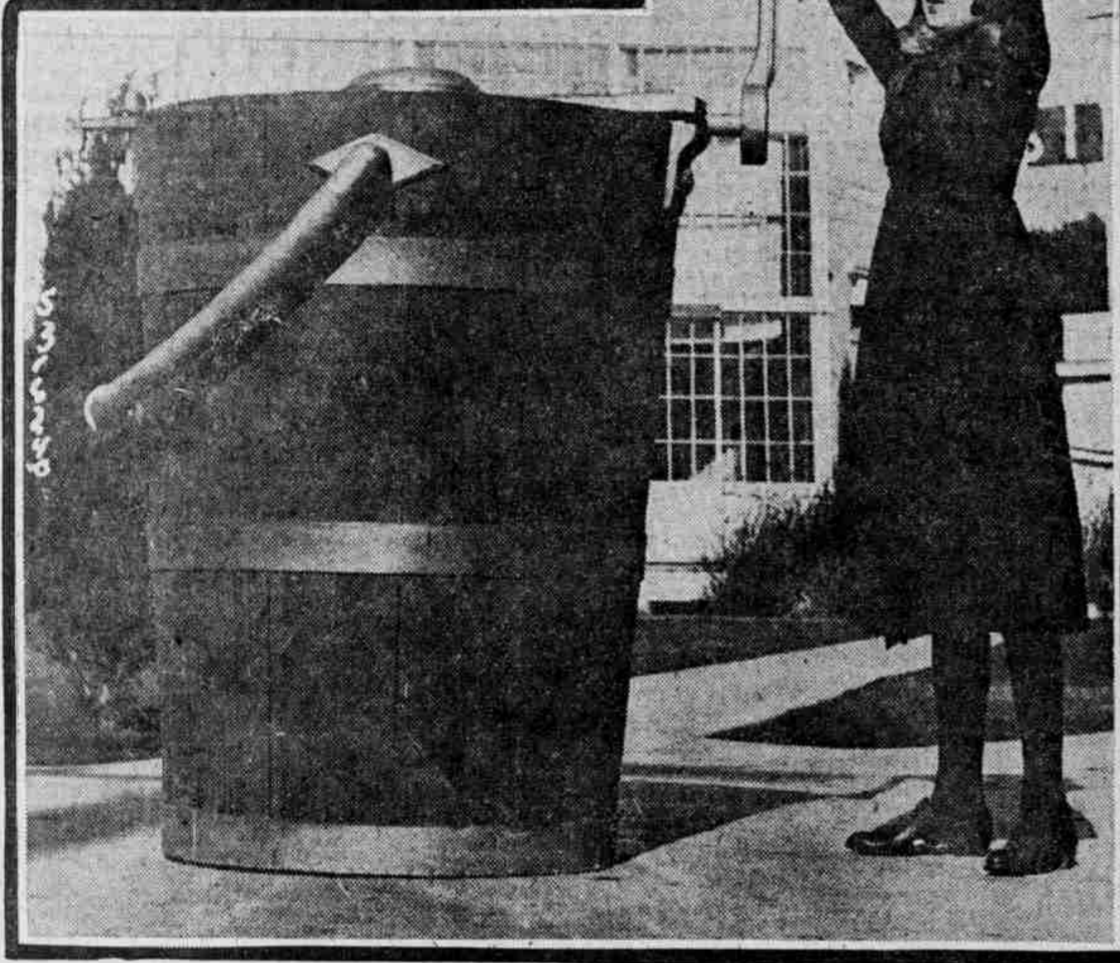

Brigadier-General Fred W. Sladen, formerly commandant at Vancouver Barracks and widely known in the northwest, has been appointed commandant of West Point Military academy. At the time of his appointment General Sladen was commanding Fort Sheridan, in Illinois.

King Alexander of Serbia and his fiancée, Princess Marie of Rumania, were recently photographed together as a pair of royal sweethearts.

Coast Shipping Men Meet President.

Slated For German Ambassadorship.

Freezer Would Supply Biggest Family.

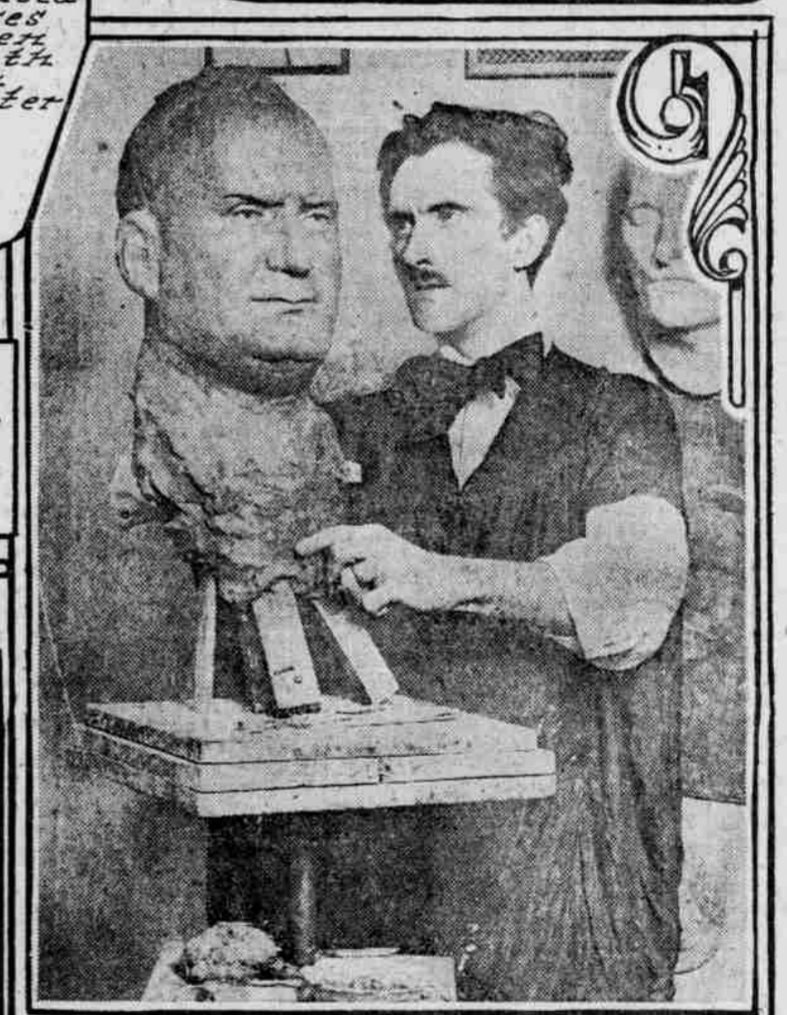

She May Walk Tight Rope Across Niagara.

Educated Horses Taken South In Winter.

Homeless Hotel Opens In Washington.

Bust of Caruso To Be Given Washington.

Sixteen Children In San Francisco's Largest Family.

Former Vancouver Commandant Honored.

Royal Sweethearts Pose Together.