

SOCIETY

Mrs. M. O. Norman, Statley and Jean, Touring Europe.

collection by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of the board of regents. Notable articles of the collection are priceless tapestries, brocades, embroideries and textiles of old Japan and China.

Prominent women under the leadership of Mrs. Wilson Johnston are being organized for the work of preparing for the convention of the Episcopal church to be held here in September. Mrs. Johnston is general chairman. The following is the list of recently appointed chairmen:

Secretary, Mrs. Walter J. Dennis; committee chairman reception headquarters, Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner; reception auditorium, Mrs. Walter J. Barnes; reception at train, Mrs. E. Miller; registration, Mrs. W. H. Hallam; information, Mrs. Arthur King; checking, Mrs. J. N. Bagley; study class, Mrs. Thomas Kirby; services and meetings, Mrs. James Zuehlke; vice-chairman, Mrs. A. W. Stone; housing, Mrs. J. J. Patton; afternoon teas, Mrs. E. T. Stevens; vice-chairman, Mrs. Robert Warrack; special entertainment, Mrs. H. P. Dutton; vice-chairman, Mrs. J. N. Desendorf; rest room, Mrs. P. H. Haven; vice-chairman, Mrs. Thomas Jenkins; badges, Mrs. T. Francis Drake; flowers, Mrs. George Good; vice-chairman, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis; printing, Mrs. J. N. Gray; news and publicity, Mrs. R. F. Arnold; junior exhibits, etc., Mrs. P. A. Cowell; vice-chairman, Mrs. J. Brian McCormick; motor corps, Mrs. Walter E. Bliss; vice-chairman, Miss Beasie Nye Grant; sales committee, Mrs. William Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Breese of Cheesemant are the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Laurelhurst. Mr. Breese was formerly a teacher in Lincoln high school, and they have many friends in Portland.

Miss Ann Dowd and Charles Wentworth have set Wednesday, May 24, as their wedding day. On account of a death in Miss Dowd's family the wedding will be attended only by relatives.

Saturday afternoon the Chi Omega alumnae entertained with an enjoyable card party at the Portland hotel. During the afternoon several musical selections were given. Mrs. Louise Gray was chairman of the affair, and was assisted by a few of the members.

A delightful dancing party was given recently by the Misses Kathryn Wightman, Jane de Lin and Dolores Kelsey, in honor of Miss Helen Hildege, who is leaving Portland soon. Those present were the Misses Helen Hildege, Amelia Maier, Marguerite Walker, Louise Niemeyer, Gladys Duvall, Gladys Gulovson, Yolanda Kelsey, Jane de Lin, Dolores Kelsey and Kathryn Wightman and Chester Rich, Lloyd Thomas, Christian Kisky, Kenneth Kenteffen, Junior Seaton, Donald Buckman, Pen Wilbur, Edward Johnson, William le Beau and Walter Kelsey.

Saturday night supper dances at the Portland hotel are exceedingly popular affairs among Portland's social contingent. Among the interesting no-host parties last Saturday night was that for which covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rothchild.

Mrs. A. V. Wells entertained with 500 Thursday afternoon at her apartment in the Tudor Arms. First honors were awarded Mrs. Harry T. McKenzie. The rooms were gay with spring flowers, and a dainty luncheon concluded a delightful afternoon. The guest list included Mrs. Richard Childs, Mrs. William Azzing, Mrs. Floyd N. Averill, Mrs. H. S. Tutbill, Mrs. Ben H. Boulder, Mrs. Harry McKennie, Mrs. Frederick Heisner and Grace E. Hall.

Portland members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national musical sorority, were guests last Saturday afternoon of Mrs. V. L. O. Chittick at her home on Reed college campus. An exquisite musical program was given by the hostess on the Reed college pipe organ. Guests included Mrs. Susie Pennell Piper and Mrs. Jane Burns Albert, honorary members of Mu Phi; Mrs. Marion Nell Giger and her guest, Mrs. George Hellener; Miss Ethel Brown, Miss Edna Messenger, Miss Dorothy Bennett, Mrs. Frank Carruth, Mrs. Mae Norton O'Farrell, Miss Mildred Stelmets, Miss Alice Gohlke and Mrs. Harry Sigmund.

A. P. Rosenberg of Milwaukee, Wis. was a recent guest of his brother, Jacob Rosenberg, of this city. Miss Bertha Rosenberg accompanied her uncle, Mr. Rosenberg, east by way of the Canadian Pacific, stopping at Lake Louise and Banff. Miss Rosenberg will visit in Milwaukee and several prominent cities in the east before returning to Portland.

The Misses Verda McCallum and Helen Pippy and Messrs. James Hamilton and Robert Brady, Reed college students, who are to be associated with the development and management of the Lancaster Lost Lake camp, the coming summer, motored to Hood River with Samuel Lancaster to be present at a dinner and meeting of the Hood River Commercial club, given Monday evening.

singing of the temple music off stage by the Melodian chorus under the direction of Mrs. Misha Peiz. Pavlowa's beautiful "Snowflake Ballet" will feature four graceful solo dancers and a corps of ballet of 25, while probably the most colorful of all of the numbers will be the final "Bubble Ballet." This will have an especially beautiful stage setting and myriads of great iridescent balloons "bubbles" will add to the attractiveness of the stage picture.

Not only will many of Portland's prominent families be represented in the cast of the various numbers, but a number of prominent society matrons are acting as patronesses for the affair. There will be much entertaining that evening, and a number of large line parties are being arranged for the affair. The patronesses list includes: Mrs. Pat H. Allen, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. William T. Belcher, Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, Mrs. Edward Boyce, Mrs. Victor Brandt, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, Mrs. Orange M. Clark, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs, Mrs. W. D. Deaver, Mrs. Adolph Dekker, Mrs. Willis Dunlaway, Mrs. Thomas Edwards, Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Mr. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. G. J. Frankel, Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Miss Elsa Grelle, Mrs. Bert E. Haney, Mrs. J. Coulson, Mrs. William B. Hare, Mrs. Charles A. Hart, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. Max S. Hirsch, Mrs. Frederick A. Kiehl, Mrs. E. G. Leiby, Mrs. Sanford P. Lowengard, Mrs. Murray Mannville, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. H. J. Marsh, Mrs. Lawrence A. McNary, Mrs. G. P. McLeod, Mrs. Henry W. Metzger, Mrs. O. W. Mielke, Mrs. A. C. Newill, Mrs. A. R. Pearson, Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, Mrs. E. R. Pittickau, Mrs. Herbert Garr Beecher, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens, Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. J. Phillip Tamietie, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. Ben N. Wade, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur and Mrs. Thomas H. Williams.

Mrs. Charles Simpson West entertained most charmingly at her home on East Fifty-seventh street North, Philadelphia and numerous other cities throughout the east. They expect to arrive home the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley F. Clarke have returned from an extended trip throughout the east and south. They passed the winter in Chicago. Mrs. Clarke is a gifted singer. Her many friends are planning to entertain for her. In Seattle she sang for the radio.

Miss Hermine Albers was hostess at an informal bridge party last Saturday afternoon honoring Miss Josephine Mann, whose marriage to Raymond Toomey will be an event of early June. The guests included the Misses Josephine Mann, Louise Alshoff, Marie Driscoll, Alice O'Hara, Julia Duffy, Edr. Carr, Elizabeth O'Hara, Catherine Meagher, Theresa Albers, Mrs. William Schaefer, Mrs. John Mann and the hostess.

The home of Mrs. Erroll C. Briggs of Irvington was the scene of an attractive bridge tea yesterday afternoon. The house was artistically decorated with spring flowers and foliage. Guests were asked for seven tables and additional guests were asked to call at the tea hour.

The Portland Rowing club will entertain Friday, June 2, with a dance at Christensen's hall. An excellent orchestra has been secured for the occasion. The Multnomah and other clubs will be represented at the dance. The patronesses will be Mrs. W. J. Patton, Mrs. H. E. Judge, Mrs. Lewis Mills and Mrs. H. C. Howes. The dance will be informal.

Social and artistic circles are interested in the dance revue and ballet to be given at the municipal auditorium next Friday evening under the direction of Iva May Brown. One hundred and fifty young persons will take part. The first number, a flower ballet, will be danced by 40 little tots in colorful flower costumes. Another interesting number will be a pantomime dance arrangement of Mozart's opera, "The Magic Flute," which will be given with 45 young persons in the cast. This has been arranged in four scenes with special stage settings and lighting effects. An added feature in this will be the to stimulate interest in the development of Mount Hood's scenic assets. While in Hood River the Reed party visited Hans Hoerlein, former Reed student, to view the apple blossoms at the Hoerlein ranch, Canyon Pines.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper B. Waite of 250 Montgomery street left Portland some weeks ago for the east, stopping in New York City, Newport, Atlantic City, Washington, D. C., where they were extensively entertained, as they were in Chicago, Cleveland, Boston, Philadelphia and numerous other cities throughout the east. They expect to arrive home the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley F. Clarke have returned from an extended trip throughout the east and south. They passed the winter in Chicago. Mrs. Clarke is a gifted singer. Her many friends are planning to entertain for her. In Seattle she sang for the radio.

Miss Hermine Albers was hostess at an informal bridge party last Saturday afternoon honoring Miss Josephine Mann, whose marriage to Raymond Toomey will be an event of early June. The guests included the Misses Josephine Mann, Louise Alshoff, Marie Driscoll, Alice O'Hara, Julia Duffy, Edr. Carr, Elizabeth O'Hara, Catherine Meagher, Theresa Albers, Mrs. William Schaefer, Mrs. John Mann and the hostess.

The Portland Rowing club will entertain Friday, June 2, with a dance at Christensen's hall. An excellent orchestra has been secured for the occasion. The Multnomah and other clubs will be represented at the dance. The patronesses will be Mrs. W. J. Patton, Mrs. H. E. Judge, Mrs. Lewis Mills and Mrs. H. C. Howes. The dance will be informal.

Social and artistic circles are interested in the dance revue and ballet to be given at the municipal auditorium next Friday evening under the direction of Iva May Brown. One hundred and fifty young persons will take part. The first number, a flower ballet, will be danced by 40 little tots in colorful flower costumes. Another interesting number will be a pantomime dance arrangement of Mozart's opera, "The Magic Flute," which will be given with 45 young persons in the cast. This has been arranged in four scenes with special stage settings and lighting effects. An added feature in this will be the HAIR if lifeless, a MEDICATED Shampoo will leave it soft and fluffy with a "patent leather" gloss.

DR. TREINIES 620 MORGAN BLDG. MAIN 1484.

Eyes Tired? If your eyes are tired and overworked; if they itch, ache, burn or smart, go to any drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and use to bathe the eyes from two to four times a day. You will be surprised at the rest, relief and comfort Bon-Opto brings.

Note: Doctors say Bon-Opto strengthens eyesight 50 per cent in a week's time in many instances.

Marinello Cosmetic Shop Corner Broadway and Morrison. FACIAL AND SCALP SPECIALISTS. 293 Broadway Building. Phone Marshall 2207.

25 HOT HOUSES MAIN 7709 Clarke Bros. GREATEST VARIETY. Finest Quality. Always Fresh.

M. PATT LADIES' TAILOR Suite 512-13 Bush & Lane Bldg. BROADWAY & AND ALDER.

H. Liebes & Co. ESTABLISHED 1864

H-LIEBES & CO.

Furs and Individual Style Shops Broadway at Morrison

100 man-tailored SUITS in a sale that—for value and quality has never been equaled in Portland at 39.75

Unquestionably the greatest selling event in our entire history—and we are not given to exaggeration!

Navy twills—coverts—checked velours—made with the new, long coat that may be worn unbelted. 10 straight-line models to choose from.

- The sleeve seems fairly to melt into the armhole of these impeccably tailored suits!
- Hand-bound buttonholes are faultlessly made; hand-felled linings are of sturdy, radium silk.
- 75.00 is the lowest price at which we have ever sold such suits. We cannot replace them to sell again at this figure.

You have our word for it: This is the finest value we have ever offered in our many years of service. Do not miss this splendid opportunity!

Charge purchases are payable in July H. Liebes & Co. ESTABLISHED 1864 Extra salespeople to serve you promptly!

H. Liebes & Co. ESTABLISHED 1864