

SOCIETY

Guests were a few mutual friends of Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Burkhardt. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Percy A. Young of Albany and Mrs. Clifford Moore and Mrs. Roberts of Salem.

Bright spring flowers and fruit blossoms adorned the living room and entered the table at the home of Mrs. Fred P. Morey at Glenmorrie on Wednesday when Mrs. Morey entertained in compliment to her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth James of Seattle and Mrs. A. B. Matthews who is leaving to make her home in Berkeley.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. W. W. Cotton, Mrs. Thomas O'Day, Mrs. Ray Matson and Mrs. Guy Wallace. Assisting in the living room were Miss Helen Eastham, Mrs. James Gillison, Mrs. F. H. Finley of Spokane and Mrs. F. S. Owen. A number of Portland friends motored to Glenmorrie for the tea.

Miss Constance Piper and Miss Helen Stover will leave New York about May 16 for Portland. En route they will visit friends and relatives of Miss Stover and will arrive here the latter part of May. Miss Stover is a gifted singer who has heard here last year in concert. Miss Piper is a pianist of recognized ability.

Miss Harriet Griffith, who will be a festive queen, is a lovely and attractive society debutante, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith. Mrs. Frank McCullis, who is in charge of the selection of the queen and her attendants and arrangements for the coronation, has announced the names of three of the queen's maids—Janet House, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William House; Margaret Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook; and Elizabeth Ettinger, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Ettinger and the late Mr. Ettinger, who was leader of the Roman band for several years.

Mrs. Edward Geary was hostess Wednesday at a luncheon of 12 covers at the Waverly Country club.

Mrs. Otto Kettnerbach entertained at a luncheon Wednesday at the Waverly Country club.

In honor of Miss Blanche Burke, who has recently returned from a visit in California, Mrs. John L. Burke entertained with a smart bridge party on Thursday afternoon at the Waverly Country club. Additional guests called for tea. Beautiful spring blossoms adorned the tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. James C. Zan and Mrs. Harry Hemmingson.

Miss Florence Holmes returned on May 1 from the east, where she spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark Burgard, whose wedding was an event of last February, are now traveling in Europe. At present they are passing a short time in Switzerland, and they will sail for New York from England the latter part of May, arriving in Portland some time in June.

Mrs. Alfred Aya entertained last Saturday afternoon with a birthday party for her little daughter, Barbara, on her sixth birthday. About ten of her little friends were asked for the afternoon and games and favors were enjoyed. Those who were included in the affair were: Jean Roberson, Patsy Temple, Robbie and Martha Maclear, Tom Hindman, Billy Putman, Mary Agnes Grigsby, Bubby Wurtzburg and Rhoderick Aya.

Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner, chairman of the reception committee at the headquarters hotel for the Episcopal convention meeting in September, has the following names on her committee: Mrs. J. H. Montgomery, Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. W. H. Henderson, Mrs. S. B. Linton, Mrs. John S. Park, Mrs. C. N. Higgins, Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Mrs. Edward Cookingham, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. J. N. Robinson, Mrs. Margaret Hartwell and Mrs. Harriet McArthur.

The Tillamook Dairymen club will be hosts at the dinner dance which will be given at the Waverly Country club May 15.

Miss Margaret Riddle is expected to arrive in Portland this week. She has been visiting in Berkeley, Cal., as the guest of Miss Grace Becker. Miss Riddle also spent several months in Cambridge, Mass., and attended the Junior League convention in Atlantic City. She is a student of the University of Oregon, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Riddle.

Mrs. Charles Thornton Ladd was hostess yesterday at a luncheon for Miss Ruth Small, whose wedding to Preston Brady Delano will be an event of May 24. In the afternoon the guests were entertained at the Heilig at a theater party to witness the Shakespearean production by Walter Hampden.

Complimenting Miss Mary Warrack, bride-elect, Mrs. Newton Carson Smith and her sister, Mrs. John Henderson, were hostesses at an attractive tea on Friday afternoon at the home of their mother, Mrs. A. H. Birrell, on Willamette Heights. The rooms were prettily decorated with lovely spring flowers. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Lloyd Grey, Mrs. Eldon Furnish, Mrs. Maurice Barce and Mrs. Edward Sturgeon. They were assisted by Mrs. Allan Russell, Mrs. Jay Coffey, Mrs. Maurice Jones, Miss Marjorie Peterson and Miss Marjorie McGuire.

A theater party, which will be one of the largest of the season, is being arranged by the Progressive Business Men's club for Thursday, May 11, when the club will take over the Heilig theater for Chauncey Olcott's

L. Warren; Elizabeth Talbot and several others.

Miss Lucille Bronaugh will serve as swimming instructor and will have charge of camp athletics. The camp will open June 15 and close July 29. Miss Beck is a member of a prominent and old Portland family. She conducted a similar camp last year and the girls who attended enjoyed work and play and the benefits of outdoor life in carefully supervised environment.

An interesting series of bridge parties is being given by the members of the Alameda club. The first was in the home of Mrs. John Blanchard, the second will be on Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Robert W. Neighbor, the third will be on May 23 in the home of Mrs. Charles Dant, and the June party will be with Mrs. Thomas Wynne Watts.

A dancing party of Friday night was given by the H. club, the athletic organization at Hill Military academy. The scene of the festivity was Daniels hall at North Twenty-fourth and Johnson streets. Saturday night the junior cadets entertained at a children's party. Thursday night several of the seniors gave a party at the Heilig theater in compliment to Dr. J. W. Daniels. Thursday afternoon General Charles G. Morton, commanding the Ninth corps area, was a guest at the school.

For the H. club party the guests were the Misses Elizabeth Holbrook, Rhoda Burpee, Elizabeth Hawkingson, Gertrude Ireland, Eleanor Wiggins, Frances Jones, Virginia McMullin, Margaret Vincent, Frances Cornell, Marion Farrell, Helen Cady, Helen Holmes, Helen Ahern, LaVerne Caffee, Kathleen Brown, Edna May Root, Cadet hosts were Ralph Fleming, Milton Nelson, Robert Thompson, Kenneth Flynn, Clarke Huntley, Dewey Pryor, Dallas Cox, Joseph Crane, Errol Halmton, Con Dewey, Dexter Riegan, John Rice, Fred Merrill, Wilton Goodrich, Harry Cain and Edwin Heathman.

Mrs. Abe Tichener entertained Wednesday with an attractively appointed luncheon. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Belle Raeder, who has been visiting her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warner, in Pendleton, left recently for Fort Wayne, Ind., where she will make her home with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Raeder.

A feature of the Episcopal convention will be an afternoon reception on Thursday, September 7, when 500 delegates will be honored guests. Serving as an honorary reception committee for the triennial convention of the women's auxiliary which meets in conjunction with the general convention of the Episcopal church in September, are the officers of the province. This province is known as the province of the Pacific and embraces the states bordering on the Pacific ocean and every state immediately adjoining these, with the Philippines, the Hawaiian Islands and Alaska.

These women, many of whom will be quartered at the Multnomah, are Mrs. Louis F. Montague of San Francisco, who is the president; Mrs. William F. Nichols, wife of the bishop of California; Mrs. Herman Page of Spokane, wife of the presiding bishop of the province; Mrs. Thomas W. Kydd of Seattle; Mrs. Frank Hale Tourtel of Idaho; Mrs. L. L. Cory of San Joaquin; Mrs. E. L. Gilchrist of San Francisco; Mrs. Belle Watkins of Los Angeles and Mrs. Charles Redding, widow of the former bishop of Oregon.

The Assembly Dancing club entertained recently at Laurelhurst club house. The next dance will be May 12. The committee for the recent dance included Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. C. Emil Force, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. Tait and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kelly.

An engagement of interest announced in Salem this week is that of Miss Mary Jane Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert, to Asahel Koff, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Koff. The bride-elect is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma of the University of Oregon and of Beta Chi at Willamette university. Mr. Koff is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. C. Phillips and her daughter, Mrs. P. Heatherston, entertained on last Tuesday and Wednesday at bridge parties, complimenting Mrs. Robert Kaller, who has recently returned from California.

The annual May-day festival of the Multnomah club was an event of Tuesday that gleamed with the bright lights and gay coloring of spring time. Miss Juanita Habbitt was queen of the festive affair. There were many lovely flower girls and attendants. Miss Frances Finch was the first attendant and Alice Morrow was page. The throne was richly appointed and surrounded by exquisite and valuable rugs and draperies and was banked about in choice flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank entertained last Saturday evening at the Portland hotel supper dance. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rothchild, Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Khrman and the hosts.

Bits of Gossip about the STORE

All branch stores of The Eastern are now competing in a big drive for 25,000 new accounts. The Portland store's quota is 3000 new customers this month. Scores and scores of bargains are being offered about the store to achieve success.

Peter Pan slip-over sweaters are so popular at the store this year that it is indeed difficult to keep a complete stock of them, so rapidly do they sell. The wool slip-over model at $4.75 is the favorite this week.

For the girl 6 to 14, why not an all-white middy? Certainly they are easily tubbed, and the children look so fresh and clean in them in school. Some new ones are priced at $2.00 in our juvenile department.

Some people find established credit at The Eastern a great help. One woman told us last week she used our store as reference wherever she traveled. There are lots of ways "Credit-Gladly" helps. Just open an account here and some day you'll be glad you did.

Buy your hosiery by the box—and get enough for the entire family while you are about it. Of course you may charge your hosiery purchases here the same as you would any other purchase here in our store.

All jersey bloomers, with embroidery knees, these are the last word in smartness. Elastic bands, of course, and a wide variety of colors. Priced $6.50.
