THE Lincoln memorial is to be dedicated at Washington May 30 in Potomac park, in memory of the great emancipator, with befitting ceremonies. It is now nearing completion. Carved in a white marble panel on one of the walls is his Gettysburg address. It is easily readable to the passersby and will continue to inspire as time goes on. Another inside feature is the 175-ton statue of the martyr-president, which will be unveiled on Decoration day.

Mrs. David Sherer of Fort Myer, Va., has solved the problem of caring for her baby while she is out shopping or visiting. She simply places it in a basket and carries it on her arm. No trouble at all, she says.

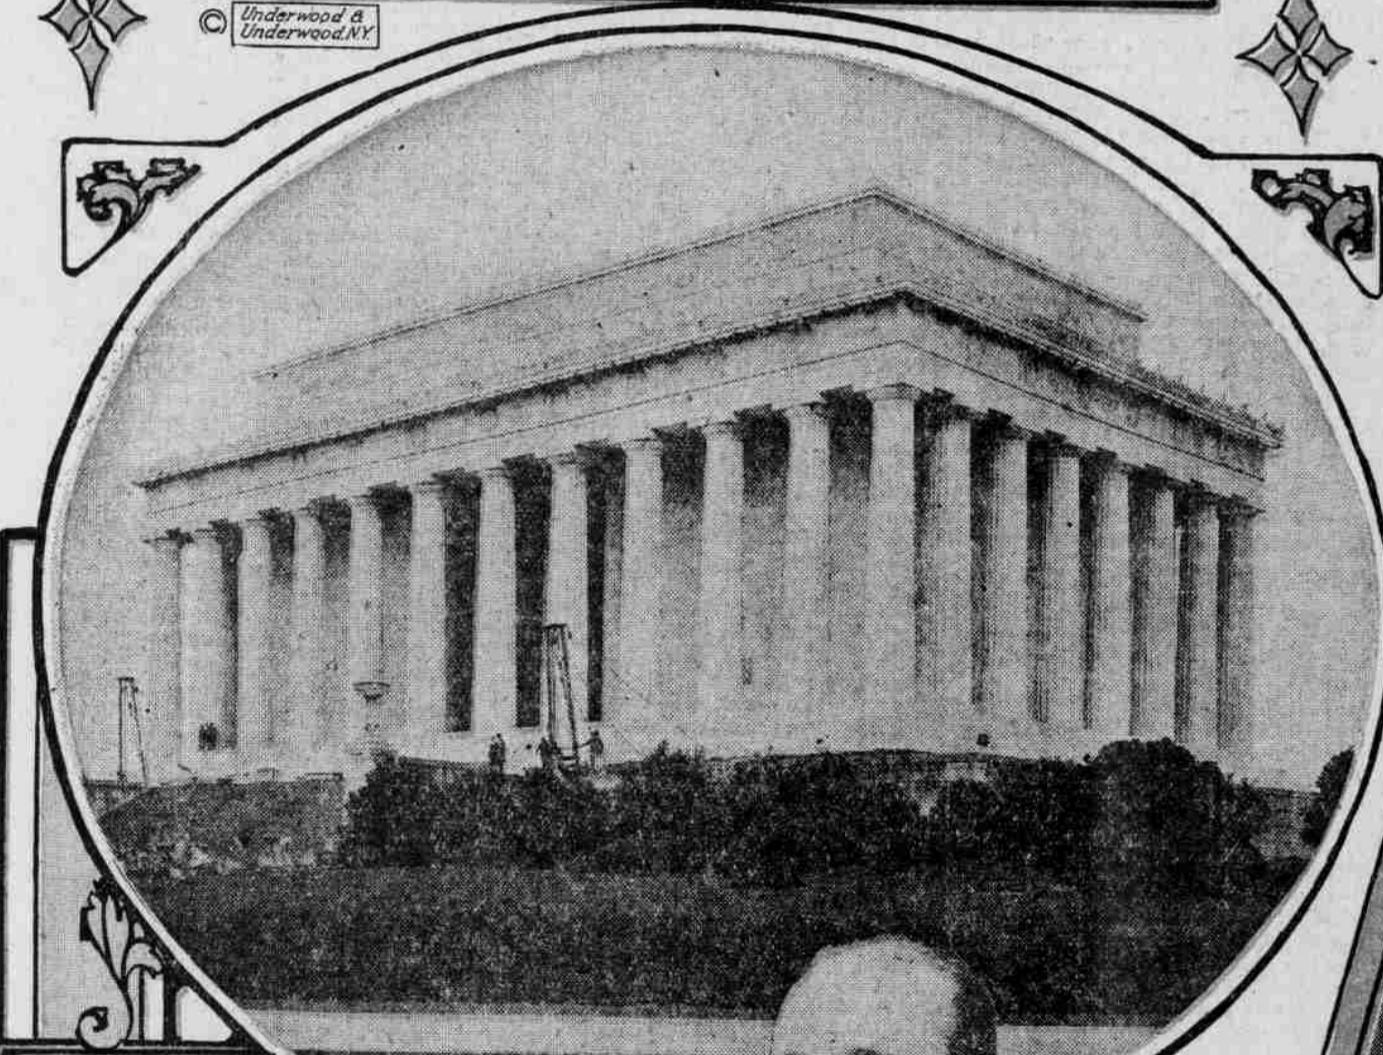

Count Peerretti de la Rocca is mentioned as the probable successor to Ambassador Jusserand.

A litter of Airedale pups constitute the mascot of the Pennsylvania Military school baseball club. They are of Lassie, a descendant of Pete, famous Airedale, belonging to J. H. Tindle, son-in-law of the late Senator Philander C. Knox.
