"Merchandise of Merit Only"

We thought we had reached the limit in sensational dress selling—but we hadn't—it has remained for this Anniversary Sale to cap the climax—

300 New, Finer Dresses

—from Four of New York's Leading Dressmakers

at a Price Averaging Less Than Half the Regular Price

—Of course we had great things in mind when we were getting ready for the Anniversary Sale, but dresses like these in a sale were not to be thought of, it seemed. However, there was a hurried trip to New York, then a splendid stroke of luck—and "presto," the most remarkable anniversary specials imaginable—some of the handsomest, richest, most fascinating dresses appearing anywhere in America—and the whole collection at one price averaging less than half the regular price. The dresses were specially purchased from four of America's most prominent and most fashionable dressmakers, every one seen now for the first time, and the showing one that is without duplicate or without equal in Portland. The price $40.00

$40

Dresses of Canton Crepe,
Crepe Romaine, Crepe Repe,
Chiffon and Piquette

—And other dresses of fashionable materials, highly beautiful materials in decidedly clever combinations.

—Inasmuch as each dress is a distinctive creation it is difficult to give even a general description of them—a complete description is entirely out of the question, for it would take several long paragraphs to tell about each dress.

—Any author who delights in writing about beautiful things could gain much inspiration from this collection—and any artist would also be greatly inspired, perhaps he even would learn something new about colorings and the blending of colors in the production of striking effects.

Dinner Dresses, Street
Dresses and Afternoon Dresses
All Sizes 16 to 44

—We must say, however, that all these dresses are in the ultra smart styles that give great prominence to the straight line contour and the long bloused waist-line effects—and also of great importance is the fact that many of the models are beautifully beaded while others are embroidered in thoroughly fascinating patterns. Many of the dresses in the selling are displayed in our windows today.

—Many are the colors and particularly is prominence given to such glorious spring and summer shades as wine, tangerine, orchid, lipstick red, gray, henna, cocoa, phantom, periwinkle, rust and brown. Also white, navy blue and black.
