

SOCIETY

Marjorie Warren
"Truth"

Louise LeDora
"Conscience"

Miss Lillian P. Bendroth
"Fiancee of William H. Brashear"

Miss Jessie Mills
"Engaged to C.M. Sundquist"

Eileen Cooke
"Every Woman"

Miss Marion Robinson
"King Love"

GIRLS TO TAKE PART IN PLAY
HELD JUNE 1

with seven of her violin pupils at the reception given by the citizens and the clubs for Lady Astor recently. Lady Astor was born in Danville and Miss Conner writes interestingly of having met her.

ter of Mrs. D. M. Loyd and is a graduate of the Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill. Mr. Renfro is an ex-service man, formerly of this city and now employed by the Union Pacific at Pendleton. The marriage will be an event of June 18.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Stubbs left by motor for California yesterday. They will join Mrs. Edward Cookingham in Del Monte and all will spend several weeks motoring in the south.

The annual exhibition and lawn fete will be given by the Y. W. C. A. June 3 on Trinity church lawn. The classes under Miss Georgia Way and Miss Clara Gawer will present a series of dances, and Isabelle Knott, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Knott, will rule as queen of the festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Stahl (Anna Wiersman) are at the Benson hotel and are being entertained extensively. Mrs. Stahl is a niece of Miss Elsa Grell and formerly resided here. Miss Margaret Biddle entertained for the visitors Friday and Saturday. McMill was host at a dinner at Forest hall Wednesday night. After their visit here Mr. and Mrs. Stahl will go to Holland, where they make their home.

Members of the Portland Hunt club entertained Miss Hilda McCormick and Miss Janet Drysdale of Vancouver, B. C. at several different functions when they stopped off in Portland on their way home from the Los Angeles horse show over the week end. Miss Drysdale and Miss McCormick are prominent Vancouver equestriennes who are known for their horse-show riding the length of the Pacific coast, and who have ridden frequently at Portland horse shows.

Colonel and Mrs. Pegram Whitworth were hosts at a Sunday night supper at the Mallory last week. Covers were laid for General Richard M. Blatchford, U. S. A., Mrs. Blatchford, Colonel C. E. Dentler, U. S. A., Mrs. Dentler and the hosts.

Miss Lucile Loyd was hostess recently at a party at her home, 408 East Thirty-eighth street, North, to announce the engagement of her sister, Miss Hazel Loyd to Eidon Scott Renfro. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. D. M. Loyd and is a graduate of the Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill.

proved a great source of entertainment. Among those present were Mrs. C. H. Wortman, Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mrs. McClure, Dr. and Mrs. William Fobig, Dr. and Mrs. G. Rebeck, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith, Miss Ann Shannon Monroe, Mrs. C. Campbell, Mrs. Emma L. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Farrington and the Misses Dorothy and Catherine Short.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard F. Scholz, members of the board and faculty of Reed college, were members of the receiving party at the college last Friday night when an alumni reception was attended by a large number of ex-students, friends of the college and graduates of other organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Strahorn of Fremont are receiving congratulations on the arrival of Robert Charles Strahorn at the Wilcox Memorial hospital. Mrs. Strahorn and son expect to be home next week.

Miss Dorothy Shea was hostess at a dinner Tuesday for Dan J. Jr. and Thomas Malarkey, who will leave soon to join their brother Neil and to take a trip to Europe.

Among the mothers who went to Eugene last week end to celebrate Mothers' day were Mrs. A. Braskey, Mrs. Edgar Sorenson, Mrs. C. O. Johnson and Mrs. M. Sullivan, who motored to the university town.

Miss Dorothy Shea was hostess at a dinner Tuesday for Dan J. Jr. and Thomas Malarkey, who will leave soon to join their brother Neil and to take a trip to Europe.

A luncheon was given at the Benson hotel on Friday noon for the two women; they took part in the Portland Hunt club drill at the Portland Riding academy on Friday night, both were guests at a dancing party at the Portland hotel Saturday evening and Sunday morning they were taken on a cross-country ride and entertained at a hunting breakfast at the clubhouse of the hunt club.

Dr. and Mrs. James W. Dickinson Sr. of Port Washington, L. I. New York, announce the engagement of their daughter Margaret E. to Walter K. McKnight of Eugene, Or. The wedding is to take place in Portland June 24.

Mrs. M. H. Lamond was hostess Wednesday at a tea at the Portland hotel honoring Miss Helen McLeod, niece of Mrs. G. B. McLeod, who is visiting here from San Francisco. The table was centered with spring flowers and covers were placed for Miss McLeod, Mrs. G. B. McLeod, Mrs. Maurice Crumpacker, Mrs. Edgar E. Piper, Mrs. J. G. Strohm, Mrs. Lawrence McNary, Mrs. Frank McCallis, Mrs. Boyd Hamilton, Mrs. J. W. Sterling, Mrs. Paul M. French, Mrs. Earl Hamilton, Miss Jean McLeod, Miss Mary Helen Spaulding, Miss Helen Hutchinson, Miss Helen Drain, Miss M. Maude Carlisle and the hostess.

Miss Jeanette Sewall was hostess at an attractive bridge Tuesday afternoon, honoring the Misses Clair and Karla Stoltenberg, popular Seattle society girls, who are visiting here.

Mrs. Joseph R. Bowles is planning to leave for the east in the near future. She will return in June, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Marion Bowles, who has been attending Miss Ely's school at Greenwich, Conn.

Recent visitors from Portland at the Hotel Seaside were Chester V. Dolph, Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Prentiss.

The Portland school art league entertained at the Portland Art museum at a meeting and tea on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. T. H. Williams was chairman of the committee in charge of the affair. Mrs. Lucy Dodd

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Welster gave a supper party in their Irvington home to a group of friends interested in art. Mrs. O. M. Clark brought three Japanese rolls of rare pictures, a gift from Viscount Shibetsawa. These tained for a group of friends. Bridge concluded the evening. Covers were laid for Messrs. and Mesdames H. M. Haller, C. W. King, M. L. Kline, C. Lewis Mead, John Annand, J. H. Burdard, G. W. Simpson and Tichner.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olmstead will entertain with a line party at the Erwyn Mutch concert May 26 in Pythian temple.

Miss Laura Van Houten will be hostess at a line party followed by a supper at her home.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Stahl, Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle and her daughter, Miss Margaret Biddle, entertained at an enjoyable dinner party Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Labbe entertained about 20 of their friends at a supper party Sunday evening at their country place on the Tualatin in honor of their wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien honored Harry M. Adams and A. P. Edwards, prominent officials of the Union Pacific, with a dinner at the Portland hotel Monday evening. Later the party enjoyed the Orpheum.

Mrs. Otto Kettenbach was hostess Thursday for Mrs. Thomas Ward, who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kettenbach. Mrs. Ward has been in Alaska, where her husband is an officer with the engineers.

Dr. Richard B. Dillehunt, dean of the medical school of the University of Oregon, was host at the University club Tuesday, honoring Sir Thomas Lewis, a famous specialist. At the dinner covers were placed for Sir Thomas Lewis and Doctors S. E. Joseph, A. J. Giesy, James F. Bell, E. J. Labbe, E. F. Tucker, J. B. Hildreth, J. P. Dickson, A. E. Mackay, A. E. Rockey, H. B. Myers, W. R. Holden, H. D. Haskins, Olaf Larsell, H. J. Sears, W. F. Allen, G. E. Burge, Robert L. Benson and Richard Dillehunt.

Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley was hostess Friday at a handsomely appointed dinner in her home on Westover terrace. Bridge followed the dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rumelin, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mearns, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hodson and Mr. and Mrs. Ashley.

Dr. Richard Dillehunt will be host Tuesday in the University clubhouse at a dinner for Preston B. Delano, whose marriage to Miss Small will be held Wednesday night.

At a luncheon held yesterday by Miss Florence Holmes, the engagement of Miss Julie Murphy to John Edward Finerman of St. Louis was announced. The bride-elect is a sister of Mrs. William P. Sinnott. She attended Lincoln high school and is a member of Chi Omega sorority. The guests yesterday included a few former schoolmates of the bride-elect. Dainty announcements were attached by ribbons to corsage bouquets that marked the luncheon places. The marriage will be an event of mid-June. After the luncheon the guests went to the Chi Omega card party at the Portland where bridge was the diversion of the remainder of the afternoon.

Mr. Finerman is a member of an old Southern family and has many friends among the business men of the west. Several social affairs will be given for Miss Murphy prior to her marriage.

Mrs. Harvey W. Scott entertained Friday at a luncheon honoring Mrs. Mary Frances Cook, sister of the late Harvey W. Scott. The 89th birthday of Mrs. Cook was celebrated. The honor guest is an interesting and charming matron, a pioneer of 1852, whose many friends were happy to shower her with good wishes and congratulations.

Trinity church lawn will be transformed into a veritable fairyland June 3, when a lawn fete will be presented by the aesthetic dancing classes of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Georgia Way, who is directing the pageant, declares it to be even more beautiful than the festival given last year.

Coronation of the fairy queen, little Isabelle Knott, will be followed by group and solo dances. The final number, "Portland in 1925" will show dances by representatives of the various countries. As a beautiful finale, "America" herself will appear in all her splendor.

The maid of honor is Audrey Hay, and the queen's attendants are Audrey Huthman, Fern Kupersmith, Edith Burns, Maxine Wilton, Helen Burns, Marion Hallam, Evelyn Rockwell and Margaret George. A group of dainty little dancers, including Virginia Smith, Millicent Russell, Muriel Ross, Betty Ann Miller, Catherine Mayers, Rose Breall, Gwendolyn Budezin and Catherine Larson, are the flower maids.

St. Helen's hall graduating class members have sent out invitations for the commencement, which will be inaugurated with a musical and English play, June 2, at 3 o'clock. The next day a French play and esthetic dancing will be the feature. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday, June 4, at 11 o'clock by Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner at St. Stephen's pro-cathedral and a children's entertainment will be the attraction of June 5. The commencement exercises will be at 8 o'clock, June 6, in Trinity church.

Many Portlanders have been invited to the formal opening and dedication of the Murray Warner collection of oriental art, presented to the University of Oregon by Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner. The exercises will take place in the women's building, Eugene, Monday, May 22, at 2:30 o'clock. The programme will include music by the University of Oregon orchestra, directed by Rex Underwood; an address by Dr. P. L. Campbell, president of the university; music by the Girls' Glee club, directed by John Stark Evans; an address by Judge C. H. Carey; acceptance of the

We Tell It With Values

Sweet Sixteen FROCKS

Are Exceedingly Popular This Season, Because They Have Given to the Figure the Supple, Youthful Lines and the Free, Graceful Contour That Has Made This Summer's Dresses So Very Becoming

New Arrivals!

—Just what Fashion enthusiasts have been expecting.

Portland women find their greatest delight in these "Sweet Sixteen" garments, constantly declaring this raiment as expressing the piquancy of Paris Fashion and accentuating the grace and debonair chic of one's youth through their bright, happy colorings and smart, litesome lines.

We Never Wait for Seasonal Style Changes

All through the so-called "between-seasons" period we show new models, strictly new designs, in conformity with the fixed fashions. This newness often takes the form of entirely new ideas in clothes making. You'll find this newness in very fascinating tones in the many thousands of

- SUITS AT $16
- COATS AT $16
- CAPES AT $16
- WRAPS AT $16
- Polo Coats
- Silk lined at $16
- Tweed and Herring-bone Coats
- Silk lined at $16

145-147 BROADWAY

Portland's Recognized School for Dancing

CHRISTENSEN'S

169 11th Street

announces the CLOSING PARTY of the children's and high school classes and

ANNUAL DANCE REVUE

Friday Eve., May 26, 8:30 P. M.
Saturday Afternoon, May 27, 2 P. M.
Admission 75c

A special feature of Christensen's for next season—the extraordinary opportunity of studying with Stephano Mascagno, New York's leading instructor and America's most proficient master of Ballet Technique, for a course of one month starting October 2.

Miss Jessie Merriss, who will appear at the Annual Dance Revue.