

GERMANY IS READY TO YIELD TO ALLIES

Note of Submission Already Is Composed.

CABINET CRISIS IS OVER

Government Asks More Latitude in Issuing Paper Money and Hopes to Get Loan.

BY WILLIAM J. MARGREVE.

(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

BERLIN, May 27.—(Special by Wireless.)—News from Paris that Germany will get a month's breathing spell finds the government ready to submit to the allied demands, in accordance with Finance Minister Herms' negotiations. A note expressing this submission is already composed.

The press was informed that the three main points of the reparations commission's March ultimatum are conceded—Germany agrees to allied financial control, additional taxation, and cessation of currency inflation.

Acceptance is made in more or less disguised form, but it is an acceptance.

It is pointed out that these concessions are based on the hope of a loan. The postponement is regarded here as an indication that the loan will go through and pave the way for Germany to get out of her difficulties.

Friction Is Eliminated. The discussion between Herr Herms and Chancellor Wirth has also been subdued and danger of a cabinet crisis is past for the moment.

One other big problem facing Germany is that of the reparations. The reparations commission demanded that this debt be held at figures attained by March 31, which is approximately 27,000,000,000 paper marks. Any issues above this amount were to be recalled or covered by internal loans and taxes.

The Reich has issued about 19,000,000,000 paper marks more than this maximum, and under the allied demand these would have to be taken back or covered by taxes. Consequently the government has written to Karl Bergman, under secretary of state, and the German representative on the bankers' committee in Paris, to try to have the date at which the floating loan was to reach its maximum advanced.

More Latitude Asked. Berlin also wants it stipulated that if there should be a sudden, severe drop in the value of the mark, the floating debt can be increased.

The foreign loan hoped for will be used exclusively for reparations, so that in effect German submission to the allied plan means she will balance her budget and keep her house in order by means of internal loans and taxation.

PARIS IS STILL PESSIMISTIC. Fear Expressed That Germany Yet Wants to Evade Issue.

PARIS, May 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—Reports from Berlin that the German government had accepted the allied reparations propositions were qualified by fears in reparations circles that the propositions had been accepted only as a basis for discussion, while the determination of the commission is that if the propositions are not accepted entirely, the discussions will be closed and the entire reparations questions turned over to the allied governments.

The crucial point in the negotiations is the question of paper money. The finance minister, Herms, agreed with the commission that no more paper be issued for internal requirements, and that for reparations payments, including reparations, only a part might be raised in this way, in case of necessity, and only for the ensuing year, in the proportion of two-fifths paper and three-fifths loans or increases in taxes. After the end of the year, Germany would issue no more new paper at all, it was agreed.

This part of the agreement, according to news received this morning, does not appear to have been categorically accepted by Chancellor Wirth, and the optimism created by the understanding reached with Herr Herms has somewhat diminished.

ARMY PAY BILL ARGUED. Senate and House Conferes Reach Final Lap on Disputed Issues.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—Final agreement in disputed issues in the military service pay bill was reached tonight by the senate and house conferees.

On the question of allowance for service in the national guard for the purpose of computing longevity pay, the agreement provides that 75 per cent of such service shall be credited since enactment of the Dick law.

On the question of pay for retired officers the agreement reached stipulates that officers now on the retired list shall receive no increase, but are to be protected against a decrease by the new law. Officers retiring hereafter will receive three-fourths of the pay they receive at the time of retirement, just as is now provided by law.

LIPSTICK ESCAPES BAN. Temperance Union Refuses to Put Taboo on Paint Utensils.

GLENDALE, Cal., May 27.—Refusal to place the lipstick in their campaign index with tobacco and intoxicants, that is among unnecessary evils requiring untiring effort to eradicate, is the message being conveyed home today by delegates of the fortieth annual state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union just closed here.

A resolution proposing a ban upon the highly colored lubricant of the labial osculatory organ was voted aside by the convention on motion that there were more important matters worthy of consideration.

THREE TUMALO BIDS MADE. All Contractors Agree to Accept Bridge Bonds as Payment.

BEND, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—Three offers for the reclamation of the remainder of the Tumalo irrigation district, 11,000 acres, were received this afternoon, when the district director opened bids at Tumalo.

ADJOURNMENT TAKEN BEFORE THE BID WAS OPENED, BUT A CONTRACT WILL BE AWARDED AT AN EARLY DATE.

Fred N. Wallace, secretary of the board of directors, said.

The low bid of $308,084 was submitted by J. D. Hanley, the United Contracting company was next with $317,251.75 and the Puget Sound Bridge & Draining company third with $429,658. All contractors specified willingness to accept district bonds in payment. The district has on hand a $500,000 issue, voted a year ago.

Reclamation plans involve storage at Crescent Lake and construction of a dam to divert a part of the flow of the Deschutes through a canal to be constructed into the Tumalo feed canal. Five thousand acres of the 16,000-acre project are already under water.

SOLDIER FUGITIVES TAKEN

Men Said to Have Run Away With Intention of Getting Discharged After Jail Term.

The two military prisoners, Noel R. Adelhart and William Needham, who escaped from Vancouver barracks Friday night, were captured in Portland yesterday by Detectives Schulpius and Maloney at a lodging house at 235 Salmon street. The fugitives were returned to the army post late in the afternoon.

The escape was effected while they were working along East Reserve street. It was thought that they had overpowered the guard, Mike Hubert at first, and had fled shortly afterward. He said that a car had driven up and one of the occupants asked him a question. When he turned to answer one of the prisoners sprang on his back and the two bound and gagged him, taking his rifle and lifting him into the automobile. Hubert said that they left him out at Fruit valley and he walked back to the post. The police were inclined to give his story little credence.

The two prisoners, when placed under arrest, said they had walked across the bridge over the Columbia river and taken a taxi to the lodging house. They were wearing army fatigues clothes when taken into custody. Both said that they wanted to get out of the army and had figured out that by deserting and getting six months for the offense, they would be discharged in less time for good behavior and would get out of the military service sooner than if they served out their enlistment periods.

LIQUOR SUSPECT IS HELD

Pearl O'Neal Bound Over to Grand Jury at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—Pearl O'Neal of San Francisco, alleged by police to be the head of a "ring" engaged in the shipment of smuggled liquor to California, Oregon and eastern cities under the guise of "salt fish," was arraigned before United States Commissioner McClelland here today and ordered held for a federal grand jury under $2000 bail.

Herbert Dodge, arrested at Anacortes, Wash., last week, was brought here from Bellingham, where he was bound over to the grand jury in connection with the activities of the alleged "ring."

The arrests of O'Neal and Dodge followed the seizure in a San Francisco railroad warehouse of 51 barrels of liquor marked "salt fish."

A smaller shipment, disguised in the same manner, was seized in Seattle. Officers expressed the belief that thousands of gallons of whiskey had been smuggled into the United States through Seattle in a similar manner.

ROYAL POLICE CAN'T COME

Canadian Mounted Detachment Unable to Participate in Festival.

SALEM, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—The Royal Canadian mounted police will not appear in Portland during the Rose Festival this summer.

"I very much regret that it will not be possible for a detachment to leave Vancouver this year," says a letter from Portland Starnes, commissioner, to Governor Olcott, made public today. "The minister has directed that no such exhibitions are to be given except in the places where the men are actually stationed."

"Your kind remarks about the impression made by the detachment," the commissioner continues, "are very much appreciated, and I am sure the men would have been only too pleased to have accepted your invitation were it possible to do so."

MR. OLCOTT FELICITATED

I. L. Patterson Pledges Support at Election This Fall.

SALEM, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—I. L. Patterson, defeated candidate for the republican nomination for governor at the recent primaries, has written Governor Ben Olcott as follows:

"I congratulate you on your nomination at the primaries and I have my support at the election this fall as every republican nominee for governor of Oregon has had since I became a voter."

A cablegram in which congratulations are offered was received from Sam Hill, prominent highway booster of the state of Washington, by Governor Olcott this morning. Mr. Hill sent his message from London.

YAQUI INDIANS LOOT AND SLAY MEXICANS

Americans in Sonora Go to Border for Safety.

TROOPS ARE REQUESTED

Armed Bands Roam Esperanza Valley—Native Stores and Homes Are Plundered.

WOMBSTONE, Ariz., May 27.—Wholesale murders and robberies by Yaqui Indians in Sonora were reported here today by additional American refugees arriving from the Yaqui valley.

No Americans have been killed thus far, they said, all the victims of the latest outbreak have been Mexicans.

For the last three weeks in the vicinity of Esperanza, the Indians have been looting and slaying, according to the arrivals. Many Mexicans have been killed and numbers are missing since the raids began.

Americans Go to Border. Americans residing in the district are going to the border for safety. An American farmer near the village of Esperanza was robbed by the Indians of 5000 pounds of flour and was threatened with death.

Many native stores and homes in the vicinity of Cocorit and Bacolor have been plundered. Both villages were captured and held by the marauders for several days. Several townspeople were slain, the travelers report.

Armed bands of Yaquis, ranging from five to 50, are roaming the Esperanza valley.

Troops Are Asked. Petitions have been sent to the state government of Sonora, asking for troops to quell the uprising.

Mexican laborers engaged in harvesting a $500,000 grain crop have fled from the district and the harvest is imperiled. Local and state authorities so far have been powerless to crush the outbreak, according to their statistics.

The cause of the uprising was unknown to the Americans reaching here.

BLOW GIVEN VANDALISM

PACIFIC COAST COLLEGES TO FROWN ON ROWDIES.

Association Adopts Resolution for Promotion of Better Relations Between Schools.

CORVALLIS, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—The second annual convention of the presidents of the associated students of the Pacific coast colleges and universities closed here today after electing officers and adopting important resolutions.

Resolutions were adopted favoring campus organizations for entertaining visiting teams, to be founded in the vicinity of the Knights of the Hook at the University of Washington, and favoring prevention of acts of vandalism upon school campuses by visiting students, with especial relation to the defacing and carrying off of trophies and other properties, such as, for instance, the iron woman of the Oregon Agricultural college, and the ax of Stanford.

The promotion of better relations between schools, and a standard point system to keep students from devoting too much time to student activities, to the injury of their own scholastic standing, also were favored.

Another resolution favored liberal discussion of national and international problems through the national student exchange bureau, which was represented by University of Washington, Washington State college, University of Idaho, Pacific University, Reed college, Oregon Agricultural college, University of Oregon and Stanford university.

The officers elected for the coming year were Herbert Little of University of Washington, president; J. M. MacGregor of University of Oregon, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the University of California. It is then expected to have all the schools of the Pacific coast represented.

CITIZENSHIP RULING MADE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 27.—Judgments in citizenship proceedings are not subject to review by the state or federal courts of appeal, the third district court of appeals today held in the case of Peter J. Wilkie, Sacramento.

MURDERER IS CONVICTED

Jury Recommends Death Penalty for Slayer of Oklahoma Woman.

TUCSON, Ariz., May 27.—After deliberating for only 15 minutes the jury in the case of Paul V. Hadley, alias William S. E. Staver, reported a verdict late today of first degree murder, and recommended that the death penalty be imposed. Judge Patee will impose sentence June 3.

Arguments of counsel were heard thus far, they said, all the victims of the latest outbreak have been Mexicans.

For the last three weeks in the vicinity of Esperanza, the Indians have been looting and slaying, according to the arrivals. Many Mexicans have been killed and numbers are missing since the raids began.

Bandits Hold Up Lawyer. LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 27.—Leo Youngworth, attorney and active in political work here, with a guest, S. Wood, was held up by four men early today as Youngworth stepped from his machine at his residence. An automobile turned a near-by corner and its headlights frightened the bandits, who fled precipitately.

Fire Damages Roof. Sparks from a chimney caused a serious roof fire in the three-room house occupied by T. E. Bowman and family at 517 North Twenty-sixth street yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Bowman was alone in the house and, with the aid of neighbors, succeeded in removing the furniture from the building to a place of safety. The rear part of the roof was burned away and the interior of the place was damaged badly by water. The loss was put at $200.
