KENWORTHY SEEMS TO HAVE NO CHANCE

Judge Landis Indicates Beyond Doubt His Decision.

EARLY ACTION PROMISED

Only Consolation in Telegram Is Announcement That Decision Will Be Made Speedily.

BY L. H. GREGORY. It appears to be all off with poor Bill Kenworthy. Judge Landis has not announced his decision yet, but in telegram late last night to Gus C. Moser, vice-president and attorney for the Portland baseball club, he indicated beyond doubt that it will be unfavorable to Kenworthy and Port-

The only consolation the telegram contained is that the long-awaited decision at last will be made speedily. The judge promised the full text of it within two or three days."

The telegram came in answer to one Thursday by Mr. Moser to the judge asking an immediate decision for the good of baseball.

In his reply last night Judge Landis said:

Your wire of May 18 received. Matter will be disposed of in all aspects within two or three days, Meanwhile the Portland club should make no plans on assumption that Kenworthy will return to its lineus. See last sentence my wire April 18 to Fresident Klepper.

The last sentence of the April 18 telegram thus referred to was as fol-

Chicago. How the complicated case will end nobody can more than guess, but it is likely as not to get into the courts before it is all over.

If Portland gets Krug he probably will be traded or sold elsewhere, for with Frank Brazill due here today from the Philadelphia Athletics to play second base there wouldn't be room for him in the infield. From his record, Brazill is a much better hitter than Krug, But whether it can use him or not, the Portland club is certain to demand Krug's return and to fight for it if the Landis decision, as seems certain, permanently bars, as seems certain, permanently b

There is no longer any such thing as bles, 6-3, 6-3, real geographical isolation. Did you ever stop to reflect that Los Angeles could jump to Chicago almost as easily as it does to Seattle under present conditions? The latter trip requires three days and two nights. But 25 years from now the longer jumps in baseball probably will be made through the air, with Chicago and St. Louis only a matter of a few laban of Brooklyn in the semi-field laban of Brooklyn in the semi-fiel and St. Louis only a matter of a few lahan of Brooklyn in the semi-final hours, and New York by no means a contest of ten rounds.

geles will then have from which to draw, the National league could well afford to drop Cincinnati or the afford to drop Cincinnati or the American to eliminate Washington, and substitute the western metropolis. Some years ago there was talk, and rather serious talk, of incorporation.

Washington's feat in capturing all three places in the 220-yard low hurdle event was the undoing of Oregon and the lead of the northerners was made safe for the afternoon.

In a beautiful 100-yard dash, Ole Larson, the sensational sprinter of Oregon team who has been undefeated this year, heat Vic Hurley, the veteran sprinter of purple and gold to the tape by a few inches. From all appearances the sprint was a dead heat but the judges agreed that Larson broke the tape in the lead. The time in this event, run in the face of strong wind, was 10 flat. The judges and coaches agreed that with no wind blowing the time might easily have been :94.

Thorpe, the Indian, who in 1912, was the all-around star of the Olympic games, said here recently that he considered basebult the greatest sport of all. The fact that he is an outfielder for the Portland Coast league club did not altogether affect his judgment, he said.

However, all sports are good in their seasons, Thorpe admitted. The records show that from 1904 to 1909 he played great football on the Carlisle Indian team. His success he largely ascribed to Glenn Warner, its coach, who may come to the coast to coach Stanford's football squad, Later Thorpe organized and played with the Canton Buildogs, a professional football leam, and when the baseball season is ovar this fall he plans to play again with the Buildogs.

Next year, Thorpe said, he may attempt to form a professional football league, with teams in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland and Seattle, He is 38 years old, and hits the line hard.
