

HIGH SCHOOL LEARNING AFFAIRS PREPARATORY TO LEADERSHIP

Jefferson Track Meet Medals Are Awarded—Memorial Day Is Generally Observed—James John Presents "The Glass Slipper."

Franklin "Prom" Is Week's Important Event.

Announcements for future events are made—Picnic at Mount Tabor Park Attracts Large Crowd.

BY EDNA MAY ROOT.
THE June '22 class senior "prom" was the most important social event of last week. It was held in the Franklin gymnasium, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the entire class. Billy Webb's orchestra furnished music and refreshments were served. A floor committee composed of members of the class was in charge. Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Colton, Miss M. C. Wilson, Mrs. W. W. Hodwell, Mrs. Hibson, Mrs. W. P. Hatch, Mrs. Schmidt, Miss Reeves, Miss Groshong, Miss Young, Miss Whittlesey, Miss Burns and Miss Dins.

classroom in order that the graduation may be even more beautiful than in previous years. The girls are busy making flowers of organdy as a form of decoration for their dresses.

Some very pretty Kimonos were on display in the second hall last week. The materials used were crepe or burlap. The Kimonos were trimmed with ribbon or cording. The garments were the work of one of the first term sewing classes and the Kimonos are now working on baby skirts.

Benson Features Memorial Day Programme.

Tech Band Assists in Lone Fir Services—Social Turn Verein Gives Dinner-Dance.

BY KENNETH RAUCH.
SPECIAL memorial assembly was held last Monday afternoon. After the orchestra had played a few selections the entire student body gave the salute to the flag. This was followed by singing the national anthem, led by Mr. Storli of the school faculty.

Officers of the Lincoln high school, January 1922 class. From left—(Above) Joyce Albert, president; Milton Harris, treasurer. (Below) Hortense Burkhardt, vice-president; Fern Allen, secretary.

Washington Art Classes Do Excellent Work.

Chorus and Glee Club Combine at Picnic—Radio Club in School's Newest Organization.

BY TED McGRATH AND TED HEWITT.
THE art classes of Miss Yager, Miss Gorham and Miss Krebs have accomplished many things this term. Many articles of practical and artistic value have been made by the students. Miss Gorham's classes in commercial art are making advertising posters which are practical for the business man's standpoint.

Lincoln Enjoys Most Interesting Assembly.

Jefferson Wins Baseball Game on Multnomah Field—Glee Club Activity Is Noted.

BY ROBERT L. GARDNER.
THE students of Lincoln high enjoyed one of the most interesting Memorial day assemblies ever held in the school auditorium. The programme consisted of several interesting numbers. After the school had risen, saluted the flag and sung "The Star Spangled Banner," the orchestra played a few selections.

James John Enjoys "The Glass Slipper."

Memorial Day Fittingly Observed—Special Assembly Held—Student Body Election Is Feature.

BY ELOISE GRAY.
"THE Glass Slipper," a musical comedy in three acts, presented by the James John Glee Club Friday evening, May 26, proved one of the most enjoyable operettas ever at school. The story, a modern version of "Cinderella," was very interesting; the songs were most delightful and the stage scenery colorful and attractive.

Commerce Survives Ledger Staff Election.

"Red" O'Donnell Receives Shock While Heading Newspaper—The Sorosis Pins Will Be Nifty.

BY HELEN ZWINGLI AND ARDEN PANGBORN.
AFTER a full week of campaigning and electioneering—ranging from soap boxing to candy buying—the Ledger election was held last Thursday. This race, which was the most important of the election, was won by the "Red" O'Donnell.

Jefferson High Track Meet Medals Are Awarded.

Girls Finish Artistic Posters—Memorial Day Programme Features—Radio Club Is Organized.

BY HARRY G. JOHNSON.
A GENERAL assembly was held at Jefferson Wednesday for the awarding of medals by Jefferson students in the Portland interscholastic track meet held at Multnomah field on May 25, and for the purpose of advertising the "Live Wire" vaudeville which was given in the school auditorium last night.

Warren Refuses to Be Converted by Helen's Adventures in Spiritualism and One Night Disproves All Her Pet Theories.

Warren Refuses to Be Converted by Helen's Adventures in Spiritualism and One Night Disproves All Her Pet Theories.

With a supreme effort Helen now forced the quaking question: "Is it—Aunt Rena?" Instantly came three confirming raps.

Class Play at Girls' Polytechnic Is Rehearsed.

Mothers Are Honor Guests at Special Tea—Dainty Creations Are Fashioned—Kimono on Display.

BY KATHLEEN SHAW and HARRIET BOLLEN.
REHEARSALS occupied the time of the class play cast, both in the afternoons and evenings of last week. In order to advertise the play a short sketch was given each day. On Wednesday the entire cast paraded, chanting an original poem, entitled "The Cast's Prayer," on Thursday the Bennett family visited the school and each member gave a short speech. After the regular rehearsal on Friday the seniors took charge and part of the third act was presented. Those who took part were Edith Shaw, Betty Whitcomb, Opal Gladhart, Elsie Duffield and Elsie Sarff. Blanch Holton announced the programme and Grace Thoburn gave a short speech.

Story Triumph of Correct Detail.

New York Evening Post.

The following story has appeared in the New York Evening Post, going abroad last year Sinclair Lewis bought a fancy suitcase for his wife. They used it on a week-end trip up the Hudson and it was stolen on the train. It was the manuscript of Lewis' new novel. The real tragedy is that Mr. Lewis did not have a ton of money.

Three Generations Climb Steeple.

Scientific American.

The weathercock atop the 300-foot steeple of the parish church in Leteter, England, was surrounded by rain, cold and fog when three generations of visitors arrived. They were Herbert Neville, 64, his son, 32, and his grandson, a fine 20-pound baby. Son carried grandson, while mother and grandmothers anxiously watched the climb from the church tower.

Human Hair a Commodity.

Forty bales of human hair is one item of a cargo reaching Seattle from China.

Each 130-pound bale is worth more than $400 here; our annual imports exceed $500,000, and most of the hair goes into hair nets.

Human Hair a Commodity.

Forty bales of human hair is one item of a cargo reaching Seattle from China.

Each 130-pound bale is worth more than $400 here; our annual imports exceed $500,000, and most of the hair goes into hair nets.

Human Hair a Commodity.

Forty bales of human hair is one item of a cargo reaching Seattle from China.

Each 130-pound bale is worth more than $400 here; our annual imports exceed $500,000, and most of the hair goes into hair nets.

Human Hair a Commodity.

Forty bales of human hair is one item of a cargo reaching Seattle from China.

Each 130-pound bale is worth more than $400 here; our annual imports exceed $500,000, and most of the hair goes into hair nets.

Human Hair a Commodity.

Forty bales of human hair is one item of a cargo reaching Seattle from China.

Each 130-pound bale is worth more than $400 here; our annual imports exceed $500,000, and most of the hair goes into hair nets.