

Society

Frank Watkins Jr. First Birthday Party
George H. Kelly Jr. Entertained At Birthday Party

Helen and Jack Children of Dr. Walter J. Larsen

evening was a surprise for Miss Mitchell, who is under appointment as missionary to China for the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. Invitations were limited to members of the Women's Missionary association and the girls of the Otterbein church of Portland. Forty guests were present and Miss Mitchell received many gifts. The missionary societies of The Dalles and Everett, Wash., also sent remembrances. Assorted cakes and punch were served. Miss Mitchell is a graduate of the United Brethren college at Philomath and will be regularly consecrated as a missionary to China in the college chapel June 4. Bishop Vanhinger will have charge of the consecratory service. She will sail in the early part of August.

Mrs. J. J. Hemmings was hostess Thursday at a luncheon at her home in Alameda honoring Mrs. George Leach and Miss Annetta Hansen of Seattle, and Mrs. N. H. Brooke of Idaho. The table was centered with red sweet peas and maiden hair fern with 14 place cards and baskets. Covers were laid for Mrs. George Leach, Miss Annetta Hansen, Mrs. N. H. Brooke, Miss Jennie Jones, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Burr Eider, Mrs. Oscar Olsen, Mrs. John Eber, Mrs. G. W. Thomsen, Mrs. Lottie Thomsen, Miss Kir, Mrs. M. R. Whitehead, Mrs. George Tabler and the hostess.

M. and Mrs. Theodore Mueller entertained about 40 guests in their home Sunday night in honor of their 30th anniversary. Singing and dancing furnished entertainment. The younger set spent part of the time in Mrs. H. Dunlap's (Fritzie Miller) new bungalow, where they enjoyed dancing. Later the guests

SPRANO WILL SING AT PRESENTATION OF "A CHINESE TEA GARDEN," ST. DAVID'S PARISH HOUSE, MAY 31.

ALICE SKIFF DOERFLER, AS A CHINESE MAIDEN.

the Portland Social Turn Verein. The lead is being taken by Julia Blanc with her two attendants, Lillian Maykooski and Beatrice Hebert, and Sadie Durkin takes the part of the servant. The American gowns, E. Christy, Lover, with her two pupils, Frances Smith and Anna Olivetti. A chorus of 20 girls in Japanese costume, with their bright parasols and fans, makes the entire programme a very gay and attractive performance. Tickets may be procured from Miss Clara Lorser, Main 5923 or from any member of the Glee club.

An event of interest in fraternal and social circles of the coming week will be an informal dance and card party to be given at the Sunnyside Masonic temple, East Thirty-ninth street and Hawthorne avenue, under the auspices of the live wire finance building committee of Palestine Masonic lodge No. 141. Cards, dancing and refreshments will furnish entertainment for the evening.

Patrons and patronesses for the occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon F. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Christy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Emil Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Raeburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Townsend. Proceeds from the dance will go to the building fund. A campaign was inaugurated by Palestine lodge to raise $50,000 for the erection of a Masonic temple at Forty-fifth avenue and Sixty-fourth street.

Court of Honor Life Association No. 233 will hold an open meeting Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in Foresters' hall, 123 Fourth street. All members are cordially invited. Bring your friends. Dancing, cards and refreshments.

Mrs. N. D. MacDonald will entertain with a card party next Wednesday evening at her home, 818 Thurman street.

The Kenton club will give an informal dancing party at the clubhouse Wednesday night.

Winslow Meade Circle No. 7, Ladies of the Grand Army, will serve its birthday dinner tomorrow at room 525 courthouse. All members come with full baskets and have an enjoyable time.

St. Patrick's parish will hold a moonlight excursion on the pleasure boat Swan tomorrow evening. The committees in charge have been busy during the last week completing arrangements for the affair. Mrs. R. J. Blake is the general chairman, assisted by women and men of the parish. Freddie Jeannet's orchestra will furnish music for dancing. Entrance to the boat from east approach of the Morrison-street bridge.

Mrs. Inez Smith will entertain the members and comrades of George Wright corps and post next Friday afternoon at her home, 615 Sixth street, from 2 to 5 o'clock. It will be a benefit card party for the bazaar fund. Take the Sixteenth-street car to Sherman street, walk one block south. Prizes will be given.

A cooked food sale will be the opening feature of the three days' bazaar to be given by the women of St. Francis parish May 21, June 1 and 2. The food sale of last year was well patronized and those who remember it are looking forward to another sale of delicious meat loaf, salads, cold meats and appetizing home-cooked foods. This sale will start on Wednesday afternoon, May 21, at 1 o'clock in St. Francis hall, East Eleventh and Pine streets.

Holman school will give an entertainment Friday, June 2 at 7:45 P. M. (Continued on Page 7)

H-LIEBES & CO.

Furs and Individual Style Shops Broadway at Morrison

Velvet invades the field of Summer hats--

Felt first—then silk—fur trimming—velvet—surely summer was never so contradictory in her choice of headgear!

Monotone effects are smart in taffeta suit hats—silk crepe combines with velvet—in simple, striking shapes—leghorn combines with felt—in some new and extremely smart models—priced

15.00 to 35.00

It costs remarkably little to store your furs

As a matter of fact, you yourself fix the charges—since we base them on a small percentage of your own valuation. And they are utterly safe—once stored with us—from fire, theft, moths and the harm heat does them.

May we send for your furs?

Fur refashioning charges have been definitely lowered.

Summer brings the services of our expert fur craftsmen at such extremely moderate rates that you will do well to look over your furs—before storing them—and let us estimate the cost to refashion them!

Phone Marshall 785 for particulars.

H. Liebes & Co. ESTABLISHED 1864

H-LIEBES & CO.

Furs and Individual Style Shops Broadway at Morrison

"SPORT-O'-WOOL" CAMEL'S HAIR TOPCOATS

—in a sale quite as remarkable as last Monday's offering of suits

at 49.75

100 per cent pure camel's hair. Four tremendously smart styles!

Their regular selling prices are 75.00, 85.00 and 95.00—but these splendid Sport-O'-Wool topcoats—made specially to our order—will be offered Monday at 49.75. Sewn in each coat is the celebrated "Sport-O'-Wool" label!

Utility coats of the very highest type—suited to year 'round service for town, motor, travel, steamer or sports wear! Tailored faultlessly; with big roomy pockets, the belts fastening with excellent bone buckles or buttons. Lined throughout with soft satin. 14, 16, 18 and 38 sizes only.

It is impossible to over-estimate the importance of this sale. Early shopping is strongly advised!

Important sale of exquisite, new COSTUME BLOUSES

at 10.95

Their regular selling prices are 19.50 to 25.00

The sort of blouse one wears to dinner or afternoon functions—the loveliest of its sort—at a price one pays for the most ordinary model!

Georgette and heavy crepe de chine—Peggy neck, vestee and shawl-collared models—rich with wide filet and Irish laces, hand-embroidered net, infinitely fine pleated frills. White, flesh, toast, bisque. Many in the overblouse style.

100 beautiful new blouses—each in its separate box—40 styles to choose from. Another vital reason for early shopping Monday!

Harriet Lee shops for out-of-town customers

H. Liebes & Co. ESTABLISHED 1864

Charge purchases payable in July